Creative Art And Activities Literacy In The First Three Years:

International Yearbook for Research in Arts Education 2/2014 Larry O'Farrell, Shifra Schonmann, Ernst Wagner, 2014
Building on earlier discourse the current yearbook volume continues to focus on questions of research in the field of cultural and arts education from a global perspective This year's volume opens with a review of important contributions to the World Summit in Arts Education held in Wildbad Kreuth Germany in 2013 It continues with the topics of evaluation mapping and monitoring introduced in the first volume Theoretical and practical applications of the key foundations of work in the International Network for Research in Arts Education INRAE are also explored at length Most notably new approaches aimed at linking arts education to peace education and the application of these approaches to education for sustainable development ESD are introduced and explored Trauma-Informed Art Activities for Early Childhood Anna Reyner, 2024-04-18 Why Art Trauma By making their own choices as they engage in sensory art experiences children gain confidence release stress express emotions and develop critical thinking skills Art offers a unique opportunity for children to safely experiment with the physical world and re wire their brains to reduce the negative effects of trauma all while learning to identify as creative thinkers This highly illustrated and easy to use resource supports trauma informed work with children ages 3-8 It delves into both the theory and practice of therapeutic art and includes 21 original art lessons and 60 art techniques all presented visually for ease of use Both text and illustrations demonstrate how to create a safe non retraumatizing environment for children to experience safety connection and calm Ideal for implementing into classroom environments including preschools kindergarten early primary grades afterschool programs child counselling centers and community based youth programs this professional resource is perfectly adaptable for a variety of educational and therapeutic contexts Storytelling in Early Childhood Teresa Cremin, Rosie Flewitt, Ben Mardell, Joan Swann, 2016-12-08 Storytelling in Early Childhood is a captivating book which explores the multiple dimensions of storytelling and story acting and shows how they enrich language and literacy learning in the early years Foregrounding the power of children's own stories in the early and primary years it provides evidence that storytelling and story acting a pedagogic approach first developed by Vivian Gussin Paley affords rich opportunities to foster learning within a play based and language rich curriculum The book explores a number of themes and topics including the role of imaginary play and its dynamic relationship to narrative how socially situated symbolic actions enrich the emotional cognitive and social development of children how the interrelated practices of storytelling and dramatisation enhance language and literacy learning and contribute to an inclusive classroom culture the challenges practitioners face in aligning their understanding of child literacy and learning with a narrow mandated curriculum which focuses on measurable outcomes Driven by an international approach and based on new empirical studies this volume further advances the field offering new theoretical and practical analyses of storytelling and story acting from complementary disciplinary perspectives This book is a potent and engaging

read for anyone intrigued by Paley's storytelling and story acting curriculum as well as those practitioners and students with a vested interest in early years literacy and language learning With contributions from Vivian Gussin Paley Patricia Patsy Cooper Dorothy Faulkner Natalia Kucirkova Gillian Dowley McNamee and Ageliki Nicolopoulou Resources in Education, 2001-10

Reflective Theory and Practice in Teacher Education Robyn Brandenburg, Kathryn Glasswell, Mellita Jones, Josephine Ryan, 2017-03-30 This book offers a detailed examination of reflective practice in teacher education In the current educational context where reflective practice has been mandated in professional standards for teachers in many countries it analyses research based evidence for the power of reflective practice to shape better educational outcomes The book presents multiple theoretical and practical views of this often taken for granted practice so that readers are challenged to consider how factors such as gender and race shape understandings of reflective practice Documenting approaches that enhance learning the contributions discuss reflective practice across the globe with a focus on pre service in service and university teachers At a time when there is pressure to measure teachers work through standardised tests the book highlights the professional thinking that is integral to teaching and demonstrates ways it can be encouraged in beginning teachers Aimed at the international community of teacher educators in schools and universities it also includes a critical examination of methodological issues in analysing and evaluating reflective practice and showcases the kind of reflective practice that empowers teachers and pre service teachers to make a difference to students
