Blockes And Sheds:

The Mini Book of Blockes & Sheds Mark Thomson,1998

Blockes and Sheds Jim Hopkins,Julie Riley,1998-01-01

Makers, Breakers and Fixers Mark Thomson,2007-01 Like the dunny football and a meat pie with sauce the shed has an important place in Australian culture and mythology It stands as a symbol of Aussie ingenuity a testimony to a blockes ability to fix anything with a length of fencing wire a hammer and a piece of 4 x 2 Venturing behind the iron curtain of this sacred domain Makers Breakers Fixers forages for answers to the most significant questions about shed ownership The Complete Blockes & Sheds Mark Thomson,2002 Australian cultural icon Blockes, Jokes and Sheds Chris Slane,2009 The shed is a place where men can find sanctuary from the demands of everyday life and is one of the last remaining untouched bastions of maleness With Blockes Jokes and Sheds Chris Slane takes an affectionate and humorous look at this enduring icon of blockedom inspired by his popular series of cartoons for The Shed Magazine Featuring sheds and their owner occupiers Blockes Jokes and Sheds goes some way to uncovering the mysteries of what sheds mean to men There are sheds for tinkering sheds for escape sheds as a second home sheds for socialising and inventive sheds There is a shed for every man and every shed is a castle The book is loosely based on the topics of Shed Sweet Home Favourite Projects Shed Widows DIY Disasters and Tool Talk Interspersed among the cartoons are Shed Factoids What Type of Sheddie Are You and a DIY agony column A great gift for dads and blockes for Father s Day Shoulder to Shoulder Barry Golding,2021-09-22 In the six years since The Men s Sheds Movement book in 2015 the Movement has broadened to include many other nations and also Women s Sheds encompassing almost 3 000 Sheds worldwide to 2021 Shoulder to Shoulder Broadening the Men s Shed Movement shines a light on the transformational experiences and positive impact that Sheds have had on the lives health and wellbeing of men women families and communities The book s many powerful Men s and Women s Shed case studies highlight how shared hands on social activity by shedders can reduce the potentially destructive forces of loneliness and social isolation even during a global pandemic It s about the universal value of having somewhere to go something to do and someone to talk with as envisaged in the very first Australian Men s Shed in 1998 Informative insightful easy to read and carefully researched Shoulder to Shoulder provides a well documented tour de force of this globally expanding and broadening international movement Blockes & Sheds: Blockes & sheds : 1997 calendar Mark Thomson,1996 Private World(s) Joanna Ostrouch-Kamińska,Cristina C. Vieira,2015-03-17 This book is the fourth production from the ESREA Gender network and the third in the ESREA Sense bookseries Once more there is an opportunity for readers to gain a better understanding of questions related to gender and adult learning from researchers deeply involved in this specific field of adult education The notion of informal learning has already been treated as a chapter in the 2003 book but it becomes central and relevant in this new book with the growing complexity of our society The editors emphasise private world s s in the book title but the content of the book proves that informal learning processes aside from the self are combined with contextual opportunities which have been chosen or not Their introduction covers the essential concepts of gender and informal learning The contributors enlighten the debate with their geographical diversity all over Europe but also with their diverse theoretical systems of references to the diverse social contexts that have been analysed The first part of this book entitled private spheres presents and analyses painful gendered discriminations and injustices We can't escape to the emotions it evokes from the soldiers after the war to men's breast cancer both relate to men and the specificity of their suffering This is an interesting and quite new opportunity to question gender In the second part related to minorities and activism we discover groups who learn through their organised fight against discriminations Emotions give way to a positive energy when we discover the strategies that feminists or migrants or also retired men find to question the society in which they live The authors show us not only what is learned by such communities but also what their environment can learn from them The last part of the book leads us to different contexts of informal learning mostly related to opportunities and obstacles in education and work situations Community training social work studies scientist's work and management school are the contexts chosen to clarify stereotypes and the discrimination along the lifespan for women From East to West and North to South of Europe it seems once more that the debate presents a lot of similarities This book can be considered as original in its area and useful mostly because it presents a mixture of sadness and hope within gendered learning processes In this book it seems that men take their place in the gender debate and its analysis with a new vision of the male realities More than anything else this book is a reminder of what has to be done in our society specifically in adult education to imagine and to create better pathways conditions and issues to respect all learners women as well as men Edmee Ollagnier Ex University of Geneva Switzerland

The Joy of Sheds Frank Hopkinson, 2013-11-07 The Joy of Sheds is a shed miscellany that chronicles man's need for a small space on his own It's a humorous look at every aspect of the shed experience mixed with shed facts and some practical information too Many famous people have created in sheds Inventor Trevor Baylis thought up the clockwork radio in a shed George Bernard Shaw wrote Pygmalion in one and Dylan Thomas would compose poetry in his The average UK male does not tend to devote his shed to poetry though Gender, Masculinities and Lifelong Learning Marion Bowl, Robert Tobias, Jennifer Leahy, Graeme Ferguson, Jeffrey Gage, 2013-03-05 Gender Masculinities and Lifelong Learning reflects on current debates and discourses around gender and education in which some academics practitioners and policy makers have referred to a crisis of masculinity This book explores questions such as Are men under represented in education Are women outstripping men in terms of achievement What evidence supports the view that men are becoming educationally disadvantaged Drawing on research from a number of countries including the UK Australia New Zealand and Canada the contributors discuss a range of issues which intersect with gender to impact on education including structural factors such as class ethnicity and age as well as colonisation and migration The book provides evidence and argument to illuminate contemporary debates about the involvement of men and women in education including The impact of colonisation on the gendering of education and lifelong learning International surveys on men women and educational participation Gender masculinities and migrants learning experiences Boys only classes as a response to the problem of underachieving boys Men s perspectives on learning to become parents Community learning gender and public policy Older men s perspectives on re entering post compulsory education The book goes on to suggest the implications for practice research and policy Importantly it critically addresses some of the taken for granted beliefs about men and their engagement in lifelong learning presenting new evidence to demonstrate the complexity of gender and education today With these complexities in mind the authors provide a framework for developing further understanding of the issues involved with gender and lifelong learning Gender Masculinities and Lifelong Learning will be of interest to any practitioner open to fresh ideas and approaches in teaching and programming connected with gender and education

Blokes and Sheds Mark Thomson,1995 Quirky and funny look at the shed a symbol of the male s ingenuity a testimony to his ability to fix anything with a length of wire a hammer and a piece of two by four A haven where a bloke can maintain and repair his sense of identity

Marginalisation of Older Men Deborah L. Mulligan,2020-11-04 Marginalisation of Older Men The Lost Boys focuses on the phenomenon of the marginalisation of older men and the impact of gendered ageing as a pathologic disorder leading to suicide ideation rather than a celebratory state In this engaging investigation Deborah Mulligan explains why and how some older men have become marginalised in society and the effects of this social isolation The book offers effective and unique methods for researching marginalised groups and individuals to maximise innovativeness reciprocity and utility for research participants Mulligan skilfully articulates and communicates the hitherto unheard voices of older males These voices represent a vital element in the mitigation of loneliness social isolation and suicide The lived experience of these individual men and their peers provides vital health information for older men in both contemporary and future society

Ageing Resource Communities Mark Skinner,Neil Hanlon,2015-09-16 Throughout the world s hinterland regions people are growing old in resource dependent communities that were neither originally designed nor presently equipped to support an ageing population This book provides cutting edge theoretical and empirical insights into the new phenomenon resource frontier ageing to understand the diverse experiences of and responses to rural population ageing in the early 21st century The book explores the resource hinterland as a new frontier of rural ageing and examines three central themes of rural population change community development and voluntarism that characterize ageing resource communities By investigating the links among these three themes the book provides the conceptual and empirical foundations for the future agenda of rural ageing research This timely contribution contains 15 original chapters by leading international experts from Australia New Zealand USA Canada UK Ireland and Norway

Divining a Digital Future Paul Dourish,Genevieve Bell,2014-01-10 A sociotechnical investigation of ubiquitous computing as a research enterprise and as a lived reality Ubiquitous computing or ubicomp is the label for a third wave of computing technologies Following the eras of the mainframe computer and the desktop PC ubicomp is characterized by small and powerful computing devices that are worn carried or embedded in the world around us The ubicomp research agenda originated at Xerox PARC in the late 1980s these days some form of that vision is a reality for the millions of users of Internet enabled phones GPS devices wireless networks and smart domestic appliances In Divining a Digital Future computer scientist Paul Dourish and cultural anthropologist Genevieve Bell explore the vision that has driven the ubiquitous computing research program and the contemporary practices that have emerged both the motivating mythology and the everyday messiness of lived experience Reflecting the interdisciplinary nature of the authors collaboration the book takes seriously the need to understand ubicomp not only technically but also culturally socially politically and economically Dourish and Bell map the terrain of contemporary ubiquitous computing in the research community and in daily life explore dominant narratives in ubicomp around such topics as infrastructure mobility privacy and domesticity and suggest directions for future investigation particularly with respect to methodology and conceptual foundations
