happens when a person has a Clear Vivid ecstatic transcendent religious or spiritual experience where they sense that they are being caught up to God or Spirit Do they really encounter an unseen intangible spiritual realm that is Ultimate Reality and the Ground of existence Why do some people who are diagnosed as mentally ill claim to have such experiences If a person persists in these kinds of beliefs are they deluded or even mad Are they actually suffering from religious mania Are atheists correct in dismissing these experiences as merely psychological Or is it the atheists who are blind and deaf when it comes to Ultimate Reality Drawing from personal experience and from over forty years of practical and theoretical engagement with spirituality and religion as well as from approaches within psychology author Robert Laynton explores these questions not as a defense of religion or spirituality but as an exploration of experience on the edge of reason

against a high control religion and disagreeing with conservative positions on gender sexuality and the body Changing Paths suffering still persist on the world scene Of course we know from the Buddha s declaration of His Four Noble Truths that suffering here on Earth will never go away entirely Still unnecessary suffering a type of misery that has viable solutions also remains constant despite the fact that humanity has had plenty of time to apply these readily available stopgaps When looking at this perplexing situation the conscious observer cannot but notice often painfully so that narrowness of mind lies at the root of both the problem of suffering itself and its tardy removal In view of all this when one considers ultimate solutions there is nothing that compares with that of Universality Universal religious outlook universal philosophical perspective universal compassion universal service of mankind a more universal mindset even a more universally based business and politics all would be welcome alternatives to the ponderous and ineffective arsenal of methodical weapons that nations and peoples are presently utilizing to try to stem the tide of pervasive human suffering True religion nowadays has become an obvious caricature of itself and philosophy has turned into a job and a career instead of a means for the revelation of truth Even altruistic service after the many attempts it has made towards drying up the ocean of human misery has shown us its limitations and its downside

Nectar #33 Swami Brahmeshananda,Annapurna Sarada,Rabbi Rami Shapiro,Swami Bhuteshananda,Babaji Bob Kindler,Lex Hixon,Llewellyn Vaughn-Lee,Swami Aseshananda,2018-01-01 In an issue dedicated almost entirely to the spiritual artform of meditation Nectar of Nondual Truth explores and presents this most needed and necessary facet of spiritual life through the lighted windows of various religious traditions in conscious operation in today s world Yogic based eight limbed meditation upon everything from objects in matter to the realization of a yogi s conscious Essence is taken up Meditation on the timeless beneficial utterance of divine names in a tradition that also favors Reality as nameless is studied thoroughly by a Rabbi via the Jewish tradition Then even the very breath that utters the divine names is inspected in an article on meditation by a teacher in the Sufi tradition The striking and sobering question asked in several traditions of India that of Who Am I is looked at first hand by an advanced meditator on personal retreat in the Ch an Zen tradition who then also takes his place as an interviewer to question a Japanese Roshi about meditation practice in the Soto Zen tradition Three revered Swamis of the Ramakrishna Order offer up their insights into this superlative examination of meditation and meditator from different perspectives Specifically the very purpose of sitting still and looking within to find the purpose of the entire practice is presented by a long time practitioner and finally an article scrutinizing this most subtle of all yogas from the succinctly nondual position is pondered via the noble Advaita Vedanta perspective Thus does this age old and crucial principle of inmost practice known in Raja Yoga as the singular doorway to Samadhi or Nirvana receive a thorough observation from all angles of sensitive experienced human awareness

Nectar #34 Lam FuHo,Rabbi Rami Shapiro,Annapurna Sarada,Lex Hixon,Jamgon Kongtrul Rinpoche,Swami Brahmeshananda,Babaji Bob Kindler,Swami Aseshananda,Brother Tadrupa,Reverend Chris von Lobedon,2019-01-02 In order to dwell within and enjoy the bliss of Nonduality Peace of Mind is required This abiding Peace is predicated upon the attainment of equanimity and contentment

and both of those are dependant upon fulfilling one's desires in the dharma. But there is one onerous presence that can almost effortlessly undo the practitioner's crucial spiritual practice and spoil a sincere aspirant's bid for Peace leading to Enlightenment and that is the insinuation of work or action. According to Swami Vivekananda, Work is the midday sun that is burning the very vitals of humanity. It is necessary for a time but in the end is a morbid dream. This is even more true in today's humming multiple marketplaces and office buildings whose teeming masses rush like a raging springtime river in spite to gain everything that the world can offer, all of it empty and unfulfilling in the end. Activity can never bring about liberation either but is more often the cause for bondage of the soul to matter and nature. As Shankara has reminded us, Moksha can never be gained by thousands of asanas or by hundreds and thousands of breathing exercises nor by millions of acts nor does wealth and progeny bring it. Journey Beyond: A Non-Dual Approach Acharya Dr. Kuntimaddi Sadananda, 2019-09-13

Everyone is searching for everlasting happiness. Yet none can find it by pursuit; at the same time, none can stop the pursuit. This seems to be the tragedy of human life: the life of every being. Every pursuit is limited: space-wise, time-wise, and object-wise. Any pursuit that is limited cannot give everlasting happiness. Some promise eternal happiness after death if one follows their path. Yet no one has returned to claim that they achieved it by following that path. One sage declares that truth is a pathless land. Vedanta ascertains that the truth is beyond the space-time-object-wise limitations and you are that truth: tat tvam asi. The journey beyond space and time limitations is the central theme of the discussions in this text. Journey to Joy Mouton, Sibis, 2014-12-01

From learning how to jump obstacles on horseback in the Modern Pentathlon to competing in triathlons in France, this is an action-packed autobiography of a young South African athlete sharing her dream of becoming a world champion. A dream which seemed impossible during the sports boycott against apartheid. Dr. Sibis Mouton speaks to us from the heart as she ranges from her childhood, her family, to her travels around the world and her internal journeys, heart aches and victories. Life experiences like swimming with the dolphins in the Miami Keys or photographing the famous Masai Mara migration in Kenya are given deeper spiritual significance and take us on a mystical journey to discover the meaning and purpose of life. This is an uplifting and inspiring story that should convince the reader that life is indeed a miracle to be enjoyed and treasured.
