Levine, Jackie Hiltz, 2015-06-03 This text examines the Pacific War the Korean War and the Vietnam War from the perspective of those who fought the wars and lived through them The relationship between history and memory informs the book and each war is relocated in the historical and cultural experiences of Asian countries

Narrative as Counter-Memory Reiko Tachibana, 1998-07-30 A pioneering study of German and Japanese postwar fiction providing a broad cultural basis for understanding a half century of responses to World War II from within the two societies

Producing Hiroshima and Nagasaki Yuko Shibata, 2018-08-31 National disciplinary and linguistic boundaries all play a role in academic study and nowhere is this more apparent than in traditional humanities scholarship surrounding the atomic bombing of Hiroshima and Nagasaki How would our understanding of this seminal event change if we read Japanese and Euro American texts together and across disciplines In Producing Hiroshima and Nagasaki Yuko Shibata juxtaposes literary and cinematic texts usually considered separately to highlight the connected divides in the production of knowledge on Hiroshima and Nagasaki shedding new light on both texts and contexts in the process Shibata takes up two canonical works American journalist John Hersey's account Hiroshima and French director Alain Resnais avant garde film Hiroshima Mon Amour that are traditionally excluded from study in Japanese literature and cinema By examining Hersey's Hiroshima in conjunction with The Bells of Nagasaki Nagai Takashi and Children of the A Bomb Osada Arata both Japanese bestsellers Shibata demonstrates how influential Hersey's Hiroshima has been in forging the normative narrative of the hibakusha experience in Japan She also compares Hiroshima Mon Amour with Kamei Fumio's documentary Still It's Good to Live whose footage Resnais borrowed to depict atomic bomb victimhood Resnais avant garde masterpiece she contends is the palimpsest of Kamei's surrealist documentary both blur the binaries between realist and avant garde representations Reading Hiroshima Mon Amour in its historical context enables Shibata to offer an entirely new analysis of Renais work She also delineates how Japanese films came to produce the martyrdom narrative of the hibakusha in the early postwar period Producing Hiroshima and Nagasaki allows us to trace the complex and entangled political threads that link representations of Hiroshima and Nagasaki reminding us that narratives and images deploy different effects in different places and times This highly original approach establishes a new kind of transnational and transpacific studies on Hiroshima and Nagasaki and raises the possibility of a comparative area studies to match the age of world literature

Beclouded Visions Kyo Maclear,1999-01-01 The trauma of Hiroshima and Nagasaki demonstrates the limits of dominant visual models such as photography for providing adequate historical memory The author argues that collective traumas suggest the need for a prolonged gaze such as can be provided by expressive art

Changing Representations of Minorities, East and West Larry E. Smith,John Rieder,1996-01-01 Legacies and Ambiguities Ernestine Schlant,J. Thomas Rimer,1991-10 The literary legacies of World War II have been mixed and varied especially in West Germany and Japan where the burden of defeat has been expressed by novelists and intellectuals in strikingly different ways Reflecting the cultural differences between the two nations and the experiences of occupation and democratization that occurred after the war the postwar literatures of Germany and Japan intimately reveal the hopes and aspirations the dreams and the nightmares of two peoples confronting the harsh realities of war Using a comparative approach Ambiguous Legacies explores the conditions and values under which the postwar literatures of West Germany and Japan were created Specifically the book assesses the meaning of the German and Japanese literary responses to the World War II the tendencies of denial or silence by German writers the fatalism and passivity of Japanese novels and the importance of the past in defining the recent New subjectivism among German writers and the outpourings of the Introverted Generation by Japanese novelists Ernestine Schlant s introduction sets the context for the individual chapters and offers guideposts for further comparative scholarship The book also includes a useful annotated bibliography and suggestions for further reading The contributors are Arnulf Baring Carol Gluck Walter Hinderer Iremela Hijiya Kirschnerreit Peter Demetz Marlene J Mayo J Victor Koschmann Judith Ryan Van C Gessel Dagmar Barnouw Kato Schuichi Oda Makoto and Peter Schneider

Organizing the Spontaneous Wesley Sasaki-Uemura,2001-05-01 In 1960 millions of Japanese citizens took to the streets for months of protest against the U S Japan Security Treaty Anpo and its forcible ratification by the Kishi government In the decades that followed the Anpo era citizens movements exerted a major influence on the organization and political philosophies of the anti Vietnam War effort local residents environmental movements alternative lifestyle groups and consumer movements Organizing the Spontaneous departs from previous scholarship by focusing on the significance of the Anpo protests on the citizens drive to transform Japanese society rather than on international diplomacy It shows that the movement against Anpo comprised diverse at times conflicting groups of politically conscious actors attempting to reshape the body politic

Witness Literature Horace Engdahl,2002 In December 2001 the centennial of the first Nobel Prize was celebrated in Stockholm To mark the occasion the Swedish Academy organized a symposium on the theme of OC Witness LiteratureOCO Talks were given by speakers from Asia Africa and Europe including three Nobel laureates in literature Nadine Gordimer Kenzaburo Oe and Gao Xingjian The main objective of the symposium was to examine the concept of witness literature and its relevance to contemporary literature This concept is relatively new and has not yet been defined clearly by literary criticism and scholarship The discussion primarily alternated between two aspects of the topic the particular claim to truth that witness literature puts forward and the process that leads from catastrophe to creativity and that turns the victim into a writing witness with the power to suspend forgetfulness and denial This volume edited by Horace Engdahl Permanent Secretary of the Swedish Academy brings together all the talks given at the symposium Hiroshima Andrew J. Rotter,2008-02-28 The US decision to drop an atomic bomb on the Japanese city of Hiroshima on 6 August 1945 remains one of the most controversial events of the twentieth century However the controversy over the rights and wrongs of dropping the bomb has tended to obscure a number of fundamental and sobering truths about the development of this fearsome weapon The principle of killing thousands of enemy civilians from the air was already well established by 1945 and had been practised on numerous occasions by both sides during the Second World War Moreover the bomb dropped on Hiroshima was conceived and built by an international community of scientists not just by the Americans Other nations including Japan and Germany were also developing atomic bombs in the first half of the 1940s albeit haphazardly Indeed it is difficult to imagine any combatant nation foregoing the use of the bomb during the war had it been able to obtain one The international team of scientists organized by the Americans just got there first As this fascinating new history shows the bomb dropped by a US pilot that hot August morning in 1945 was in many ways the world s offspring in both a technological and a moral sense And it was the world that would have to face its consequences strategically diplomatically and culturally in the years ahead students of literature but to anyone with an interest in women's studies history or sociology Writing Ground Zero John Whittier Treat, 1995 Treat summarizes the Japanese contribution to such ongoing international debates as the crisis of modern ethics the relationship of experience to memory and the possibility of writing history This Japanese perspective he shows both confirms and amends many of the assertions made in the West on the shift that the death camps and nuclear weapons have jointly signaled for the modern world and for the future Families and the Prospect of Nuclear Attack/holocaust Teresa D. Marciano, Marvin B. Sussman, 1986 Experts address the issues and effects of the continuing threat of nuclear holocaust on the behavior of families Speak Like Singing Kenneth Lincoln, 2007 Speak Like Singing honors talk song visions for all relatives and seeks to plumb if not to reconcile Native and American poetics tribal chorus and solitary vision Cannons and Codes Alison L.
