Gunn,2017-11-13 In World Trade Systems of the East and West Geoffrey C Gunn profiles Nagasaki s historic role in mediating the Japanese bullion trade especially silver exchanged against Chinese and Vietnamese silk Founded in 1571 as the terminal port of the Portuguese Macau ships Nagasaki served as Japan s window to the world over long time and with the East West trade carried on by the Dutch and with even more vigor by the Chinese junk trade While the final expulsion of the Portuguese in 1646 characteristically defines the closed period of early modern Japanese history the real trade seclusion policy this work argues only came into place one century later when the Shogunate firmly grasped the true impact of the bullion trade upon the national economy Art and Revolution in Modern China Ralph Croizier,2023-11-15 This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1988 Black Belt ,1977-04 The oldest and most respected martial arts title in the industry this popular monthly magazine addresses the needs of martial artists of all levels by providing them with information about every style of self defense in the world including techniques and strategies In addition Black Belt produces and markets over 75 martial arts oriented books and videos including many about the works of Bruce Lee the best known marital arts figure in the world The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1904 New Times in Modern Japan Stefan Tanaka,2009-02-09 New Times in Modern Japan concerns the transformation of time the reckoning of time during Japan s Meiji period specifically from around 1870 to 1900 Time literally changed as the archipelago synchronized with the Western imperialists reckoning of time The solar calendar and clock became standard timekeeping devices and society adapted to the abstractions inherent in modern notions of time This set off a cascade of changes that completely reconfigured how humans interacted with each other and with their environment a process whose analysis carries implications for other non Western societies as well By examining topics ranging from geology ghosts childhood art history and architecture to nature as a whole Stefan Tanaka explores how changing conceptions of time destabilized inherited knowledge and practices and ultimately facilitated the reconfiguration of the archipelago's heterogeneous communities into the liberal capitalist nation state Japan However this revolutionary transformation where in the words of Lewis Mumford the clock not the steam engine is the key mechanism of the industrial age has received little more than a footnote in the history of Japan This book's innovative focus on time not only shifts attention away from debates about the failure or success of modernization toward how individuals interact with the overlay of abstract concepts upon their lives it also illuminates the roles of history as discourse and as practice in this reconfiguration of society In doing so it will influence discussions about modernity well beyond the borders of Japan Report on the National Collection of Fine Arts Including the Freer Gallery of Art National Collection of Fine Arts (U.S.),1957
