Creating Jobs, Creating Workers Chicago Assembly,1990      The New Political Economy of Urban Education

Pauline Lipman,2013-05-13 Using Chicago as a case study of the interconnectedness of neoliberal urban policies on housing economic development race and education Lipman explores larger implications for equity justice and the right to the city

The New Chicago John Koval,2006-09-15 For generations visitors journalists and social scientists alike have asserted that Chicago is the quintessentially American city Indeed the introduction to The New Chicago reminds us that to know America you must know Chicago The contributors boldly announce the demise of the city of broad shoulders and the transformation of its physical social cultural and economic institutions into a new Chicago In this wide ranging book twenty scholars journalists and activists relying on data from the 2000 census and many years of direct experience with the city identify five converging forces in American urbanization which are reshaping this storied metropolis The twenty six essays included here analyze Chicago by way of globalization and its impact on the contemporary city economic restructuring the evolution of machine style politics into managerial politics physical transformations of the central city and its suburbs and race relations in a multicultural era In elaborating on the effects of these broad forces contributors detail the role of eight significant racial ethnic and immigrant communities in shaping the character of the new Chicago and present ten case studies of innovative governmental grassroots and civic action Multifaceted and authoritative The New Chicago offers an important and unique portrait of an emergent and new Windy City

Neighborhood Jobs, Race, and Skills Daniel Immergluck,2018-05-20 Originally published in 1998 Neighbourhood Jobs Race and Skills argues that race is a powerful and persistent barrier to employment Analysing existing literature this book outlines how racial discrimination in hiring against African Americans appears to remain a contributor to high unemployment rates in black neighbourhoods The book also discusses how issues such as poor schools and physical and social isolation compound employment problems as well as changes in policy on skill requirements and the location of jobs The book argues that combined this is a major contributor to concentrated urban employment and poverty

Affordable Housing and Public Policy Chicago Assembly,1993      Out of Place Talmadge Wright,1997-01-01 Discusses the impact of inner city redevelopment programs and policies on the homeless and shows the methods used civil protests squatting and legal advocacy by the homeless to organize a tactical resistance to restructuring efforts Presents case studies of two different types of homeless organized resistance groups in Chicago and San Jose

Education as Enforcement Kenneth Saltman,David A. Gabbard,2010-09-13 The first volume to focus on the intersections of militarization corporations and education Education as Enforcement exposed the many ways schooling has become the means through which the expansion of global corporate power are enforced Since publication of the first edition these trends have increased to disturbing levels as a result of the extensive militarization of civil society the implosion of the neoconservative movement and the financial meltdown that radically called into question the basic assumptions undergirding neoliberal ideology An understanding of the enforcement of these corporate economic imperatives remains imperative to a critical discussion of related militarized trends in schools whether through accountability and standards school security or other discipline based reforms Education as Enforcement elaborates upon the central arguments of the first edition and updates readers on how recent events have reinforced their continued original relevance In addition to substantive updates to several original chapters this second edition includes a new foreword by Henry Giroux a new introduction and four new chapters that reveal the most contemporary expressions of the militarization and corporatization of education New topics covered in this collection include zero tolerance foreign and second language instruction in the post 9 11 context the rise of single sex classrooms and the intersection of the militarization and corporatization of schools under the Obama administration

Education and Poverty in Affluent Countries Carlo Raffo, Alan Dyson, Helen Gunter, Dave Hall, Lisa Jones, Afroditi Kalambouka, 2009-12-04 For the first time researchers policymakers and practitioners across the world will have access to a comprehensive mapping of research evidence and policy strategies about education and poverty in affluent countries Although there is widespread agreement that poverty and poor educational outcomes are related there are competing explanations as to why that should be the case This is a major problem for practitioners policy makers and researchers who are looking for pointers to action or straightforward ways of understanding an issue that troubles education systems across the world This unique book brings scholarship and analysis from some of the most influential researchers and writers on education and poverty within one text The authors provide a synthesising framework that will help researchers and policy makers to examine future educational policy in a holistic and comprehensive fashion

Spatial Theories of Education Kalervo N. Gulson, Colin Symes, 2007-11-21 This collection of original work within the sociology of education draws on the spatial turn in contemporary social theory The premise of this book is that drawing on theories of space allows for a more sophisticated understanding of the competing rationalities underlying educational policy change social inequality and cultural practices The contributors work a spatial dimension into the consideration of educational phenomena and illustrate its explanatory potential in a range of domains urban renewal globalisation race markets and school choice suburbanisation regional and rural settings and youth and student culture

Crime, Communities, and Public Policy Chicago Assembly, 1995 Hardy management McGill U examines how Canadian university administrators responded to declining enrolment funding cutbacks and public demands for more accountability during the 1980s Citing six examples she argues that their efforts to centralize authority and reallocate resources have failed to account for the political realities of university life and conflict and recommends they take a broader view and seek consensus among competitors for scarce resources Canadian card order number C95 920993 X Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

Chicago Enterprise, 1990 Confronting Intolerance Stephen G. Mogge, 2008-01-01 Confronting Intolerance Critical Responsive Literacy Instruction with Adult Immigrants captures the experience of adult immigrants who are improving their English

literacy while confronting an intolerant political culture It examines recent immigration policy and the anti immigrant fervor that has gripped the United States and describes the perseverance and struggles of immigrant students to pursue their goals through literacy education The book offers a powerful and vivid example of critical pedagogy blended with sociocultural perspectives of literacy education in an effort to raise student consciousness and alter the political culture Confronting Intolerances is an ethnographic teacher research narrative that describes a year in the life of the author s classroom with adult Latino immigrants mostly Mexican in a Chicago Illinois USA settlement house Specific focus is given to immigrant students response to reading material that was selected to meet individual ambitions but was also selected to meet the concerns and anxieties that surfaced in response to the intolerant climate The book describes students engagement with narrative and informational reading and displays the students evolving perspectives on politics economics culture and race as these relate to Latino immigrants in the United States Through extensive classroom dialogue and descriptions of students engaged in political activities the book explores the students emerging sense of what it means to become American amidst an immigrant backlash It takes the reader through a year in a settlement house classroom and reveals the hopes dreams and struggles of immigrants who continue to pursue America s promises those realized and those broken Families, Poverty, and Welfare Reform Lawrence B. Joseph,1999 This volume combines essays by public policy scholars with comments by social project directors who speak from their experiences in the field Essays include critical assessments of policies to reduce dependency on welfare and a discussion of the effects of poverty on women and children as well as a look at welfare reform in Illinois Paying for Health Care Chicago Assembly,1992 Without Justice For All Adolph Reed,2018-02-12 Without Justice for All The New Liberalism and Our Retreat from Racial Equality questions examines and explains the way a new orthodoxy of American leaders has contributed to the social stratification and inequality which plagues America today By looking at the history of our social policies since the New Deal as well as the status of specific policy arenas essayists show how political shifts over the past fifty years have moved us away from a more egalitarian politics Throughout the book responds critically to the now conventional argument that liberalism must be reconfigured in ways that retreat from immediate identification with the interests of labor minorities and the poor From a look at federal housing policy and the failure of New Deal social programs to an examination of long established public assistance programs and Affirmative Action Without Justice for All is a timely and important contribution to the dialogue on race in modern America African Americans and Post-Industrial Labor Markets James Benjamin Stewart,1997-01-01 A collection of 22 analyses which document the disproportionate vulnerability of African Americans to the dislocations associated with the ongoing transformation of the U S economy All of the chapters have been published previously in between 1991 and 1996 Seven sections cover the intersection of race power culture and economic discrimination black white wage differentials occupational crowding black women in the labor market structural unemployment and job displacement sectoral analyses and strategies to increase employment Annotation c by Book News Inc Portland Or      High-stakes Testing and the Decline of Teaching and Learning David W. Hursh, 2008 This book examines the changes in educational policy in the U S and Britain over the last twenty five years Hursh argues that education in the States and Britain has been radically transformed first through efforts to create curricular standards more recently through an emphasis on accountability measured by standardized tests and currently efforts to introduce market competition and private services into educational systems Hursh offers an alternative to the neoliberal conception of society and education complete with examples of parents who reject the current emphasis on individual success and schools that promote civic mindedness      Community Self-Determination John J. Laukaitis, 2015-09-11 After World War II American Indians began relocating to urban areas in large numbers in search of employment Partly influenced by the Bureau of Indian Affairs this migration from rural reservations to metropolitan centers presented both challenges and opportunities This history examines the educational programs American Indians developed in Chicago and gives particular attention to how the American Indian community chose its own distinct path within and outside of the larger American Indian self determination movement In what John J Laukaitis terms community self determination American Indians in Chicago demonstrated considerable agency as they developed their own programs and worked within already existent institutions The community based initiatives included youth programs at the American Indian Center and St Augustine s Center for American Indians the Native American Committee s Adult Learning Center Little Big Horn High School O Wai Ya Wa Elementary School Native American Educational Services College and the Institute for Native American Development at Truman College Community Self Determination presents the first major examination of these initiatives and programs and provides an understanding of how education functioned as a form of activism for Chicago s American Indian community      High Stakes Education Pauline Lipman, 2004-02-29 This book analyses the ways in which schools in urban areas are shaped and influenced by social economic and political forces within the social environment Utilizing research from schools in Chicago the book will show how schools attempt to      Routledge Library Editions: Urban Planning Various, 2021-06-23 The volumes in this set originally published between 1970 and 1998 draw together research by leading academics in the area of urban planning and provide a rigorous examination of related key issues The volumes examine teaching urban markets planning transport planning poverty politics forecasting techniques and an examination of the inner city in Europe and the US whilst also exploring the general principles and practices of planning This set will be of particular interest to students of sociology geography planning and urbanization respectively
