Never by Itself Alone David Grundy, 2024 Through its comprehensive history of post war queer writing in Boston and San Francisco from the 1940s through the 21st century Never By Itself Alone provides a new view of queer history Grundy intertwines analysis of lesbian gay and queer literature of the time centering voices which have not yet before been explored in existing criticism The book elevates the underrepresented work of writers of color and those with gender nonconforming identities underscores the link between activism and literature and insists upon the vital importance of radical accounts of race class and gender in any queer studies worthy of the name

Dying Modern Diana Fuss, 2013-04-12 In Dying Modern one of our foremost literary critics inspires new ways to read write and talk about poetry

Diana Fuss does so by identifying three distinct but largely unrecognized voices within the well studied genre of the elegy the dying voice the reviving voice and the surviving voice Through her deft readings of modern poetry Fuss unveils the dramatic within the elegiac the dying diva who relishes a great deathbed scene the speaking corpse who fancies a good haunting and the departing lover who delights in a dramatic exit Focusing primarily on American and British poetry written during the past two centuries Fuss maintains that poetry can still offer genuine ethical compensation even for the deep wounds and shocking banalities of modern death As dying loss and grief become ever more thoroughly obscured from public view the dead start chattering away in verse Through bold original interpretations of little known works as well as canonical poems by writers such as Emily Dickinson Randall Jarrell Elizabeth Bishop Richard Wright and Sylvia Plath Fuss explores modern poetry's fascination with pre and postmortem speech pondering the literary desire to make death speak in the face of its cultural silencing

A Whosoever Church Gary David Comstock, 2001-01-01 This book features interviews with twenty black scholars and religious leaders who speak out from various theological perspectives against institutional prejudice toward gay and lesbian people The interviews are conducted in a conversational format in language that will be accessible and interesting to lay readers

Grabbed Richard Blanco, 2020-10-06 A gender inclusive anthology of poetry and prose that addresses the physical and psychological act of being grabbed or in any way assaulted The MeToo movement the infamous Access Hollywood tape and the depraved and hypocritical actions of celebrities politicians CEOs and other powerful people have caused people all over the nation to speak out in outrage to express allegiance for the victims of these assaults and to raise their voices against a culture that has allowed this behavior to continue for too long The editors asked writers and poets to add to the conversation about what being grabbed means to them in their own experience or in whatever way the word grabbed inspired them What they received are often searing heart rending works ranging in topic from sexual misconduct to racial injustice from an unwanted caress to rape expressed in powerful beautifully crafted prose and poetry The writers represented here some very well known such as Rita Dove Jericho Brown Eileen Miles Ana Menendez and Sapphire as well as some newer voices not yet fully discovered have mined their collective experiences to reveal their most vulnerable moments and in some cases to narrate moments that they have had previously been unwilling or unable to speak of What results is a collection of emotional hard hitting pieces that speak to the aftermath of violation whether mental emotional or physical
