Creating A Chinese Harbin Nationalism In An International City 1916 1932:

Creating a Chinese Harbin James Hugh Carter, 2002 The Chinese took over Harbin after the October Revolution and ruled it from 1918 until the Japanese founded the puppet state of Manchukuo in 1932 Nationalism in an International City James Hugh Carter, 1998 Memory and the Impact of Political Transformation in Public Space Daniel J. Walkowitz, Lisa Maya Knauer, 2004-11-30 Memory and the Impact of Political Transformation in Public Space explores the effects of major upheavals wars decolonization and other social and economic changes on the ways in which public histories are presented around the world Examining issues related to public memory in twelve countries the histories collected here cut across political cultural and geographic divisions At the same time by revealing recurring themes and concerns they show how basic issues of history and memory transcend specific sites and moments in time A number of the essays look at contests over public memory following two major political transformations the wave of liberation from colonial rule in much of Africa Asia and Central and South America during the second half of the twentieth century and the reorganization of Eastern Europe and the former Soviet bloc beginning in the late 1980s This collection expands the scope of what is considered public history by pointing to silences and absences that are as telling as museums and memorials Contributors remind us that for every monument that is erected others including one celebrating Sri Lanka s independence and another honoring the Unknown Russian Soldier of World War II remain on the drawing board While some sites seem woefully underserved by a lack of public memorials as do post Pinochet Chile and post civil war El Salvador others run the risk of diluting meaning through overexposure as may be happening with Israel s Masada Essayists examine public history as it is conveyed not only in marble and stone but also through cityscapes and performances such as popular songs and parades Contributors James Carter John Czaplicka Kanishka Goonewardena Lisa Maya Knauer Anna Krylova Teresa Meade Bill Nasson Mary Nolan Cynthia Paces Andrew Ross Daniel Seltz T M Scruggs Irina Carlota Silber Daniel J Walkowitz Yael Zerubavel Articulating Citizenship Robert Culp, 2020-03-23 At the genesis of the Republic of China in 1912 many political leaders educators and social reformers argued that republican education should transform China s people into dynamic modern citizens social and political agents whose public actions would rescue the national community Over subsequent decades however they came to argue fiercely over the contents of citizenship and how it should be taught Moreover many of their carefully crafted policies and programs came to be transformed by textbook authors teachers administrators and students Furthermore the idea of citizenship once introduced raised many troubling questions Who belonged to the national community in China and how was the nation constituted What were the best modes of political action How should modern people take responsibility for public matters What morality was proper for the modern public This book reconstructs civic education and citizenship training in secondary schools in the lower Yangzi region during the Republican era It also analyzes how students used the tools of civic education introduced in their schools to make themselves into young citizens and explores the complex social and political effects of educated youths civic action Between Heaven and Modernity Peter J. Carroll, 2006 Combining social political and cultural history this book examines the contestation over space history and power in the late Qing and Republican era reconstruction of the ancient capital of Suzhou as a modern city Located fifty miles west of Shanghai Suzhou has been celebrated throughout Asia as a cynosure of Chinese urbanity and economic plenty for a thousand years With the city s 1895 opening as a treaty port businessmen and state officials began to draw on Western urban planning in order to bolster Chinese political and economic power against Japanese encroachment As a result both Suzhou as a whole and individual components of the cityscape developed new significance according to a calculus of commerce and nationalism Japanese monks and travelers Chinese officials local people and others competed to claim Suzhou s streets state institutions historic monuments and temples and thereby to define the course of Suzhou s and greater China s modernity Sovereignty and Authenticity Prasenjit Duara, 2004-09-01 In this powerful and provocative book Prasenjit Duara uses the case of Manchukuo the Japanese puppet state in northeast China from 1932 1945 to explore how such antinomies as imperialism and nationalism modernity and tradition and governmentality and exploitation interacted in the post World War I period His study of Manchukuo which had a population of 40 million and was three times the area of Japan catalyzes a broader understanding of new global trends that characterized much of the twentieth century Asking why Manchukuo so desperately sought to appear sovereign Duara examines the cultural and political resources it mobilized to make claims of sovereignty He argues that Manchukuo as a transparently constructed nation state offers a unique historical laboratory for examining the utilization and transformation of circulating global forces mediated by the East Asian modern Sovereignty and AUthenticity not only shows how Manchukuo drew technologies of modern nationbuilding from China and Japan but it provides a window into how some of these techniques and processes were obscured or naturalized in the more successful East Asian nation states With its sweepingly original theoretical and comparative perspectives on nationalism and imperialism this book will be essential reading for all those interested in contemporary history Inheritance of Loss Yukiko Koga, 2016-11-28 In Inheritance of Loss anthropologist Yukiko Koga tackles complex questions of how two nations previously at war come to terms with their troubled past Her site is Northeast China where Japan s imperial ambitions were pursued to devastating and murderous ends in the twentieth century There the landscape which is still peppered with missiles and unexploded chemical weapons from the war is the backdrop for refurbished imperial architecture and revived Japanese businesses But the national wounds of China and Japan s history problem cannot be stitched together solely through international trade The author shows why mutual recognition of wartime atrocities is the only thing that can allay the persistent and sporadically explosive tensions between two of the most powerful countries in the Eastern hemisphere A milestone in memory studies that incorporates sorely needed attention to materiality and political economy Inheritance of Loss shows just how crucial imperial legacies will continue to be despite China s and Japan s attempts to leave the past behind in pursuit of a more prosperous future

Migrations and Belongings Dirk Hoerder, 2014-04-21 Migrations and Belongings traces burgeoning population flows across several continents from 1870 to 1945 and explains the variables involved and the processes of acculturation by which belonging takes shape Migration it shows is both a critique of unsatisfactory conditions in one society and a contribution of human capital to another

Red at Heart Elizabeth McGuire, 2018 From a debut author an intimate multigenerational narrative of the Russian and Chinese revolutions through the eyes of the Chinese youth who traveled to the Soviet Union and the fate of their blended offspring

Crossed Histories Mariko Asano Tamanoi, 2005-04-30 Crossed Histories represents a collaborative and interdisciplinary approach to Manchuria under Japan's influence from the turn of the twentieth century to 1945 The contributors who represent the fields of history literature film studies sociology and anthropology unpack the complexity of Manchuria as an effect of the geopolitical imaginaries of various individuals and groups shaped by imperialism colonialism Pan Asianism and the present globalization Manchuria is thus examined in the imaginations of a Chinese journalist and his Shanghai readers in the 1930s prewar Japanese city planners and architects a Manchu princess later executed by the Chinese nationalist government various audiences of Japanese goodwill films of the 1930s and 1940s the seven thousand Poles who immigrated to northern Manchuria in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries the state makers of Manchukuo which included both Japanese and Chinese leaders and North and South Korea during the Cold War era and a student of Manchuria Nation Building University in the mid 1940s

Making Religion, Making the State Yoshiko Ashiwa, David L. Wank, 2009 This volume combines the perspective of religion as a constructed category of modernity with the analytic focus and empirical grounding of institutional social science to develop a new approach to the study of state and religion in modern and contemporary China

A Bitter Revolution Rana Mitter, 2004-05-06 China is now poised to take a key role on the world stage but in the early twentieth century the situation could not have been more different Rana Mitter goes back to this pivotal moment in Chinese history to uncover the origins of the painful transition from a premodern past into a modern world By the 1920s the seemingly civilized world shaped over the last two thousand years by the legacy of the great philosopher Confucius was falling apart in the face of western imperialism and internal warfare Chinese cities still bore the imprints of its ancient past with narrow lanes and temples to long worshipped gods but these were starting to change with the influx of foreign traders teachers and missionaries all eager to shape China's ancient past into a modern present Mitter takes us through the resulting social turmoil and political promise the devastating war against Japan in the 1940s Communism and the Cultural Revolution of the 1960s and the new era of hope in the 1980s ended by the Tian anmen uprising He reveals the impetus behind the dramatic changes in Chinese culture and politics as being China's New Culture a strain of thought which celebrated youth individualism and the heady mixture of strange and seductive new cultures from places as far apart as America India and Japan

1919 - The Year That Changed China Elisabeth Forster, 2018-03-05 The year 1919 changed Chinese culture radically but in a way that completely took contemporaries by surprise At the beginning of the year even well informed intellectuals did not anticipate that for instance baihua a precursor of the modern Chinese language communism Hu Shi and Chen Duxiu would become important and famous all of which was very obvious to them at the end of the year Elisabeth Forster traces the precise mechanisms behind this transformation on the basis of a rich variety of sources including newspapers personal letters student essays advertisements textbooks and diaries She proposes a new model for cultural change which puts intellectual marketing at its core This book retells the story of the New Culture Movement in light of the diversified and decentered picture of Republican China developed in recent scholarship It is a lively and ironic narrative about cultural change through academic infighting rumors and conspiracy theories newspaper stories and intellectuals hell bent on selling agendas through powerful buzzwords

Reconstructing Non-Standard Languages

Lenore A. Grenoble, Jessica Kantarovich, 2022-12-15 Focusing on language contact involving Russian and the linguistic varieties that emerged from that contact in different social settings this book analyzes issues and methodologies in reconstructing both the linguistic effects of language contact and the social contexts of usage In depth analyses of Odessan Russian a southern Russian contact variety with Yiddish and Ukrainian elements and Russian lexifier pidgins illustrate the reconstruction process which involves making the most of all available documentation particularly literature and stereotypical descriptions Historical sociolinguistics of this kind straddles the fields of historical linguistics sociolinguistics and contact this book brings together the methods and theories of these areas to show how they can result in a rich reconstruction of linguistic and socially conditioned variation We reconstruct the circumstances and social settings that produced this variation and demonstrate how to reconstruct which variants were used by different types of speakers under different circumstances and what kinds of social identities they indexed

China Learns from the Soviet Union,

1949-present Thomas P. Bernstein, Hua-Yu Li, 2010-01-01 In this book an international group of scholars examines China's acceptance and ultimate rejection of Soviet models and practices in economic cultural social and other realms

Entangled Histories Dan Ben-Canaan, Frank Grüner, Ines Prodöhl, 2013-10-29 The authors of this book focus on transcultural entanglements in Manchuria during the first half of the twentieth century Manchuria as Western historiography commonly designates the three northeastern provinces of China was a politically culturally and economically contested region In the late nineteenth century the region became the centre of competing Russian Chinese and Japanese interests thereby also attracting global attention The coexistence of people with different nationalities ethnicities and cultures in Manchuria was rarely if ever harmoniously balanced or static On the contrary interactions were both dynamic and complex Semi colonial experiences affected the people's living conditions status and power relations The transcultural negotiations between all population groups across borders of all kinds are the subject of this book The chapters of this volume shed light on various entangled histories in areas such as administration the economy ideas ideologies culture media and daily life

Tombs and Transnational History in Greater China Gotelind Müller, 2022 This collection of case studies is concerned with tombs that testify to transnational history Special attention is given to tombs of Westerners and Russians still extant in Greater China but also to those of some noted Chinese who were involved in transnational history during the 20th century Tombs have a special potential to cast familiar things in a new light They also provide the possibility to counter check received narratives which might have been tailored along certain vested interests and circulated with specific target groups in mind

Administering the Colonizer Blaine R. Chiasson, 2011-01-01 Harbin of the 1920s was viewed by Westerners as a world turned upside down The Chinese government had taken over administration of the Russian founded Chinese Eastern Railway concession and its large Russian population This account of the decade long multi ethnic and multinational administrative experiment in North Manchuria reveals that China not only created policies to promote Chinese sovereignty but also instituted measures to protect the Russian minority This multi faceted book is a historical examination of how an ethnic cultural and racial majority coexisted with a minority of a different culture and race It restores to history the multiple national influences that have shaped northern China and Chinese nationalism

Empire and Environment in the Making of Manchuria Norman Smith, 2017-02-10 Since the seventeenth century Chinese Japanese Manchu Russian and other imperial forces have defied Manchuria s unrelenting summers and unforgiving winters to fight for sovereignty over the natural resources of Northeast Asia Until now historians have focused on rivalries between the region s imperial invaders Empire and Environment in the Making of Manchuria examines the interplay of climate and competing economic and political interests in the region s vibrant and violent cultural narrative In this unique and compelling analysis of Manchuria s environmental history contributors demonstrate how geography shaped the region s past Families that settled this borderland reaped its riches while at the mercy of an unforgiving and hotly contested landscape As China s strength as a world leader continues to grow this volume invites exploration of the indelible links between empire and environment and shows how the geopolitical future of this global economic powerhouse is rooted in its past

Resisting Manchukuo Norman Smith, 2011-11-01 Norman Smith reveals the literary world of Japanese occupied Manchuria Manchukuo 1932-45 and examines the lives careers and literary legacies of seven prolific Chinese women writers during the period Smith shows how a complex blend of fear and freedom produced an environment in which Chinese women writers could articulate dissatisfaction with the overtly patriarchal and imperialist nature of the Japanese cultural agenda while working in close association with colonial institutions The first book in English on women s history in twentieth century Manchuria Resisting Manchukuo adds to a growing literature that challenges traditional understandings of Japanese colonialism
