Postmodernism in American Fiction Eberhard Alsen,2023-12-21 Intended for teachers and students of American Literature this book is the first comprehensive analysis of romantic tendencies in postmodernist American fiction The book challenges the opinion expressed in the Columbia History of the American Novel 1991 and propagated by many influential scholars that the mainstream of postmodernist fiction is represented by the disjunctive and nihilistic work of such writers as Kathy Acker Donald Barthelme and Robert Coover Professor Alsen disagrees He contends that this kind of fiction is not read and taught much outside an isolated but powerful circle in the academic community It is the two part thesis of Professor Alsen s book that the mainstream of postmodernist fiction consists of the widely read work of the Nobel Prize laureates Saul Bellow and Toni Morrison and other similar writers and that this mainstream fiction is essentially romantic To support his argument Professor Alsen analyzes representative novels by Saul Bellow J D Salinger Norman Mailer Flannery O Connor John Updike Kurt Vonnegut Philip Roth Thomas Pynchon Toni Morrison the later John Barth Alice Walker William Kennedy and Paul Auster Professor Alsen demonstrates that the traits which distinguish the fiction of the romantic postmodernists from the fiction of their disunctive and nihilist colleagues include a vision of life that is a form of philosophical idealism an organic view of art modes of storytelling that are reminiscent of the nineteenth century romance and such themes as the nature of sin or evil the negative effects of technology on the soul and the quest for transcendence Romances of the Archive in

Contemporary British Fiction Suzanne Keen,2003-01-01 A detailed examination of the growing genre of British fiction featuring archives and archival research from A S Byatt s Booker Prize winning Possession to the paperback thrillers of popular novelists Romance and Power in the Hollywood Eastern Nalini Natarajan,2020-11-07 This book develops the idea of the Eastern as an analytically significant genre of film Positioned in counterpoint to the Western the famed cowboy genre of the American frontier the Eastern encompasses films that depict the eastern and southern frontiers of Euro American expansion Examining six films in particular Gunga Din 1939 Lawrence of Arabia 1962 Heat and Dust 1983 A Passage to India 1984 Indochine 1992 and The English Patient 1996 the author explores the duality of the Eastern as both aggressive and seductive depicting conquest and romance at the same time In juxtaposing these two elements the book seeks to reveal the double process by which the Eastern both diminishes the East and Global South and reinforces ignorance about these regions histories and complexity thereby setting the stage for ever escalating political aggression 2010 Novel & Short Story

for the Study of Narrative Literature Has twentieth century political violence destroyed faith in historical knowledge What happens to historical fiction when history is seen as either a form of Western imperialism or a form of postmodern simulation In Sublime Desire Amy Elias examines our changing relationship to history and how fiction since 1960 reflects that change She contends that postmodernism is a post traumatic imagination that is pulled between two desires the political desire to acknowledge the physical violence of twentieth century history and the yearning for an escape from that history into a ravishing realm of historical certainty Torn between these desires both historical fiction and historiography after 1960 redefine history as the sublime a territory beyond lived experience that is both unknowable and seductive In the face of a failure of Enlightenment ideals about knowledge and the West's own history of violence post World War II history becomes a desire for the secular sacred sublime for awe certainty and belief Sublime Desire is an eloquent melding of theory and practice Mixing the canonical with the unexpected Elias analyzes developments in the historical romance genre from Walter Scott's novels to novels written today She correlates developments in the historical romance to similar changes in historiography and philosophy Sublime Desire draws engagingly on more than thirty relevant texts from Tolstoy's War and Peace to Jeanette Winterson's Sexing the Cherry Charles Johnson's Dreamer and Charles Frazier's Cold Mountain But the book also examines theories of postmodern space and time and defines the difference between postmodern and postcolonial historical perspectives The final chapter draws from trauma theory in Holocaust studies to define how fiction can pose an ethical alternative to aestheticized history while remaining open to pluralism and democratic values In its range and sophistication Sublime Desire is a valuable addition to postmodernist studies as well as to studies of the historical romance novel
