Blood In Zion How The Jewish Guerrillas Drove The British Out Of Palestine:

Blood in Zion Saul Zadka,1995 During the 1940s the Irgun Zvai Leumi IZL launched an intensive guerrilla campaign against the British Mandate authorities in Palestine Its members embarked on a struggle not conducted in modern times by any Jewish organization They blew up buildings they sabotaged roads and bridges they killed and maimed soldiers they raided military bases they robbed banks and they attacked strategic targets all over the country and abroad By so doing they endangered the very community on whose behalf they claimed to fight and placed themselves against the consensus represented by the official leadership Britain's Experience of Empire in the Twentieth Century Andrew Thompson,2016-11-24 Written by specialists from various fields this edited volume is the first systematic investigation of the impact of imperialism on twentieth century Britain The contributors explore different aspects of Britain s imperial experience as the empire weathered the storms of the two world wars was subsequently dismantled and then apparently was gone How widely was the empire s presence felt in British culture and society What was the place of imperial questions in British party politics Was Britain s status as a global power enhanced or underpinned by the existence of its empire What was the relation of Britain s empire to national identities within the United Kingdom The chapters range widely from social attitudes to empire and the place of the colonies in the public imagination to the implications of imperialism for demography trade party politics and political culture government and foreign policy the churches and civil society and the armed forces The volume also addresses the fascinating yet complex question of how after the formal end of empire the colonial past has continued to impinge upon our post colonial present as contributors reflect upon the diverse ways in which the legacies of empire are interpreted and debated in Britain today Modern Insurgencies and Counter-insurgencies Ian Frederick William Beckett,2001 This book explores how unconventional warfare tactics have opposed governments from eighteenth century guerrilla warfare to contemporary urban terrorism The tactics of guerrilla leaders such as Lawrence Mao Guevara and Marighela are examined and the works of counter insurgency theorists such as Galleni Callwell Thompson and Kitson are analysed The Origins of the Arab Israeli Wars Ritchie Ovendale,2015-10-23 This highly regarded history gives a balanced and judicious introduction to this immensely complex and controversial subject weaving different strands of the story into a single coherent narrative thus making it essential reading for all students studying conflict in the Middle East Of all the troubles affecting the modern world few are as topical deep rooted and intractable as the Arab Israeli conflict For this region an understanding of the past is vital to an understanding of the present Ritchie Ovendale s classic study of the roots of the conflict is now updated for a fourth time and considers events until 2003 Terror in the Mind of God, Fourth Edition Mark Juergensmeyer,2017-03-28 Completely revised and updated this new edition of Terror in the Mind of God incorporates the events of September 11 2001 into Mark Juergensmeyer s landmark study of religious terrorism Juergensmeyer explores the 1993 World Trade Center explosion Hamas suicide bombings the Tokyo subway nerve gas attack and the killing of abortion clinic doctors in the United States His personal interviews with 1993 World Trade Center bomber Mahmud Abouhalima Christian Right activist Mike Bray Hamas leaders Sheik Yassin and Abdul Azis Rantisi and Sikh political leader Simranjit Singh Mann among others take us into the mindset of those who perpetrate and support violence in the name of religion Provided by publisher

Fratricide in the Holy Land Avner Falk, 2005-02-17 This is the first English language book ever to apply psychoanalytic knowledge to the understanding of the most intractable international struggle in our world today the Arab Israeli conflict Two ethnic groups fight over a single territory that both consider to be theirs by historical right essentially a rational matter But close historical examination shows that the two parties to this tragic conflict have missed innumerable opportunities for a rational partition of the territory between them and for a permanent state of peace and prosperity rather than perennial bloodshed and misery Falk suggests that a way to understand and explain such irrational matters is to examine the unconscious aspects of the conflict He examines large group psychology nationalism group narcissism psychogeography the Arab and Israeli minds and suicidal terrorism and he offers psychobiographical studies of Ariel Sharon and Yasser Arafat two key players in this tragic conflict today Terror in the Mind of God Mark Juergensmeyer,2003-09 Completely revised and updated this new edition incorporates the events of September 11 2001 into Mark Juergensmeyer's landmark study of religious terrorism The Encyclopedia of War, 5 Volume Set Gordon Martel,2012-01-17 This ground breaking 5 volume reference is a comprehensive print and electronic resource covering the history of warfare from ancient times to the present day across the entire globe Arranged in A Z format the Encyclopedia provides an overview of the most important events people and terms associated with warfare from the Punic Wars to the Mongol conquest of China and the War on Terror from the Ottoman Sultan Suleiman the Magnificent to the Soviet Military Commander Georgi Konstantinovich Zhukov and from the crossbow to chemical warfare Individual entries range from 1 000 to 6 000 words with the longer essay style contributions giving a detailed analysis of key developments and ideas Drawing on an experienced and internationally diverse editorial board the Encyclopedia is the first to offer readers at all levels an extensive reference work based on the best and most recent scholarly research The online platform further provides interactive cross referencing links and powerful searching and browsing capabilities within the work and across Wiley Blackwell's comprehensive online reference collection Learn more at www.encyclopediaofwar.com Selected by Choice as a 2013 Outstanding Academic Title Recipient of a 2012 PROSE Award honorable mention Palestine Investigated Eldad Harouvi,2016-08-08 This book tells the story of the Criminal Investigation Department CID of the Palestine Police Force PPF in the historical context which impacted the CID's missions methods and composition At first the CID was engaged in providing technical assistance for criminal investigation Following the PPF's poor performance in the Arab Revolt in 1929 a commission of inquiry headed by Sir Herbert Dowbiggin recommended adding intelligence gathering and surveillance of political elements to police functions Teams were set up and a Special Branch established From 1932 the CID deployed a network of live sources among the Arabs and issued intelligence summaries evaluating Arab and Jewish political activity Post 1935 the security situation deteriorated Arab policemen and officials joined the Arab side thus drying up sources of information the British therefore asked for assistance from the Jewish population In 1937 Sir Charles Tegart recommended that the CID invest in obtaining raw intelligence by direct contacts in the field In 1938 Arthur Giles took command and targeted both the Revisionist and Yishuv movements Although the CID did not succeed in obtaining sufficient tactical information to prevent Yishuv actions Giles identified the mood of the Jewish leadership and public an important intelligence accomplishment regarding Britain's attitude towards the Palestine question But British impotence in the field was manifested

by the failure to prevent the bombing of the King David Hotel in Jerusalem Towards the end of the Mandate as civil war broke out following the UN General Assembly resolution of November 1947 the CID was primarily engaged in documenting events and providing evaluations to London whose decision makers put high value on CID intelligence as they formulated political responses With Forewords by Professor Yoav Gelber University of Haifa and Professor John Ferris University of Calgary
