Book Scouting How To Turn Your Love For Into Profit:

Book Scouting Barbara L. Johnson, 1981 Turn Your Talents Into Profits Darcie Sanders, Martha M. Bullen, 1998

There seems to be no dearth of suggestions for making money at home as the growing number of books devoted to the topic proves. But how many of these ideas are practical and creative at the same time? The experienced team of Sanders and Bullen not only describes more than 100 of the more unusual business vocations but also interviews quite a few practitioners and lists specific resources to consult. Each entry includes a lengthy explanation of the job and its duties and responsibilities along with a top tip. e.g. for aspiring dog or cat breeders it is suggested as an adjunct to other pet related businesses not as a solo venture getting started and the going rate. Sure to provoke chuckles are some of the recommendations albeit all bona fide such as a garden goosewear designer, yes for concrete birds and a beekeeper no stings in this thought. Good information well presented. Official Gazette Philippines, 2008 Working Whenever You Want Barbara L. Johnson, 1983 Abstract

This exploration of the field of temporary employment written from the standpoint of the employee is a practical tool for the person seeking part time jobs. It is also helpful for employers and potential employers who want to get the most for their employment dollar or who plan to recruit short term employees and who need to understand this fast growing segment of the economy and its future. It profiles a temporary worker, outlines the necessary character traits, skills and physical abilities needed and suggests how to upgrade or develop marketable skills. Other points considered are a history of temporary employment, the advantages and disadvantages of being a temporary employee, self evaluation questionnaires, items the independent contractor needs to consider, steps to take to get started and a code of ethics and fair practices etc.
