Caring in Nursing Classics Marlaine C. Smith, 2012-12-12 Print CourseSmart Thinking in Education Matthew Lipman, 2003-01-20 In our increasingly complex world the teaching of thinking has become imperative Yet evidence shows that our children are not learning how to think Matthew Lipman a leading educational theorist gets to the heart of our educational problems in Thinking in Education and makes profound and workable suggestions for solving those problems Thinking in Education describes procedures that must be put in place if students at all levels of education are to become more thoughtful more reasonable and more judicious It recommends that the classroom be converted into a community of inquiry and that the discipline of philosophy be redesigned so as to provide the concepts and values now missing from the curriculum These recommendations have now been carried out the community of inquiry is a recognized pedagogical strategy and traditional academic philosophy has been transformed into a discipline that offers a model of higher order thinking and an image of what all education can be Copyright Libri GmbH All rights reserved Perspectives in Professional Child and Youth Care James P Anglin, Jerome Beker, 2015-12-22 Here are the information ideas and inspiration that will help child care workers in their daily struggle to provide better care for children youth and families

Perspectives in Professional Child and Youth Care is a much needed sourcebook of readings on the current state of the art of professional child and youth care in North America. Some of the leading practitioners, academicians, researchers, and administrators provide a child care perspective writing about what they on the front lines perceive as the most pressing issues and significant topics in the field today including the nature of child and youth care, current issues in education and training, therapeutic program issues, key support functions in child and youth programs, the changing work environment, and new roles and developing professionalism in the field of child and youth care. This enormously insightful book will be valuable for use in academic courses and training workshops as well as for individual child and youth care professionals and practitioners from related disciplines. Psychoanalysis and Creativity in Everyday Life Gemma Corradi Fiumara, 2013-05-29

Psychoanalysis and Creativity in Everyday Life Ordinary Genius is an attempt to create a psychoanalytic space for the quest and questions of our everyday creativity. Official creativity is normally applauded to the point of obscuring all other types of creativity with detrimental consequences for our psychic life. However, as Gemma Corradi Fiumara demonstrates, the creative force of ordinary subjects can be as vigorous as that of our acclaimed official accomplishments. Corradi Fiumara focuses on the unsung creativity which emerges from relationships and the world at large. She explores how understanding the operation of creative impulses in an everyday setting can crucially inform psychoanalytic clinical work. There are three main themes: Donald Winnicott's Psychoanalytic Will, Melanie Klein, and the Other Side of Genius. Genius Ordinary and Extraordinary Psychoanalysis and Creativity in Everyday Life advocates an inclusionary view of human genius and demonstrates that creativity and genius can be manifested in everyday life with the ordinary as its focus of attention. It will be key reading for psychoanalysts, psychoanalytic psychotherapists, philosophers, and scholars in social studies. The Rainbow Way Lucy H. Pearce, 2013-12-13. Visioned as the guide and mentor that most creative women yearn for but never find in their daily lives, The Rainbow Way explores the depths of the creative urge from psychological, biological, spiritual, and cultural perspectives. This positive, nurturing, and practical book will help to empower you to unlock your creative potential within the constraints of your demanding life as a mother. Featuring the wisdom of over fifty creative mothers, artists, writers, film makers, performers, and crafters including Jennifer Loudon, multiple best-selling author Pam England, author, artist, and founder Birthing From Within, Julie Daley, writer, photographer, dancer, and creator of Unabashedly Female, Indigo Bacal, founder of WILDE Tribe, Foreword by Leonie Dawson, author, artist, entrepreneur, and women's business and creativity mentor.

Badhwar,2014-06-02 This book offers a new argument for the ancient claim that well being as the highest prudential good eudaimonia consists of happiness in a virtuous life The argument takes into account recent work on happiness well being and virtue and defends a neo Aristotelian conception of virtue as an integrated intellectual emotional disposition that is limited in both scope and stability This conception of virtue is argued to be widely held and compatible with social and cognitive psychology The main argument of the book is as follows i the concept of well being as the highest prudential good is internally coherent and widely held ii well being thus conceived requires an objectively worthwhile life iii in turn such a life requires autonomy and reality orientation i e a disposition to think for oneself seek truth or understanding about important aspects of one s own life and human life in general and act on this understanding when circumstances permit iv to the extent that someone is successful in achieving understanding and acting on it she is realistic and to the extent that she is realistic she is virtuous v hence well being as the highest prudential good requires virtue But complete virtue is impossible for both psychological and epistemic reasons and this is one reason why complete well being is impossible Passion and Reason Grace D. Cumming Long,1993-01-01 This book provides readers with a Christian ethics from the perspective of women s experience rooted in passion and reason emotion and research Through a collage of autobiographical narratives and feminist theologies Cumming Long constructs an unconventional approach to moral questioning using the domestic arts to find creative ways to respond to the social crises of our day
