Book Of Repulsive Women And Other Poems:

The Book of Repulsive Women Djuna Barnes, 1994 Originally published in the chap book series by Bruno of Greenwich Village in 1915 this renowned volume of poetry presented portraits of women of the period a mother prostitute cabaret dancer and others which were wildly radical in their day dominated as it was by Victorian mores But there is still in these rhythms a seething beat of sexuality and vice whipped up into a delicious sense of perversity by Barnes s art Back cover

The Book of Repulsive Women and Other Poems Djuna Barnes, 2003 First published in 2004 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Collected Poems Djuna Barnes, 2005 This collection of many unpublished works of American writer Djuna Barnes is accompanied by her autobiographical notes which describe the expatriate scene in Paris during the 1920s including her interactions with James Joyce and Gertrude Stein and her intimate recollections of T S Eliot

The Book of Repulsive Women Djuna Barnes, 1976 Djuna Barnes' Consuming Fictions Diane Warren, 2017-11-28 Djuna Barnes 1892 1982 was a pioneering female journalist experimental novelist playwright and poet whose influence on literary modernism was profound and whose writings anticipated many of the preoccupations of poststructuralist and feminist thought In her new book the author argues that Barnes writings made significant contributions to gender and aesthetic debates in their immediate early twentieth century context and that they continue to contribute to present day debates on identity In particular Warren traces the works close engagement with the effects of cultural boundaries on the individual showing how the journalism Ryder Ladies Almanack and the early chapters of Nightwood energetically and playfully subvert such boundaries In this reading Nightwood is contextualised as a pivotal text which poses questions about the limits of subversion thereby positioning The Antiphon 1958 as an analysis of why such boundaries are sometimes necessary Djuna Barnes Consuming Fictions shows that from the irreverent and carnivalesque iconoclasm of Barnes early works to the bleak assessment that conflict lies at the root of culture seen from the close of Nightwood Barnes oeuvre offers a profound analysis of the relationship between culture the individual and textual expression John Skelton John Skelton, 2020-11-25 This book presents a collection of works of John Skelton the first great modern English poet who wrote in a vigorous vernacular taking literary English out of the medieval world and enriching it with new forms and tones It provides notes and glossary illuminating Skelton s works for the reader A Companion to Modernist Literature and Culture David Bradshaw, Kevin J. H. Dettmar, 2008-04-15 The Companion combines a broad grounding in the essential texts and contexts of the modernist movement with the unique insights of scholars whose careers have been devoted to the study of modernism An essential resource for students and teachers of modernist literature and culture Broad in scope and comprehensive in coverage Includes more than 60 contributions from some of the most distinguished modernist scholars on both sides of the Atlantic Brings together entries on elements of modernist culture contemporary intellectual and aesthetic movements and all the genres of modernist writing and art Features 25 essays on the signal texts of modernist literature from

James Joyce's Ulysses to Zora Neale Hurston's Their Eyes Were Watching God. Pays close attention to both British and American modernism. Selected Writings Leigh Hunt, 2003 First Published in 2004 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company. The Book of Repulsive Women D. Barnes, 1982. Poems, Stories and Writings Margaret Tait, 2023-11-30 Margaret Tait 1918-1999 was a pioneering filmmaker for whom words and images made the world real. In a documentary she wrote real things lose their reality and there's no poetry in that. In poetry something else happens. If film for Tait was a poetic medium her poems are works of craft and observation that are generous and independent in their vision of the world. Poems that make seeing happen. Sarah Neely Professor in the Department of Theatre Film and Television Studies at the University of Glasgow draws on Tait's three poetry collections her book of short stories her magazine articles and unpublished notebooks to make available for the first time a collection of the full range of Tait's writing. Her introduction discusses Tait as filmmaker and writer in the context of mid twentieth century Scottish culture and a comprehensive list of bibliographic and film resources provides an indispensable guide for further exploration. Death's Jest Book Thomas Lovell Beddoes, 2020-11-25 This book is Thomas Lovell Beddoes's defining text a pastiche Renaissance tragedy replete with treachery murder sorcery and haunting the extravagant expression of the poet's lifelong obsession with mortality and immortality. It is a classic of the literature of death. Nomadic Modernisms and Diasporic Journeys of Djuna Barnes and Jane Bowles Pavlina Radia, 2016-09-07 This book traces the artistic trajectories of Djuna Barnes and Jane Bowles examining their literary representations of the nomadic ethic pervading the twentieth century expatriate movements in and out of America. The book argues that these authors contribute to the nomadic aesthetic of American modernism its pastoral ideographies post colonial ecologies as well as regional and transcultural varieties. Mapping the pastoral moment in different temporalities and spaces Barnes representing the 1920s expatriation in Europe while Bowles comments on the 1940s exodus to Mexico and North Africa this book suggests that Barnes and Bowles counter the critical trend associating American modernity primarily with urban spaces and instead locate the nomadic thrust of their times in the post colonial history of the American frontier. The Theater of Trauma Michael Cotsell, 2005 The Theater of Trauma is a groundbreaking rereading of the relations between psychology and drama in the age of Eugene O'Neill Susan Glaspell and their many brilliant contemporaries. American modernist Theater of Trauma drew its vision from the psychological investigation of trauma and its consequences among them hysteria and dissociation made by French and American psychiatrists such as the great Pierre Janet Alfred Binet William James Morton Prince and W E B Du Bois the European and American dissociationist culture that developed around their work and the resulting trauma of World War I. American dramatists deep resistance to Freud's suppression of trauma challenges the equation of Freud and modernism that has become commonplace in modernist criticism. Border Ballads James Reed, 2003 First Published in 2004 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company. De Rerum Natura Titus Lucretius Carus, 2003 First Published in 2004 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis
