Blithe Spirit:

Blithe Spirit Noël Coward, 2014-04-08 We've stood up we've lain down we've concentrated We've sat interminably while that tiresome old woman recited extremely unflattering verses at us We've endured five sances we've watched her fling herself in and out of trances until we're dizzy and at the end of it all we find ourselves exactly where we were at the beginning Researching for his new novel Charles Condomine invites the implausible medium Madame Arcati to his house for a sance Whilst consumed in a trance Madame Arcati unwittingly summons the ghost of Charles's dead wife Elvira Appearing only to Charles Elvira soon makes a play to reclaim her husband much to the chagrin of Charles's new wife Ruth One husband two feuding wives and a whisper of mischief in the air who will win in Coward's unworldly comedy Written in 1941 Blithe Spirit remained the longest running comedy in the history of the British theatre for three decades thereafter Dealing with relationships on both sides of the grave it is an enduring classic A new edition of Coward's classic play published to coincide with the 2014 new West End revival at the Gielgud Theatre starring Angela Lansberry as Madame Arcati LIFE, 1941-12-08 LIFE Magazine is the treasured photographic magazine that chronicled the 20th Century It now lives on at LIFE.com the largest most amazing collection of professional photography on the internet Users can browse search and view photos of today's people and events They have free access to share print and post images for personal use LIFE, 1945-10-22 LIFE Magazine is the treasured photographic magazine that chronicled the 20th Century It now lives on at LIFE.com the largest most amazing collection of professional photography on the internet Users can browse search and view photos of today's people and events They have free access to share print and post images for personal use Merchant Vessels of the United States, 1989 New York Magazine, 1987-04-13 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea LIFE, 1941-09-29 LIFE Magazine is the treasured photographic magazine that chronicled the 20th Century It now lives on at LIFE.com the largest most amazing collection of professional photography on the internet Users can browse search and view photos of today's people and events They have free access to share print and post images for personal use Blithe Spirit Noel Coward, DramaOnline, 1942 Written in 1941 Blithe Spirit remained the longest running comedy in the history of the British theatre Plotted around the central role of a spirit medium Madame Arcati this play is an escapist comedy about relationships on both sides of the grave Coward Plays: 4 Noël Coward, 2013-11-12 Volume Four of No 1 Coward's plays contains a selection of Coward's plays from the thirties and forties which includes Blithe Spirit a comedy that centres around the spirit medium Madame Arcati The play that mocks sudden death was produced at precisely the moment when bombs were bringing it to Britain I shall ever be grateful for the almost psychic gift that enabled me to write Blithe Spirit in five days during one of the darkest years of the war. The play was for years the longest running comedy in the history of British theatre. Present Laughter follows the life of Garry Essendine, a world-weary middle-aged projection of the dilettante, debonair persona, self-obsessed and dressing gowned who struts through the play like an educated peacock. It is a comedy about the theatricals that Noel Coward best knew and loved and was originally a star vehicle for himself. It is the closest to an autobiographical play that Coward ever wrote. This Happy Breed is a saga of a lower middle-class family and three shorter pieces. Tonight at 8.30 is a farce set in the South of France and serves as an oblique tribute to Frederick Lonsdale. The Astonished Heart is about the decay of a psychiatrist's mind through personal sexual obsession. Red Peppers, which closes the volume, was a cynical tribute to the lost music halls of the First World War.

Noel Coward Philip Hoare, 2013-05-21. The definitive biography of one of the 20th century's most celebrated and controversial dramatists. To several generations actor, playwright, songwriter and filmmaker, Noel Coward (1899-1973) was the very personification of wit, glamour and elegance. Given unprecedented access to the private papers and correspondence of Coward, family members, compatriots and numerous lovers, Samuel Johnson Prize-winning biographer Philip Hoare has produced an illuminating and sophisticated biography of Coward whose relentless drive for success and approval fueled the stunning bursts of creativity that launched the once painfully middle-class boy from the suburbs of London into a pantheon of theatrical deities that includes Gilbert and Sullivan, Oscar Wilde and George Bernard Shaw. As much the embodiment of a lifestyle as an actual inhabitant of it, Coward's carefully cultivated image defined the aspirations of untold numbers of actors, artists and writers who succeeded him, and Hoare's meticulously researched biography peels away the layers of this complex persona to reveal the man underneath it all. Whom The Times London decreed upon his death to be the most versatile of all the great figures of the English theater.

Beyond the Epic Gene D. Phillips, 2006-11-24. Two-time Academy Award winner Sir David Lean (1908-1991) was one of the most prominent directors of the twentieth century, responsible for the classics The Bridge on the River Kwai (1957), Lawrence of Arabia (1962) and Doctor Zhivago (1965). British-born Lean asserted himself in Hollywood as a major filmmaker with his epic storytelling and panoramic visions of history, but he started out as a talented film editor and director in Great Britain. As a result, he brought an art-house mentality to blockbuster films. Combining elements of biography and film criticism, Beyond the Epic: The Life and Films of David Lean uses screenplays and production histories to assess Lean's body of work. Author Gene D. Phillips interviews actors who worked with Lean and directors who knew him, and their comments reveal new details about the director's life and career. Phillips also explores Lean's lesser-studied films such as The Passionate Friends (1949), Hobson's Choice (1954) and Summertime 1955 The result is an in depth examination of the director in cultural historical and cinematic contexts Lean s approach to filmmaking was far different than that of many of his contemporaries He chose his films carefully and as a result directed only sixteen films in a period of more than forty years Those films however have become some of the landmarks of motion picture history Lean is best known for his epics but Phillips also focuses on Lean s successful adaptations of famous works of literature including retellings of plays such as Brief Encounter 1945 and novels such as Great Expectations 1946 Oliver Twist 1948 and A Passage to India 1984 From expansive studies of war and strife to some of literature s greatest high comedies and domestic dramas Lean imbued all of his films with his unique creative vision Few directors can match Lean s ability to combine narrative sweep and psychological detail and Phillips goes beyond Lean s epics to reveal this unifying characteristic in the director s body of work Beyond the Epic is a vital assessment of a great director s artistic process and his place in the film industry
