Blind Trust Large Groups And Their Leaders In Times Of Crisis And Terror:

Blind Trust Vamik Volkan, 2014-07-01 Blind Trust is the culmination of more than three decades of profound immersion in the most pressing sociopolitical conflicts of our time by the psychoanalyst with probably the most direct experience with such issues of any in the world. Author Vamik Volkan applies his knowledge of depth psychology to the turbulent and destructive human experiences in the current cauldrons of the greatest unrest and disaster throughout Europe, Asia, and the Middle East. Illuminating the etiologic bases of war, revolution, massacres, and terror as these have disturbed the world from ancient times to modern civilization, his voice speaks for the imperative of reason and the application of modern analytic knowledge for conflict resolution at the highest levels. The subjects are large groups and their leaders; windows into the lives of the Prophet Muhammad, Stalin, Milosevic, Osama Bin Laden, and David Koresh are interspersed with examinations of religion and fundamentalism and a sober study of suicide attackers. Volkan's detailed and scholarly description of regressive movements in large group identities, complemented by an equal attention to progressive and creative reparative forces, represents a significant expansion of our understanding of group psychology.

Dissent and the Failure of Leadership Stephen P. Banks, 2010-01-01 This timely collection of original papers explores the vital but largely unrecognized connections between leadership and dissent. In an era when leadership failures can mean homelessness and even death for countless flood victims, losses of life savings for employees of bankrupt corporations, civilian deaths, and ravaged societies in the Middle East and incalculable suffering among refugees in central Africa, the studies presented here offer analysis and correctives based on new understandings of the dissent-leadership relationship. The book examines how dissent is implicated in problems plaguing theory development in leadership studies. Topics explored within this framework include dissent in corporate discourses of control, real and manufactured crises, cross-generational perceptions, women leaders, personal and work lives, the professionalization of journalism, religious institutions, activist public relations and fear based cultures It concludes with new proposals for legitimating dissent as a unique instrument for advancing social development and avoiding failures of leadership Examining dissent as the critical factor that differentiates leadership failures and successes from interdisciplinary perspectives this illuminating book will be of great interest to advanced students and teachers of leadership studies as well as corporate executives policymakers and other leaders aware of the need to improve leadership practices The Faces of Terrorism Neil J.
