Bloody News From My Friend Poems By Siamanto:

Bloody News from My Friend Siamant'ō, 1996 Poems about the genocide of Armenians in Turkey from 1915-1918 as written by a friend of translator Peter Balakian's father Poets, Heroes, and their Dragons (2 vols) James R. Russell, 2021-02-08 The present volume is a collection of articles published by Professor James R. Russell of Harvard University in various journals over the past decades. James Russell has been one of the pioneers in the field of Armenian and Iranian Studies where he has demonstrated the importance of Iranian civilization for pre-Christian Armenia. The connection between the two civilizations has been part of the tireless work of Professor Russell, and I hope this publication shows the immense importance of his work for both Armenian and Iranian Studies. I would like to thank Professor Hourii Berberian, Director of the UC Irvine Armenian Studies Program, as well as Mr. Mamigonian and the National Association for Armenian Studies and Research (NAASR) for supporting the publication of this book. This volume was previously published by the Jordan Center for Persian Studies, University of California, Irvine. Fire in the Soul Dinyar Godrej, 2009 A rousing collection of poems by an international array of poets mixing well-known poets with up-and-coming talent. In all its forms, poetry has a vitality that reflects well the range of voices involved in the fight for human rights. The work collected here covers issues of equality, freedom of speech, peace, dignity, respect, and justice. They are as much about assertiveness and hope as they are about injustice and the outrages that scar human history. The Transgenerational Consequences of the Armenian Genocide Anthonie Holslag, 2018-03-22 This book brings together the Armenian Genocide process and its transgenerational outcome, which are often juxtaposed in existing scholarship, to ask how the Armenian Genocide is conceptualized and placed within diasporic communities. Taking a dual approach to answer this question, Anthonie Holslag studies the cultural expression of violence during the genocidal process itself and in the aftermath for the victims. By using this approach, this book allows us to see comparatively how genocide in diasporic communities in the Netherlands, London, and the US is encapsulated in an historic narrative. It paints a picture of the complexity of genocidal violence itself but also in its transgenerational and non-spatial consequences, raising new questions of how violence can be perpetuated or interlocked with the discourse and narratives of the victims and how the violence can be relived. Lyrics of Lament Nancy C. Lee, 2010-01-01 From ancient cultures to flashpoints in our own world, the rhythms and lyrics of an ancient art form, the lament, have provided an indispensable vehicle for women and men to give voice to their grief and protest. Nancy C. Lee surveys lament in the Abrahamic sacred texts of Judaism, Christianity, and Islam, examples of the people's lament in poetry and song from over thirty cultures worldwide, and practices for recovering lamentation as a vital expression for faith today. Book jacket. New York Trilogy Peter Balakian, 2025-10-06 An American long poem in three sections by Pulitzer Prize-winning poet Peter Balakian that moves between decades of tumultuous life in New York City and explosive parts of the Middle East. In an inventive elliptical language, New York Trilogy explores one man's journey from the late 1960s to the twenty first century as he moves through a series of experiences centered in New York City and the surrounding New Jersey Palisades Throughout this long poem in three parts the protagonist s life is impacted by historical events including the Armenian Genocide the bombing of Hiroshima the Vietnam War the AIDS epidemic the attacks of September 11th the US war in Iraq and the climate crisis Comprised of three multi sequence poems originally included in Peter Balakian s collections No Sign Ozone Journal and Ziggurat the sections of New York Trilogy come together to form a poetry that embraces interior and aesthetic experiences celebrates human intimacy and bears witness to history The historical power and psychological depth of Balakian s work expands on the tradition of the American long poem with a lyrical narrative that weaves intimate personal moments into the vastness of shared history

The Armenian Genocide Alan Whitehorn,2015-05-26 With its analytical introductory essays more than 140 individual entries a historical timeline and primary documents this book provides an essential reference volume on the Armenian Genocide The Armenian Genocide has often been considered a template for subsequent genocides and is one of the first genocides of the 20th century As such it holds crucial historical significance and it is critically important that today s students understand this case study of inhumanity This book provides a much needed long overdue reference volume on the Armenian Genocide It begins with seven introductory analytical essays that provide a broad overview of the Armenian Genocide and then presents individual entries a historical timeline and a selection of documents This essential reference work covers all aspects of the Armenian Genocide including the causes phases and consequences It explores political and historical perspectives as well as the cultural aspects The carefully selected collection of perspective essays will inspire critical thinking and provide readers with insight into some of the most controversial and significant issues of the Armenian Genocide Similarly the primary source documents are prefaced by thoughtful introductions that will provide the necessary context to help students understand the significance of the material

Black Dog of Fate Peter Balakian,2009-02-10 His visions are burning his poetry heartbreaking wrote Elie Wiesel of American poet Peter Balakian Now in elegant prose the prize winning poet who James Dickey called an extraordinary talent has written a compelling memoir about growing up American in a family that was haunted by a past too fraught with terror to be spoken of openly Black Dog of Fate is set in the affluent New Jersey suburbs where Balakian the firstborn son of his generation grew up in a close extended family At the center of what was a quintessential American baby boom childhood lay the dark specter of a trauma his forebears had experienced the Ottoman Turkish government s extermination of more than a million Armenians in 1915 the century s first genocide In a story that climaxes to powerful personal and moral revelations Balakian traces the complex process of discovering the facts of his people s history and the horrifying aftermath of the Turkish government s campaign to cover up one of the worst crimes ever committed against humanity In describing his awakening to the facts of history Balakian introduces us to a remarkable family of matriarchs and merchants physicians a bishop and his aunts two well known figures in the world of literature The unforgettable central figure of the story is Balakian s grandmother a survivor and widow of the Genocide who speaks in fragments of metaphor and myth as she cooks up Armenian delicacies plays the stock market and keeps track of the baseball stats of her beloved Yankees The book is infused with the intense and often comic collision between this family's ancient Near Eastern traditions and the American pop culture of the 50s and 60s Balakian moves with ease from childhood memory to history to his ancestors lives to the story of a poet's coming of age Written with power and grace Black Dog of Fate unfolds like a tapestry its tale of survival against enormous odds Through the eyes of a poet here is the arresting story of a family's journey from its haunted past to a new life in a new world

Vise and Shadow Peter Balakian, 2015-05-06 Peter Balakian is a renowned poet scholar and memoirist but his work as an essayist often prefigures and illuminates all three I think of vise and shadow as two dimensions of the lyric literary and visual imagination he writes in the preface to this collection which brings together essayistic writings produced over the course of twenty five years Vise as in grabbing and holding with pressure but also in the sense of the vise grip of the imagination which can yield both clarity and knowledge Consider the vise grip of some of the poems of our best lyric poets how language might be put under pressure as carbon might be put under pressure to create a diamond And shadow the second half of the title both as noun the shaded or darker portion of the picture or view or perspective partial illumination and partial darkness and as verb to shadow to trail secretly as an inseparable companion or a force that follows something with fidelity to cast a dark light on something a person an event an object a form in nature Vise and Shadow draws into conversation such disparate figures as W B Yeats Hart Crane Joan Didion Primo Levi Robert Rauschenberg Bob Dylan Elia Kazan and Arshile Gorky revealing how the lyric imagination of these artists grips experience shadows history and casts its own type of illumination creating one of the deepest kinds of human knowledge and sober truth In these elegantly written essays Balakian offers a fresh way to think about the power of poetry art and the lyrical imagination as well as history trauma and memory

Translation Review, 1995      The Armenian Genocide Richard G. Hovannisian, 2011-12-31 World War I was a watershed a defining moment in Armenian history Its effects were unprecedented in that it resulted in what no other war invasion or occupation had achieved in three thousand years of identifiable Armenian existence This calamity was the physical elimination of the Armenian people and most of the evidence of their ever having lived on the great Armenian Plateau to which the perpetrator side soon gave the new name of Eastern Anatolia The bearers of an impressive martial and cultural history the Armenians had also known repeated trials and tribulations waves of massacre captivity and exile but even in the darkest of times there had always been enough remaining to revive rebuild and go forward This third volume in a series edited by Richard Hovannisian the dean of Armenian historians provides a unique fusion of the history philosophy literature art music and educational aspects of the Armenian experience It further provides a rich storehouse of information on comparative dimensions of the Armenian genocide in relation to the Assyrian Greek and Jewish situations and beyond that paradoxes in American and French policy responses to the Armenian genocides The volume concludes with a trio of essays concerning fundamental questions of historiography and politics that either make possible or can inhibit reconciliation of ancient truths and righting ancient wrongs      The Holocaust and Genocides in Europe Benjamin Lieberman,2013-06-06

A concise and sharply focused textbook giving students an up to date understanding of genocide in recent European history

From a High Place Matthew Spender,2000 One of the finest biographies of an artist I have ever read John Ashbery

Ararat Associations Dick Tahta,2006 When he first saw Atom Egoyan s film Ararat Dick Tahta was intrigued by the many associations it summoned up for him The film is crammed with brief conversations and scenes that linked with memories of his childhood in a small Armenian community in Manchester in the nineteen thirties and with the various aspects of Armenian culture that are as in any immigrant community carefully nourished by Armenians all over the world Above all the film delicately raises the issue of what later generations have made of the terrible experiences of their ancestors in the last years of the Ottoman Empire As well as giving a penetrating insight into Egoyan s film Tahta offers some fascinating interpretations of Armenian history religion language and literature His digressions into youthful memories family history and his own travels through Eastern Anatolia give this book a warm and personal feel Dick Tahta was born in Manchester of parents who had survived the events of 1915 They were keen for their children to have an English education but made sure that they spoke Armenian at home As a second generation immigrant he was interested like some of the characters in the film in the nature of identity and its definition by criteria other than ethnicity He raised four children with his late wife Hilary he was a mathematics teacher and then a university lecturer Now he is retired and is a widower and grandfather      The
