Wishnietsky, 1993 Defines global education and describes how to use computers to teach students about the necessity of thinking globally Illinois School Research and Development ,1993 Secondary School Teaching Richard Dean Kellough, Noreen G. Kellough, 1999 Focusing specifically on teaching in grades 7 12 this comprehensive resource guide workbook involves readers interactively through discussions exercises vignettes and case studies with the why what how and how well of a performance based competency based criterion referenced approach to teaching Explores instructional planning strategy implementation discipline legal issues and both student and teacher evaluation Reflects the latest developments in cognitive learning theory the constructivist approach to learning social interactive learning the current school funding environment and the growing diversity of the student population Emphasizes an eclectic model of teaching which encourages readers to choose effective approaches from a variety of possible teaching models Connects strategies rather than teaching them as separate entities For prospective secondary school teachers grades 7 12

Teaching in the Middle and Secondary Schools Joseph F. Callahan, Leonard H. Clark, Richard Dean Kellough, 1998 This book is designed to provide a practical criterion referenced performance based model for general secondary or middle school methods The text's unique modular format allows students to work through each module at their own pace building confidence as each skill is mastered Using current and practical methods of teaching this latest edition incorporates constructivist based theory social interactive learning strategies and inquiry learning which involve students in problem solving situations

Developing Effective Drug Education Programs Lowell Horton, 1992 This booklet discusses obstacles to effective drug education programs and suggests components that should be included in order to ensure effective programs The first section presents six questions to ask of one's drug education program noting that a poorly conceived program can do more harm than good The second section focuses on convincing students to delay beginning use of alcohol Ten warning signs of drug and alcohol use are presented in the third section These signs range from a drop in grades to a display of obvious behavior associated with intoxication or drug use The fourth section discusses confronting social attitudes toward alcohol use This section describes myths associated with alcohol use and the distorted messages which children receive from beer commercials The fifth section provides the following suggestions for designing effective drug education programs 1 articulate goals of the program 2 focus on the gateway drugs 3 start early 4 plan a comprehensive program 5 provide teacher inservice 6 mobilize positive peer pressure 7 involve parent networking and 8 build evaluation into the program An annotated bibliography of references and resources is included ABL

Developing an Effective Teacher Mentor Program Melvin P. Heller, Nancy W. Sindelar, 1991 School districts considering a mentoring program need to consider four things 1 the reasons for a teacher mentor program 2 how to start such a program 3 administrative support needed for a successful program and 4 pitfalls to avoid The reasons for having a mentor program are that it benefits the new teacher the mentor and the school The new teacher's opportunities to exchange views with an experienced teacher is a distinct benefit to him/her The mentor benefits also however because of the opportunity to share views experiences and strategies The improved teaching that usually results is an asset to the school Starting a program involves six stages establishing a rationale setting criteria for the selection of mentors defining roles inviting the mentors training the mentors and evaluating the program To be successful the program must have administrative support from the board of education the superintendent the central office staff the teacher union and the principal As with any new program anticipating problems can help to avoid them Some pitfalls are overdependence on the part of the protege ego problems on the part of the mentor and the evaluation dilemma arising from the mentor s dual role of confidant and evaluator Mentorship programs promote professionalism by providing continuous staff development during the first year of teaching AMH Developing Children's Creative Thinking Through the Arts Florence Christoplos, Peter J. Valletutti, 1990 Discussion of painting music dance and movement and drama as creative expression and activity Teaching Young Adolescents Richard Dean Kellough, Noreen G. Kellough, 2003 Everything future teachers of young adolescents need to know is here covered thoroughly and presented in a down to earth manner that emphasizes the practical as well as the theoretical These authors encourage future teachers to take an eclectic approach to teaching one that actively engages the adolescent in his or her own learning and gives every student an equal chance to participate learn grow and succeed A wealth of examples and exercises model the book s tenets while the authors keen understanding of their subject keeps content to the point Coverage includes the characteristics of young adolescents planning for their instruction implementing instruction and assessing their learning For professionals in the field of teaching
