Under a Black Star Amari Johnson, 2025-06-24 Uncovering the spirit of freedom and self determination in New Orleans In Under a Black Star Amari Johnson explores what he defines as the maroon impulse among the BlackStar Community in the Algiers neighborhood of New Orleans This community sought autonomy for Black people facing systemic marginalization through denied employment insufficient education and a housing crisis following Hurricane Katrina establishing initiatives such as Kamali Academy a homeschool collective and BlackStar Books and Caff a bookstore and gathering place Instead of appealing to the city they built the community they desired by employing legacies of marronage disengagement flight and reengagement An active participant in the physical and ideological development of these autonomous spaces Johnson provides nuanced insights into the community s work toward liberation and self determination Demonstrating that marronage is a cultural tradition throughout the African Diaspora he focuses on the transtemporal maroon process to show how it is central to the pursuit of autonomy community and freedom From the swamps of southeastern Louisiana across urban obstacles and into BlackStar s creative spaces Johnson s path leads him to ask How did the New Orleans community mobilize the tradition of marronage to create autonomous spaces amid gentrification What forms might the maroon impulse take in the twenty first century This dynamic ethnographic memoir ultimately illuminates marronage as a potent form of liberatory potential offering strategies for similar communities across the country and around the world

The Marcus Garvey and Universal Negro Improvement Association Papers, Vol. V Marcus Garvey, 2023-09-01 The fifth volume of this monumental series chronicles what was perhaps the stormiest period in the history of Marcus Garvey and the UNIA the aftermath of the tumultuous 1922 convention Outside the UNIA a growing list of opponents including the black Socialists A Philip Randolph and Chandler Owen and the NAACP s Robert Bagnall and William Pickens were turning their criticism of the controversial Jamaican into a Garvey Must Go campaign Meanwhile Garvey s former UNIA ally Rev J W H Eason who had been impeached at the 1922 convention was emerging as a dangerous rival Eason was assassinated in January 1923 just as he was to testify against Garvey in the latter s mail fraud trial Though it may be impossible to determine if Garvey had a role in the killing the murder generated negative publicity that did untold damage to Garvey and his organization Throughout all this the federal government pressed its case against Garvey and his co defendants on mail fraud charges stemming from irregularities in the sale of Black Star Line stock In June 1923 a jury found Garvey guilty and he was sentenced to five years in prison Internecine feuds wracked the movement while Garvey languished in New York City's Tombs prison awaiting bail so that he could mount an appeal As soon as he was released in September 1923 he turned his energy to reconsolidating the UNIA while considering the best appeal strategy For the UNIA Garvey resurrected an old commercial message that economic salvation was to be found in ships In March 1924 he reconstituted the defunct Black Star Line as the Black Cross Navigation and Trading Co and bought a ship the S S General Goethals in time for a tour of it by convention delegates The shipboard tour proved to be a highlight of the 1924 convention during which UNIA leadership was stunned by the Liberian government's formal repudiation of the movement's African colonization plans Despite the UNIA's unexpected setback in Liberia the movement continued to spread into new places particularly in America's southern states Generously illustrated with photographs and facsimile documents Volume V of The Marcus Garvey and Universal Negro Improvement Association Papers upholds the impeccable editorial standards of the first four volumes Once again a wealth of new sources collected from around the world demonstrates how vitally important Marcus Garvey and the mass movement he controlled were to Afro American history The fifth volume of this monumental series chronicles what was perhaps the stormiest period in the history of Marcus Garvey and the UNIA the aftermath of the tumultuous 1922 convention Outside the UNIA a growing list of opponents including the black So

The Philosophy and Opinions of Marcus Garvey Amy Jacques Garvey, 2013-01-11 Marcus Garvey founded the Universal Negro Improvement Association in 1914 He was one of the first black leaders to encourage black people to discover their cultural traditions and history and to seek common cause in the struggle for true liberty and political recognition This book discusses his philosophy and opinions

The Marcus Garvey and Universal Negro Improvement Association Papers, Vol. V Robert A. Hill, Marcus Garvey, Universal Negro Improvement Association, 1983 Africa for the Africans was the name given in Africa to the extraordinary black social protest movement led by Jamaican Marcus Mosiah Garvey 1887-1940 Volumes I-VII of the Marcus Garvey and Universal Negro Improvement Association Papers chronicled the Garvey movement that flourished in the United States during the 1920s Now the long awaited African volumes of this edition Volumes VIII and IX and a forthcoming Volume X demonstrate clearly the central role Africans played in the development of the Garvey phenomenon The African volumes provide the first authoritative account of how Africans transformed Garveyism from an external stimulus into an African social movement They also represent the most extensive collection of documents ever gathered on the early African nationalism of the interwar period Here is a detailed chronicle of the spread of Garvey's call for African redemption throughout Africa and the repressive colonial responses it engendered Volume VIII begins in 1917 with the little known story of the Pan African commercial schemes that preceded Garveyism and charts the early African reactions to the UNIA Volume IX continues the story documenting the establishment of UNIA chapters throughout Africa and presenting new evidence linking Garveyism and nascent Namibian nationalism

The Marcus Garvey and Universal Negro Improvement Association Papers, Vol. I Marcus Garvey, 2023-09-01 Marcus Mosiah Garvey 1887 1940 led an extraordinary mass movement of black social protest His Universal Negro Improvement Association and his back to African program of racial nationalism introduced many ideas that emerged again during the Black Power years of the 1960s pride in black roots pride in black physical features and African culture and rejection of assimilation into white America Yet the charismatic black Jamaican who roared his credo before huge audiences on the street corners of Harlem remains an enigma His image as an honest idealist urging blacks to build their own nation has been clouded by accusations that he was a con man who in the name of black pride perpetrated one of history's greatest swindles The Marcus Garvey And Universal Negro Improvement Association Papers clarifies the Garvey phenomenon This is the first volume in a monumental ten volume survey of thirty thousand archival documents and original manuscripts from widely separated sources brought together by editor Robert A Hill to provide a compelling picture of the evolution spread and influence of the UNIA Letters pamphlets vital records intelligence reports newspaper articles speeches legal records and diplomatic dispatches are enhanced by Hill's descriptive source notes explanatory footnotes and comprehensive introduction Of the over three hundred items included in Volume I only very few have ever been published or reprinted before Volume I begins with the earliest mentions in 1826 of the Garvey family in Jamaica's slave records and closes with Garvey's triumphant address at Carnegie Hall on August 25 1919 The information is fascinating and often startling tracing Garvey's early career in Jamaica Central America Europe and the United States and detailing the first stirrings of what was to become an international mass movement Hill presents complete documentation of the first official surveillance of the UNIA which prepared the way for the beginning of the criminal and civil litigation that engulfed Garvey and his movement as American and European governments reacted to the perceived threat with repressive policies The documents also record the internal structure and political splits during the early years of the UNIA and provide the financial history of Garvey's controversial Black Star Line steamship venture one of the schemes that ultimately led to the financial collapse of his movement The first volume and the following five focus on America the seventh and eighth on Africa and the last two on the Caribbean The information Hill has compiled goes far beyond preoccupation with a single intriguing historical figure to document the growth and demise of a mass social phenomenon an Afro-American protest movement with strong links to African and Caribbean nationalism in the first decades of the twentieth century Marcus Mosiah Garvey 1887 1940 led an extraordinary mass movement of black social protest His Universal Negro Improvement Association and his back to African program of racial nationalism introduced many ideas that emerged again during the Black Power

The American Aberdeen-Angus Herd-book American Aberdeen-Angus Breeders' Association, 1923 The Marcus Garvey and Universal Negro Improvement Association Papers, Vol. IV Marcus Garvey, 2023-09-01 The fourth volume of the Marcus Garvey and Universal Negro Improvement Association Papers marks the period of deepening crisis in the UNIA's political and economic fortunes After September of 1921 membership declined and morale in the UNIA began to weaken Underlying it all however was the final failure of the Black Star Line that resulted when negotiations with the United States Shipping Board for the purchase of the long proposed African ship collapsed in March 1922 The movement also suffered a major setback when the first Liberian colonization plan aborted in the summer of 1921 On the political front Garvey's African program had to compete with W E B Du Bois's Second Pan African Congress There were also major shifts in Garvey's political strategy during this period his speeches reflecting a desire to placate the U S government while simultaneously assailing his left wing critics for promoting social equality This disavowal of radicalism earned him further enemies on the left One of his chief black critics Cyril V Briggs the leader of the African Blood Brotherhood unwittingly supplied federal investigators with evidence that led to Garvey's indictment on charges of mail fraud in February 1922 By prosecuting him however the Department of Justice did not discredit Garvey in the eyes of his followers rather it temporarily strengthened his hold over the movement as the appearance of persecution intensified the loyalty of the UNIA membership But later in 1922 Garvey did lose favor among many of his followers when it was disclosed that he had met secretly in Atlanta with the Acting Imperial Wizard of the Ku Klux Klan What Garvey had thought was a diplomatic triumph proved instead to be anathema to most blacks At the Third UNIA Convention in 1922 Garvey repudiated the entire executive council of the UNIA while expressing his anger of plots against him from within the UNIA leadership Loyalty to Garvey thus became a more urgent issue than ever before But although Garvey was once again able to silence his critics within the UNIA the price was to be a badly fractured and demoralized movement At the same time his political adversaries outside the UNIA were steadily gaining ground against him As meticulously documented as the three previous volumes Volume IV provides the first extended record of Garvey s emergent social philosophy particularly as it relates to his conception of racial purity and the metaphysics of the human condition It stands as an impressive record of the Garvey movement The fourth volume of the Marcus Garvey and Universal Negro Improvement Association Papers marks the period of deepening crisis in the UNIA s political and economic fortunes After September of 1921 membership declined and morale in the UNIA began to weak The Marcus Garvey and Universal Negro Improvement Association Papers, Vol. IV Robert A. Shaolin Brew Troy D. Smith,2024-05-28 Shaolin Brew Race Comics and the Evolution of the Superhero looks at how the comic book industry developed from a white perspective and how minority characters were and are viewed through a stereotypical white gaze Further the book explores how voices of color have launched a shift in the industry taking nonwhite characters who were originally viewed through a white lens and situating them outside the framework of whiteness The financial success of Blaxploitation and Kung Fu films in the early 1970s led to major comics publishers creating for the first time Black and Asian superhero characters who headlined their own comics The introduction of Black and Asian main characters who previously only served as guest stars or sidekicks launched a new kind of engagement between comics companies and minority characters and readers However scripted as they were by white writers these characters were mired in stereotypes Author Troy D Smith focuses on Asian Black and Latinx representation in the comic industry and how it has evolved over the years Smith explores topics that include Orientalism whitewashing Black respectability politics the model minority myth and political controversies facing fandoms In particular Smith examines how fans take the superheroes they grew up with such as Luke Cage Black Lightning and Shang Chi and turn them into the characters they wished they had as children Shaolin Brew delves into the efforts of fans of color who urged creators to make these characters more realistic This refining process increased as more writers and artists of color broke into the industry bringing their own perspectives to the characters As many of these characters transitioned from page to screen a new generation of writers artists and readers have cooperated to evolve one dimensional stereotypes into multifaceted dynamic heroes Humanities ,1983 The Marcus Garvey and Universal Negro Improvement Association Papers, Vol. II Marcus Garvey,1983-11-04 Africa for the Africans was the name given in Africa to the extraordinary black social protest movement led by Jamaican Marcus Mosiah Garvey 1887 1940 Volumes I VII of the Marcus Garvey and Universal Negro Improvement Association Papers chronicled the Garvey movement that flourished in the United States during the 1920s Now the long awaited African volumes of this edition Volumes VIII and IX and a forthcoming Volume X demonstrate clearly the central role Africans played in the development of the Garvey phenomenon The African volumes provide the first authoritative account of how Africans transformed Garveyism from an external stimulus into an African social movement They also represent the most extensive collection of documents ever gathered on the early African nationalism of the inter war period Here is a detailed chronicle of the spread of Garvey s call for African redemption throughout Africa and the repressive colonial responses it engendered Volume VIII begins in 1917 with the little known story of the Pan African commercial schemes that preceded Garveyism and charts the early African reactions to the UNIA Volume IX continues the story documenting the establishment of UNIA chapters throughout Africa and presenting new evidence linking Garveyism and nascent Namibian nationalism
