contradictions had come Le Petit Prince. Like several children's authors – Louisa May Alcott, for example – Saint-Exupéry wrote (and illustrated) the book on the advice of a friend. And in some ways, for himself. To try to make sense of his trip... living and writing the third of my... during the Occupation, 1944. Again, I

INTRODUCTION

That was it. The story of the story, the blurring of biography and inspiration, the understanding that de Saint-Exupéry wrote – as well as to his young self – and the lost child in all of love with Le Petit Prince.

It is a gem of a book, a beautiful and elegant philosophy of love and friendship, a reflection on how to do what matters and what does not. It is a parable and a fable rolled into one, a story about innocence, about stripping away the restricting and the adult world. A book about greed, pointlessness, self-importance and the quest for a new art.

The Metaphysics of Light in Hexaemeral Literature Isidoros C. Katsos, 2023. This volume critically re-evaluates the received interpretation of the nature of light in the ancient sources. The view that vision had priority over light is rejected in favour of a luminocentric reading of philosophical and theological cosmology in late antiquity.

Color and Light James Gurney, 2010-11-30. Unlike many other art books, only give recipes for mixing colors or describe step by step painting techniques. Color and Light answers the questions that realist painters continually ask, such as: What happens with sky colors at sunset? How do colors change with distance? and What makes a form look three-dimensional? Author James Gurney draws on his experience as a plain air painter and science illustrator to share a wealth of information about the realist painter's most fundamental tools: color and light. He bridges the gap between abstract theory and practical knowledge for traditional and digital artists of all levels of experience.

Light and Shadow Nandini Murali, 2019-08-19. The secret exploded and then five women's lives changed forever. Padmini is a respected and much-loved obstetrician and gynaecologist who has spent all her life living and working in Thandikudi, a remote tribal hamlet in the Palani Hills, South India. Shama teaches Women's Studies in a well-known college in Chennai. She shares a great relationship with her mother, Padmini. Muniamma is Padmini's trusted domestic help who knows more than she reveals. Malini, a contented homemaker, and her daughter Dharini still struggle to come to terms with the unexplained disappearance of the most important person in their lives. Who is this person who knits the lives of these women? Light and Shadow traces the personal journeys of the five women as they struggle to make peace with their past and move forward.

Clothed in Purple Light Frederick E. Brenk, 1999. In sum, an uneven collection as would be and are most volumes of this sort, but this reader readily concurs with the judgment in the prefatory statement to this volume by Charles Segal: itself a model of how to phrase cautiously restrained enthusiasm, there is something rewarding for every interested reader in each of these papers. Bryn Mawr Classical Review. Another book of Frederick E. Brenk: Relighting the Souls. Franz Steiner, 1999.

A General Sketch of the New Testament in the Light of Christ and the Church Witness Lee, 1999.
