Blue Horses Rush In Poems And Stories:

Blue Horses Rush in L. Tapahonso, 1997-07-01 Blue Horses Rush in Luci Tapahonso, 1997-05

Wrapped in blankets and looking at the stars a young Navajo girl listened long ago to stories that would guide her for the rest of her life Such summer evenings were filled with quiet voices dogs barking far away the fire crackling and often we could hear the faint drums and songs of a ceremony somewhere in the distance writes Luci Tapahonso in this compelling collection Blue Horses Rush In takes its title from a poem about the birth of her granddaughter Chamisa whose heart pounded quickly and we recognized the sound of horses running the thundering of hooves on the desert floor Through such personal insights this collection follows the cycle of a woman's life and underlines what it means to be Navajo in the late twentieth century The book marks a major accomplishment in American literature for its successful blending of Navajo cultural values and forms with the English language while at the same time retaining the Navajo character Here Luci Tapahonso walks slowly through an ancient Hohokam village recalling stories passed down from generation to generation Later in the book she may tell a funny story about a friend then within a few pages describe family rituals like roasting green chiles or baking bread in an outside oven Throughout Tapahonso shares with readers her belief in the power of pollen and prayer feathers and sacred songs Many of these stories were originally told in Navajo taking no longer than ten minutes in the telling Yet in recreating them it is necessary to describe the land the sky the light and other details of time and place writes Tapahonso In this way I attempt to create and convey the setting for the oral text In writing I revisit the place or places concerned and try to bring the reader to them thereby enabling myself and other Navajos to sojourn mentally and emotionally in our home Din tah

Encyclopedia of American Indian Literature Jennifer McClinton-Temple, Alan Velie, 2015-04-22 Presents an encyclopedia of American Indian literature in an alphabetical format listing authors and their works Telling to Live Luz del Alba Acevedo, 2001-09-18 An anthology of testimonials from Latina Chicana feminists some of whom are well known which give insight into their personal life experiences and break barriers and assumptions Sing with the Heart of a Bear Kenneth Lincoln, 2023-09-01 Examining contemporary poetry by way of ethnicity and gender Kenneth Lincoln tracks the Renaissance invention of the Wild Man and the recurrent Adamic myth of the lost Garden He discusses the first anthology of American Indian verse The Path on the Rainbow 1918 which opened Jorge Luis Borges university surveys of American literature to thirty five contemporary Indian poets who speak to with and against American mainstream bards From Whitman's free verse through the Greenwich Village Renaissance sandwiched between the world wars and the post apocalyptic Beat incantations to transglobal questions of tribe and verse at the century's close Lincoln shows where we mine the mother lode of New World voices what distinguishes American verse which tales our poets sing and what inflections we hear in the rhythms pitches and parsings of native lines Lincoln presents the Lakota concept of singing with the heart of a bear as poetry which moves through an artist He argues for a fusion of estranged cultures tribal and migr margin and mainstream in detailing the ethnopoetics of Native American translation and the growing modernist concern for a native sense of the makings of American verse This fascinating work represents a major new effort in understanding American and Native American literature spirituality and culture Examining contemporary poetry by way of ethnicity and gender Kenneth Lincoln tracks the Renaissance invention of the Wild Man and the recurrent Adamic myth of the lost Garden He discusses the first anthology of American Indian verse The Path on the Native American Life-history Narratives Susan Berry Brill de Ramírez,2007 The author provides methods for the study of American Indian ethnographic texts and disputes some previous assumptions about the sources of the stories in Son of Old Man Hat Speak Like Singing Kenneth Lincoln,2007 Speak Like Singing honors talk song visions for all relatives and seeks to plumb if not to reconcile Native and American poetics tribal chorus and solitary vision A Companion to the Regional Literatures of America Charles L. Crow,2008-04-15 The Blackwell Companion to American Regional Literature is the most comprehensive resource yet published for study of this popular field The most inclusive survey yet published of American regional literature Represents a wide variety of theoretical and historical approaches Surveys the literature of specific regions from California to New England and from Alaska to Hawaii Discusses authors and groups who have been important in defining regional American literature Contemporary American Indian Literatures & the Oral Tradition Susan Berry Brill de Ram' rez,1999-07 A literary study of Native American literature analyzes its sources in oral tradition offering a theory of conversive critical theory as a way of understanding Indian literature s themes and concerns Blue Mesa Review Julie Shigekuni,2001 This thirteenth volume of Blue Mesa Review brings together writers and poets from all over the United States The collection of poetry and fiction is lively and well edited to provide the best work available Included in this selection are such well known writers as Paula Gunn Allen Arthur Sze and Luci Tapahanso Blood Narrative Chadwick Allen,2002-08-06 Compares the discourses of indigeneity used by Maori and Native American peoples and proposes the concept treaty discourse to characterize the relevant form of postcolonial situation The Earth Memory Compass Farina King,2018-10-01 The Din or Navajo have their own ways of knowing and being in the world a cultural identity linked to their homelands through ancestral memory The Earth Memory Compass traces this tradition as it is imparted from generation to generation and as it has been transformed and often obscured by modern modes of education An autoethnography of sorts the book follows Farina King s search for her own Din identity as she investigates the interconnections among Navajo students their people and Din Bik yah or Navajo lands across the twentieth century In her exploration of how historical changes in education have reshaped Din identity and community King draws on the insights of ethnohistory cultural history and Navajo language At the center of her study is the Din idea of the Four Directions in which each of the cardinal directions takes its meaning from a sacred mountain and its accompanying element East for instance is Sis Naajin Blanca Peak and white shell West Dook o oos d San Francisco Peaks and abalone North Dib Nitsaa Hesperus Peak and black jet South Tsoodzi Mount Taylor and turquoise King elaborates on the meanings and teachings of the mountains and directions throughout her book to illuminate how Navajos have embedded memories in landmarks to serve as a compass for their people a compass threatened by the dislocation and disconnection of Din students from their land communities and Navajo ways of learning Critical to this story is how inextricably Indigenous education and experience is intertwined with American dynamics of power and history As environmental catastrophes and struggles over resources sever the connections among peoplehood land and water King s book holds out hope that the teachings guidance and knowledge of an earth memory compass still have the power to bring the people and the earth together

Getting Over the Color Green Scott Slovic,2001 Desert vistas are often deemed vacant inhospitable wastelands Don t suggest that to Joy Harjo Pat Mora or other contemporary southwestern writers In these arid stretches often devoid of green today s southwestern writers see pyrotechnic colors and Gothic shapes that excite and often overwhelm the imagination And they capture this excitement in words that fix these desert images in the minds of readers who may too often look at the world through green colored glasses This anthology of contemporary nature writing from the Greater Southwest brings together a host of writers including peers of Edward Abbey such as Charles Bowden and Ann Zwinger and representatives of a new generation of writers such as Rick Bass and Terry Tempest Williams The book is an eclectic blend of nonfiction and fiction field notes and poetry through which artists of diverse backgrounds both celebrate and illuminate the unique vitality and complexity of southwestern literature proving that green is only one of many colors on their palette The selections included here range all across the southwestern landscape and explore adventures in the wild topics in natural history living close to the land and efforts at conservation and restoration They clearly demonstrate that there is grace and beauty in this often maligned part of the world both in the human traditions that have developed in the region and in the natural features of the desert itself

The Shade of the Saguaro / La sombra del saguaro. Essays on the Literary Cultures of the American Southwest / Ensayos sobre las culturas literarias del suroeste norteamericano Gaetano Prampolini, Annamaria Pinazzi,2013 This volume springs from that fruitful project of scientific cooperation between the humanities departments of Universit di Firenze and University of Arizona which was the Forum for the Study of the Literary Cultures of the Southwest 2000 2007 Tri cultural at least Native Hispanic and Anglo American and multi lingual today s Southwest presents a complex coexistence of different cultures the equal of which would be hard to find elsewhere in the United States Of this virtually inexhaustible object of study the essays here collected tackle an ample range of themes While the majority of them are concerned with the literatures of the Southwest still a good third falls into the fields of history art history ethnography sociology or cultural studies They are partitioned in four sections the first three reflecting the chronology of the stratification of the three major cultures and the fourth highlighting one of the most sensitive topics in and about contemporary Southwest the borderlands la frontera Bearing Life Rochelle Ratner,2001-08 Ratner s premier literary anthology widens the family circle to embrace childless women and recognize their invaluable contributions to our collective soul Booklist Children of the Dragonfly Robert Bensen,2001-03 Sometimes the losses of childhood can be recovered only in the flight of the dragonfly Native American children have long been subject to removal from their homes for placement in residential schools and more recently in foster or adoptive homes The governments of both the United States and Canada having reduced Native nations to the legal status of dependent children historically have asserted a surrogate parentalism over Native children themselves Children of the Dragonfly is the first anthology to document this struggle for cultural survival on both sides of the U S Canadian border Through autobiography and interviews fiction and traditional tales official transcripts and poetry these voices Seneca Cherokee Mohawk Navajo and many others weave powerful accounts of struggle and loss into a moving testimony to perseverance and survival Invoking the dragonfly spirit of Zuni legend who helps children restore a way of life that has been taken from them the anthology explores the breadth of the conflict about Native childhood Included are works of contemporary authors Sherman Alexie Joy Harjo Luci Tapahonso and others classic writers Zitkala Sa and E Pauline Johnson and contributions from twenty important new writers as well They take readers from the boarding school movement of the 1870s to the Sixties Scoop in Canada and the Indian Child Welfare Act of 1978 in the United States They also spotlight the tragic consequences of racist practices such as the suppression of Indian identity in government schools and the campaign against Indian childbearing through involuntary sterilization
