Justus Ludewig von Uslar, and the First Book on Allelopathy R.J. Willis, 2007-10-03 Allelopathy is a fascinating and perplexing topic that concerns the chemical interactions of plants It has profound implications in agriculture and forestry where species are grown artificially in mixture with no evolutionary history of co existence The topic of allelopathy is widely credited as commencing in 1937 when the term allelopathy was coined by Molisch However the concept of allelopathy has been recorded since Greek and Roman times became extremely controversial in the first half of the 19th century and remains so today This book concerns a virtually unknown treatise by Justus Ludewig von Uslar published in 1844 which emerges as the first book entirely devoted to the concept of allelopathy The book provides the historical background to allelopathic knowledge from antiquity to c 1840 It also provides for the first time a biography of Justus Ludewig von Uslar who is best known as the first Consul General for Hannover in Mexico and Director of the Mexican Company a British venture mining company In many ways von Uslar epitomises the tradition of the gentleman scientist of the 19th century The book then offers a full translation into English of von Uslar's rare treatise which foreshadows many ideas current in allelopathic research career of the widely read cultural historian Johannes Scherr and his development of a new kind of historical writing for the increasingly globalized 19th century world The German nineteenth century saw a boom in publishing and reading that created opportunities not only for Dichter creators of great literature but also for Schriftsteller authors of the second rank Among the latter were cultural mediators who helped readers negotiate the ever expanding galaxy of print Few achieved greater prominence than Johannes Scherr whose remarkable career as a critic anthologist and historian of German and world literature began in the turbulent Vormärz era and continued during years of exile in the unlikely setting of the Zurich Polytechnic He wrote from the vantage point of Switzerland but his books were published in Germany where his polemical style found favor Andrew Cusack's study traces the process of Scherr's literary socialization as mediator in the contact zone formed by the Kingdom of Württemberg and Switzerland whose liberal project of Volksbildung inspired him It considers how his liminal position between nations and between the humanities and the sciences led him to develop a form of historical authorship for the increasingly globalized nineteenth century The book considers Scherr's engagement with the totalizing paradigms of cultural history and world literature and sets his pessimistic worldview in the context of the materialism and violent political agitation that threatened democratic values in Switzerland and elsewhere Württemberg and Switzerland whose Memory Rudolf Steiner, 2020-05-07. What is the meaning of memory in the information age? When all knowledge is seemingly digitised and available for reference at any time, do we actually need human memory? One consequence of the proliferation of digitization is the deterioration of our capacity to remember, a symptom that is apparent in a steady increase in dementia within contemporary society. Rudolf Steiner indicates that memory is the determining factor in awareness of oneself. Even a partial loss of memory leads to loss of self-consciousness and the sense of our I. Thus memory is crucial for the development of I-consciousness not only for the individual but for humanity as a whole. Rudolf Steiner's research on memory, recollection, and forgetting has many implications for the way we learn, for inner development, and spiritual growth. This unique selection of passages from his works offers insights into how consciousness can remain autonomous and creative in a digital environment. It also provides ideas for improving education and emphasizes the importance of life-long learning. Chapters include: The Development of Memory Throughout Human History; The Formation of Memory; Remembering and Forgetting in the Human Individual; Remembering and Forgetting in Connection with Education; How Remembering and Forgetting are Transformed by the Schooling Path; Imagination and Inspiration; Remembering Backwards; Rückschau and Memory Exercises; Subconscious Memories of the Pre-birth Period and of Life Between Death and a New Birth; Memory and Remembering after Death; The Development of Memory in the Future.
