Goldschmidt, Amy J. Johnson, Barak A. Salmoni, 2005 Re Envisioning Egypt 1919 1952 presents new and often dismissed aspects of the constitutional monarchy era in Egyptian history It demonstrates that many of the domestic and regional sociopolitical and cultural changes credited to the 1952 revolutionaries actually began in the decades before the July coup Arguing against the predominant view of the pre revolutionary era in Egypt as one of creeping decay the volume restores understandings of the 1919 1952 years as integral to modern nation state formation and social transformation The book s contributors show that Egypt s real revolutions were long term processes emerging over several decades prior to 1952 The leaders of the 1952 coup capitalized on these developments yet earlier changes in Egyptian society fundamentally facilitated their actions and policies This volume includes revisionist discussion of domestic political issues and foreign policy the military education social reform and class as well as popular media art and literature By introducing new approaches to these under appreciated categories of analysis through exploration of untapped sources and by re examining the political context of the time Re Envisioning Egypt 1919 1952 proposes innovative methodologies for understanding this crucial period in Egyptian history casting these years as fundamental to the country s twentieth century trajectory Contributors Tewfik Aclimandos Malak Badrawi Andrew Flibbert Nancy Gallagher Arthur Goldschmidt Mervat Hatem Misako Ikeda Amy J Johnson Anne Claire Kerboeuf Samia Kholoussi Hanan Kholoussy Fred Lawson Shaun T Lopez Scott David McIntosh Roger Owen Lucie Ryzova Barak A Salmoni James Whidden Caroline Williams

Napoleon to Nasser: The Story of Modern Egypt Raymond Flower, 2011-06-01 The story of modern Egypt is more than just a cavalcade of colourful personalities To get beneath the skin of the Egyptians themselves it is essential to recognize the pressures to which they have so long been subjected to understand how overburdened by history and exiled from power in their own land they have been elbowed out by foreign manipulation to a point where explosive action was the only remedy From the time that Napoleon brought Europe to Egypt in 1798 few areas of the globe have aroused more passions than this ancient land Napoleon s own dreams of glory were short lived but he paved the way for Mohammed Ali the rogue Pasha that Palmerston wanted to chuck in the Nile to found a dynasty and very nearly take over the whole Ottoman Empire with his fellah armies Less astute his son Said was hoaxed by de Lesseps over the Suez Canal concession and his grandson Ismail precipitated a British occupation with the de facto reign of the hardline proconsuls such as Cromer and Kitchener Although the British presence brought prosperity to Egypt and security for monarchs like Fouad and Farouk it also caused growing frustration to the multiplying mass of the Egyptian people Finally Gamal Abdel Nasser put an end to the ancient regime and threw the Europeans out again to embark on his astonishing career as aspirant leader of the Arab world In this entertaining book Raymond Flower unfolds the panorama of events from the arrival of Napoleon to the death of Nasser not only as it appears to an historian but also to the man in the street in Cairo Well qualified to do so having lived there for part of the historic span he covers Mr Flower has known most of the significant figures in the days of Farouk as well as in the revolutionary Egypt and thus is able to give an enthralling and well balanced account of a vital period in recent history The Statesman's Year-Book J.
