Blind Giant Is Dancing:

The Blind Giant is Dancing Stephen Sewell, 1983 Act 3 only The Blind Giant is Dancing , 1995 The Blind Giant Is Dancing Stephen Sewell, 2016 Brutality in the workplace rage in the streets seething in the home The vulnerability of political parties when they've forgotten why they're there The intellectual torpor of modern Australia How power corrupts The Blind Giant is Dancing is an angry and tender depiction of an idealist Allen Fitzgerald who becomes so embroiled in a party power struggle that he loses sight of what's at stake When it premiered in 1983 The Blind Giant is Dancing felt like a sharp slap in the face Now in an age of ICAC union credit cards speculative housing bubbles a pulverised working class and vapid The Blind Giant Nick Harkaway, 2012-05-10 The digital age An age of isolation warped communication disintegrating community Where unfiltered and unregulated information pours relentlessly into our lives destroying what it means to be human Or an age of marvels Where there is a world of wonder at our fingertips Where we can communicate across the globe learn in the blink of an eye pull down the barriers that divide us and move forward together Whatever your reaction to technological culture the speed with which our world is changing is both mesmerising and challenging In The Blind Giant novelist and tech blogger Nick Harkaway draws together fascinating and disparate ideas to challenge the notion that digital culture is the source of all our modern ills while at the same time showing where the dangers are real and suggesting how they can be combated Ultimately the choice is ours engage with the machines that we have created or risk creating a world which is designed for corporations and computers rather than people This is an essential handbook for everyone trying to be human in a digital age Sightlines Helen Gilbert, 2025-10-01 Sightlines Race Gender and Nation in Contemporary Australian Theatre asserts the centrality of theater to the ongoing negotiations of the Australian context By exploring ways in which ideas about race gender and nation are expressed in concrete theatrical contexts the performative qualities of theatrical representation are revealed as compelling important sites of critique Helen Gilbert discusses an exciting variety of plays drawing examples from marginalized groups as well as from the theatrical mainstream While fully engaged with the discourses of contemporary critical thought Sightlines remains focused on the material stuff of the theater grounding its discussion in the visual elements of costume movement and scenography And although focused specifically on performance the author's insistent interest in historical and political contexts also speaks to the broader concerns of cultural studies The book's recurrent concern with representations of Aboriginality particularly in the works of nonindigenous playwrights draws attention to racial politics as a perennial motif in postcolonial nations Its illumination of the relationships between patriarchy and imperialism is supported by an extensive discussion of plays by and about women This nomadic approach marks Sightlines as a groundbreaking study of recent Australian theater a provocative application of postcolonial theory to the embodied qualities of theatrical representation An impressive and ground breaking study that provides a coherent postcolonial approach to Australian drama Bill Ashcroft University of New South Wales Elegantly written and always beautifully lucid in its argument this is a very original work particularly in its marriage of performance theory and postcolonial analysis Deidre Coleman University of Sydney Helen Gilbert is Lecturer in Drama and Theatre Studies University of Queensland and co author with Joanne Tompkins of Post Colonial Drama Theory Practice Politics Our Australian Theatre in the 1990s ,2023-09-29 AUSTRALIAN THEATRE in the 1990s is a vigorous enterprise displaying the energies and contradictions of a multicultural society This collection of essays by leading scholars of Australian theatre and drama surveys the emergence and directions of the new theatrical energies which have challenged or redefined the Australian mainstream Aboriginal multicultural Asian Australian women s gay and lesbian community and young people s theatre and charts the exciting growth of physical theatre The contributors assess the impact of evolving funding and industrial priorities and examine the theoretical and cultural debates surrounding Australian playwriting and theatre making from the 1970s Vietnam dramas to the postmodern present Nick Enright Anne Pender,Susan Lever,2008 Nick Enright 1950 2003 was one of Australia s most significant and successful playwrights As a writer director actor and teacher he influenced theatre in Australia for thirty years Enright wrote more than fifty plays for the stage film television and radio translated and adapted more and taught acting to students in varied settings both in Australia and the United States His writing repertoire included comedy social realism farce fantasy and the musical In addition to his prodigious contribution to all of these genres he was a passionate advocate for the actor and the theatre in contemporary society In this volume Anne Pender and Susan Lever present a set of essays and recollections about Nick Enright s work for students teachers and scholars The book offers a comprehensive study of Enright s writing for theatre film and television Scholars acting teachers and theatre directors have contributed to this work each illuminating an aspect of Enright s remarkable career The discussions cover interpretations of Enright s scripts and productions detailed analysis of his directing style substantial background and analysis of his writing for musicals as well as accounts of his specific approach to acting and to adaptation across genres The essays and recollections included in this book will inspire theatre practitioners as well as scholars Most importantly this book will inform and enlighten students and teachers both at high school and university about an exceptional career in the theatre
