The North Carolina Filmography Jenny Henderson, 2017-07-21 In recent years North Carolina has been recognized as a popular filming location for feature films and television series such as Last of the Mohicans and Dawson's Creek. Few people probably realize that the first feature film in the state was shot in 1912. This comprehensive reference book provides a complete listing of every film, documentary, short, television program, newsreel, and promotional video in which at least some part was filmed in North Carolina through the year 2000. The entries contain the following information: alternate titles, the type of film, feature film, television episode, etc., studio, cities, counties, scenes, Biltmore House, for example, comments, short synopses of the movies, director, producer, co-producer, executive producer, cinematographer, writer, music, and casting credits, additional crew, and cast. The Encyclopedia of Duke Basketball John Roth, 2006 Duke basketball is one of the most celebrated programs in intercollegiate athletics. With fourteen Final Four appearances and three national championships for the men's teams and four Final Four appearances and five ACC championships for the women's teams, the Blue Devils have established a worldwide reputation for excellence and have inspired the fierce devotion of generations of fans. The Encyclopedia of Duke Basketball is the ultimate reference source for true blue fans, with profiles of great games, classic finishes, both wins and losses, and compelling personalities including players, coaches, and opponents. While it is filled with a wealth of statistical information, the Encyclopedia goes well beyond the numerical record to deliver insights on people and performances and anecdotes that will surprise even the most seasoned Duke supporter. The Encyclopedia features a timeline of key events in men's and women's basketball history, capsules of the most important men's and women's games in the program's history, including the men's buzzer-beating overtime win against Kentucky in 1992 and the women's stunning victory over Tennessee to reach the Final Four in 1999. An alphabetical encyclopedia with entries on players from Alaa Abdelnaby to Bill Zimmer and on coaches, customs, opponents, venues, and records. Exclusive interviews in which standout players including Danny Ferry, Mike Gminski, Grant Hill, Christian Laettner, and Jason Williams recount moments they'll never forget. A statistical record book covering every season through 2005-06. 130 photographs of Duke basketball history. A source of entertainment as well as information, this volume will be a great resource for fans hoping to settle arguments, relive favorite games, or simply enjoy hours of pleasurable reading. The Golden Game Billy Packer, Roland Lazenby, 1991 This book covers the hot shots, great moments, and classic stories from basketball's first 100 years. Light on the Hill William D. Snider, 2004 In a bicentennial history of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, William D. Snider leads us from the chartering and siting of a charming campus and village in 1795 through the struggles, innovations, and expansions that have carried the school to national and international prominence. Throughout, Snider provides fine portraits of individuals significant in the life of the university, from William R. Davie and Joseph Caldwell to Harry Woodburn Chase, Frank Porter Graham, and William C. Friday.

His book evokes for all who have been part of the Chapel Hill community memories of their own associations with the campus and a sense of the greater history of the institution of which they were a part      The North Carolina Historical Review, 2009      Sylvia Hatchell Roberta Teague Herrin, Sheila Quinn Oliver, 2021-07-07 As a young girl Sylvia Hatchell longed to play little league baseball and later high school basketball but both were closed to her because she was a girl In college her world shifted when she discovered a passion for coaching that would lead her to become a Naismith Hall of Fame coach of women's basketball at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill In this book Coach Hatchell's life story unfolds against the backdrop of Title IX and women's struggle for equal opportunities in athletics She celebrates triumphs such as winning the 1994 NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Tournament and weathers sadness and failure such as the loss of her parents surviving cancer and being forced to resign from her dream job in 2019      The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill Jane Collins, 1987-10      California and the Making of Modern Sport Joel S. Franks, 2025-09-30 This book examines the importance of California a socio cultural economic and political powerhouse in the history of modern sport It argues that California has had a profound influence for better or worse on the way that not only America but also the wider world plays sport and spends money to watch others play The book traces the history of sport in California from the mid nineteenth century to the present and looks at how the state's historical development its climate and its unique racial and ethnic demographics have influenced sport at the elite level and in the wider community It considers the importance of spatial politics and cultural citizenship in the development of Californian sport and tells the story of how franchises such as the 49ers and the Lakers as well as individual athletes such as Jackie Robinson and Billie Jean King have had a profound influence on the way their sports have been consumed across America and in the wider world The book also takes a close look at the impact of mega sporting events in the Californian story providing historical context for the LA 2028 Olympic Games and tracing the full arc of the Californization of modern sports This is fascinating reading for anybody with an interest in sport history American history social and cultural history or the relationship between sport and wider society      Carolina Basketball Adam Lucas, 2010-10-15 Boasting six national championships and scores of Hall of Fame coaches and players Carolina Basketball has come a long way from the first season when the campus newspaper published a notice asking an unknown culprit to return the team's basketball These pages are packed with little known stories from the program's earliest days and new insights into its best loved moments All the greats are here from Jack Cobb and the Blind Bomber George Glamack to Lennie Rosenbluth Phil Ford James Worthy Michael Jordan Antawn Jamison and Tyler Hansbrough Lucas reveals the meaning of the Carolina family and the origins and evolution of Tar Heel traditions that have made North Carolina one of the premier teams in men's college basketball These stories are brought to life with more than 175 color and black and white photos a foreword by Hall of Fame coach Dean Smith and an afterword by fellow Hall of Famer Roy Williams and an appendix of records and statistics Some 25 sidebars feature first person recollections from prominent players including Rosenbluth
