Blue Falcon:

The Blue Falcon & Dynomutt #1 Jimmy Palmiotti, 2025-09-10 MAN S BEST FRIEND AND CRIMINALS WORST ENEMY Secure in their luxurious penthouse high above the downtown streets wealthy inventor and art collector Radley Crown and his faithful canine companion enjoyed a charmed existence until the fateful day a vicious gang of thugs shattered his complacency In the aftermath of the vicious attack Crown focused his incredible technical skills to rebuild both himself and his four legged companion into the ultimate instruments of retribution The Blue Falcon and Dynomutt Dog Wonder In this all new take on the classic Hanna Barbera cartoon legendary comics author JIMMY PALMIOTTI Harley Quinn The Invincible Red Sonja and acclaimed artist PASQUALE QUALANO Gargoyles Quest bring to life a dark tale of justice and revenge that reimagines Big City s crimefighting duo for a new era featuring gorgeously gritty covers from LUCIO PARRILLO AMANDA CONNER JOSEPH MICHAEL LINSNER and FRANCESCO MATTINA The Orange Fairy Book Andrew Lang, 2020-09-28 The children who read fairy books or have fairy books read to them do not read prefaces and the parents aunts uncles and cousins who give fairy books to their daughters nieces and cousins leave prefaces unread For whom then are prefaces written When an author publishes a book out of his own head he writes the preface for his own pleasure After reading over his book in print to make sure that all the u s are not printed as n s and all the n s as u s in the proper names then the author says mildly in his preface what he thinks about his own book and what he means it to prove if he means it to prove anything and why it is not a better book than it is But perhaps nobody reads prefaces except other authors and critics who hope that they will find enough in the preface to enable them to do without reading any of the book This appears to be the philosophy of prefaces in general and perhaps authors might be more daring and candid than they are with advantage and write regular criticisms of their own books in their prefaces for nobody can be so good a critic of himself as the author if he has a sense of humour If he has not the less he says in his preface the better These Fairy Books however are not written by the Editor as he has often explained out of his own head The stories are taken from those told by grannies to grandchildren in many countries and in many languages French Italian Spanish Catalan Gaelic Icelandic Cherokee African Indian Australian Slavonic Eskimo and what not The stories are not literal or word by word translations but have been altered in many ways to make them suitable for children Much has been left out in places and the narrative has been broken up into conversations the characters telling each other how matters stand and speaking for themselves as children and some older people prefer them to do In many tales fairly cruel and savage deeds are done and these have been softened down as much as possible though it is impossible even if it were desirable to conceal the circumstance that popular stories were never intended to be tracts and nothing else Though they usually take the side of courage and kindness and the virtues in general the old story tellers admire successful cunning as much as Homer does in the Odyssey At least if the cunning hero human or animal is the weaker like Odysseus Brer Rabbit and many others the story teller sees little in intellect but superior cunning

by which tiny Jack gets the better of the giants In the fairy tales of no country are improper incidents common which is to the credit of human nature as they were obviously composed mainly for children It is not difficult to get rid of this element when it does occur in popular tales The old puzzle remains a puzzle why do the stories of the remotest people so closely resemble each other Of course in the immeasurable past they have been carried about by conquering races and learned by conquering races from vanquished peoples Slaves carried far from home brought their stories with them into captivity Wanderers travellers shipwrecked men merchants and wives stolen from alien tribes have diffused the stories gipsies and Jews have peddled them about Roman soldiers of many different races moved here and there about the Empire have trafficked in them From the remotest days men have been wanderers and wherever they went their stories accompanied them The slave trade might take a Greek to Persia a Persian to Greece an Egyptian woman to Phoenicia a Babylonian to Egypt a Scandinavian child might be carried with the amber from the Baltic to the Adriatic or a Sidonian to Ophir wherever Ophir may have been while the Portuguese may have borne their tales to South Africa or to Asia and thence brought back other tales to Egypt The stories wandered wherever the Buddhist missionaries went and the earliest French voyageurs told them to the Red Indians These facts help to account for the sameness of the stories everywhere and the uniformity of human fancy in early societies must be the cause of many other resemblances In this volume there are stories from the natives of Rhodesia collected by Mr Fairbridge who speaks the native language and one is brought by Mr Cripps from another part of Africa Uganda Three tales from the Punjab were collected and translated by Major Campbell Various savage tales which needed a good deal of editing are derived from the learned pages of the Journal of the Anthropological Institute With these exceptions and The Magic Book translated by Mrs Pedersen from Eventyr fra Jylland by Mr Ewald Tang Kristensen Stories from Jutland all the tales have been done from various sources by Mrs Lang who has modified where it seemed desirable all the narratives
