In the foreground, a dark brown wicker basket is filled with dried, light-colored hydrangea flowers and several large, brown pinecones. The scene is set indoors, with a white wall and a tiled floor visible in the background.

Creating With Driftwood And Weathered Wood:

Creating with Driftwood and Weathered Wood Elyse Sommer, Mike Sommer, 1974 Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1976 Crafting Calm Craig Dobson, In the hustle and bustle of modern life it's easy to lose sight of what truly matters. We chase deadlines, scroll through endless feeds, and find ourselves caught in a constant state of doing. In this relentless pursuit of achievement, we often neglect the most vital aspect of our well-being: our connection to ourselves and to the present moment. The yearning for peace and tranquility is universal. We search for it in meditation apps, yoga studios, and self-help books. But what if the answer to a calmer, more fulfilling life lay within something much simpler, something that connects us to our creative potential and brings us back to the present moment? Crafting, in all its forms, holds the key to unlocking this inner haven of peace. The act of creating, whether it be knitting a cozy scarf, shaping a clay pot, or painting a vibrant canvas, offers a unique and powerful path to mindfulness and self-discovery. In the rhythmic repetition of needles clicking, the tactile sensation of shaping clay, or the gentle caress of a brush on canvas, we find a space where our minds can quiet and our spirits can soar. It's in these moments of focused creation that we reconnect with our inner selves, finding a sense of calm, purpose, and fulfillment that transcends the chaos of daily life. This book is your invitation to explore this extraordinary journey. It's a journey of self-discovery, a journey where the act of creating becomes a powerful instrument for cultivating a sense of peace, purpose, and well-being. Within these pages, you'll find a wealth of insights, practical tips, and inspiring stories that will guide you on your path to Crafting Calm. You'll learn the science behind crafting and its impact on our mental well-being, discover mindful techniques for incorporating crafting into your daily routine, and be inspired by the stories of individuals who have found solace and joy in the creative process. So put down your devices, pick up your favorite crafting tools, and let's embark on this transformative journey together. The path to Crafting Calm starts with you.

Caroline Seeböhm,2023-03-01 Addison Mizner's Mediterranean style mansions are much admired Florida icons where even today you can find many homes modeled with stucco walls and tiled roofs. In the paperback release of Boca Rococo, Caroline Seeböhm's successful biography on the flamboyant architect is more accessible now than ever as it reaches more readers interested in the man himself. Mizner had global experience from San Francisco to China during his early days before landing in New York and eventually South Florida. He had no formal training but did possess natural talent, establishing him as architect of the rich and famous. His designs made the city of Palm Beach one of America's most elegant resort spots and fed his dream of developing a Venice on the Ocean in nearby Boca Raton. Mizner's plans ended with the collapse of Florida's real estate boom. He died in 1933, broken and bankrupt. With inspiration from and inclusion of never-before-seen material like floor plans and autobiographical works, and a new foreword written by the author, Seeböhm gives readers a complete view of Mizner as one of the greatest architects and more flamboyant Americans. Patina Style Brooke Giannetti,2011-09-01

The Giannettis have developed a home design style that embraces age, patina, weathered and worn surfaces, and rough surfaces. Patina Style is a color palette, a romance with subtlety, an attraction to natural materials and architectural details. It is at once old world, contemporary, and mildly industrial. Patina Style gives insight into materials, choices, methods, and treatments that result in spaces that celebrate beauty in the old, the imperfect, the slightly roughed up.
