Creation Of The Gods:

Creation of the Gods Chan Kok Seng, Creation of the Gods a Chinese literary classic ranks among great works such as The Three Kingdoms Water Margin and Journey to the West It relates the struggles between forces of King Zhou the despotic last ruler of the Shang dynasty and Jiang Ziya the legendary commander and strategist who helped found the Zhou dynasty in the 11th century BC There is no better way to rediscover the saga of the infamous King Zou and his vixen concubine and how they got their just desserts from the army of King Wu of the Zhou Dynasty And this is just the icings of the cake in this book of Creation of the Gods Creation of the Gods, 1992 Tells the story of King Zhou the fated last ruler of the Shang Dynasty and one of the most notorious tyrants in Chinese history Zhou was cruel and lascivious and worst of all deluded by his beautiful concubine Daji who was according to this novel a fox sprite He was finally defeated by King Wu of the Zhou Dynasty who with Jiang Ziya's help rebelled and sent an army to punish the tyrant for his cruelty to the people King Zhou lost his throne and burned himself to death Translator's note The Origin of the Gods Richard S. Caldwell, 1993-03-11 This innovative study posits that myths in general and Greek theogonic myth in particular have a latent meaning that is responsible both for the emotional energy inherent in myths and for the special attraction they have even to those who no longer believe in their literal meaning Caldwell describes in clear and comprehensible language aspects of psychoanalytic theory relevant to the understanding of Greek myth implementing a psychoanalytic methodology to interpret the Greek myth of origin and succession particularly as stated in Hesiod's Theogony In reassessing this work which tells the story of the world's beginning from unbounded Chaos to the defeat of the Titans Caldwell addresses several unexplained problems why does the world begin with the spontaneous emergence of four uncaused entities and why in this particular order Why does Ouranos prevent his children from being born by confining them in their mother's body Why is Ouranos castrated by his son and why is Aphrodite born from the severed genitals Why is it always the youngest son who overthrows his father the sky god and what is the logic of the steps taken by Zeus to prevent the same thing happening to him Presenting a new definition and analyses of the psychological functions in myth this new study should appeal to a wide range of classicists teachers and students of mythology and those interested in the application of psychoanalytic methods to literature Creation and the God of Abraham David B. Burrell, Carlo Cogliati, Janet M. Soskice, William R. Stoeger, 2010-09-02 Creatio ex nihilo is a foundational doctrine in the Abrahamic faiths It states that God created the world freely out of nothing from no pre-existent matter space or time This teaching is central to classical accounts of divine action free will grace theodicy religious language intercessory prayer and questions of divine temporality and as such the foundation of a scriptural God but also the transcendent Creator of all that is This edited collection explores how we might now recover a place for this doctrine and with it a consistent defence of the God of Abraham in philosophical scientific and theological terms The contributions span the religious traditions of Judaism Christianity and Islam and cover a wide range of sources including historical philosophical scientific and theological As such the book develops these perspectives to reveal the relevance of this idea within the modern world
