Blessed Are the Consumers Sallie McFague, 2013-01-01 For decades Sallie McFague has lent her voice and her theological imagination to addressing and advocating for the most important issues of our time In doing so she has influenced an entire generation and empowered countless people in their efforts to put religion in the service of meeting human needs in difficult times In this timely book

McFague recalls her readers to the practices of restraint In a world bent on consumption it is imperative that people of religious faith realize the significant role they play in advocating for the earth and a more humane life for all The root of restraint she argues rests in the ancient Christian notion of Kenosis or self emptying By introducing Kenosis through the life stories of John Woolman Simone Weil and Dorothy Day McFague brings a powerful theological concept to bear in a winsome and readable way Beginnings - The Spiritual Life Andy Langford, Mark Ralls, Rob Weber, 2006-05 This book expands on the themes of the 10 sessions in the Beginnings the Spiritual Life small group study These readings will enhance the participant s experience It can also be read separately for personal study Wildpfade Adelheid question The forty six contributors include award winning literary figures religious and political leaders and social activists from one end of Canada to the other Their traditions range from evangelical to Catholic mainline Protestant to Orthodox Pentecostal to Mennonite Some still have family connections beyond Canada s borders others have ancestors who were here long before Europeans came These writers do not analyze define or argue about Christianity in Canada They simply showcase it through their memoir or poetry fiction or meditation mapping into words something of what it means to be Christian in this country The spiritual landscape they paint is diverse inspiring and provocative It s a colourful dance of words a wonderful Canadian celebration What Inspirational Literature Do I Read Next? Pamela Willwerth Aue, Henry L.
