The History of Bhutan Karma Phuntsho, 2014-08-15 In 2008 Bhutan triumphantly took the stage as the world's youngest democracy But despite its growing prominence and rising scholarly interest in the country Bhutan remains one of the least studied and least well known places on the planet Karma Phuntsho's The History of Bhutan is the first book to offer a comprehensive history of Bhutan in English Along with a detailed social and political analysis it offers substantive discussions of Bhutan's geography and culture the result is the clearest richest account of this nation and its history ever published for general readers A 2015 Choice Magazine Outstanding Academic Title Award Winner

The Routledge International Handbook of Life and Values Education in Asia John Chi-Kin Lee, Kerry J Kennedy, 2024-06-28 This Handbook provides a comprehensive look at the educational scope of life and values that characterize 21st century Asia as well as those values shared across cultures Some values are deeply resonant with the region's past while others reflect modernity and the new contexts in which Asian societies find themselves Exploring these values of different types and the way they are constructed in Eastern and Western contexts the contributors delve into the diversity of religious moral and social education to promote greater understanding across cultures While a range of values is identified here there is no single set of values that can be applied to all people in all contexts The time has long gone even for single societies when values can be imposed Yet this Handbook emphasizes both the extent and importance of values to individuals and their societies how they respond to these values may provide the key to better and more caring societies and to better lives for all Academics and teachers will find this Handbook resourceful because it raises important theoretical issues related to social values and their formation in distinctive contexts and provides novel insights into the diverse educational landscape in Asia Policymakers and educators will also find this text helpful in learning to think about new ways to improve the quality of people s lives

Encyclopedia of the Peoples of Asia and Oceania Barbara A. West,2010-05-19 Presents an alphabetical listing of information on the peoples of Asia and Oceania including origins prehistory history culture languages and relationships to other cultures

Global Health Nursing Michele Upvall,Jeanne Leffers,2014-04-14 Primarily the book covers different global health partnerships and initiatives focusing on what works what doesn t work and providing guidance for future partnerships This is ideal for readers who focus their work in this area

Doody s Medical Reviews This innovative text for graduate and undergraduate nursing students fills a void in global health nursing literature by providing essential tools and strategies for building and sustaining productive international partnerships Based on the premise that partnership is paramount for sustainable outcomes the book demonstrates how nurses can build sustainable health programs that will improve health outcomes worldwide Written by two highly experienced global nurses the book offers expert guidance gained from many years of successful involvement in international collaboration that is supported by detailed real life examples It will be of particular interest to nurse educators who undertake projects with their students to ensure that both students and host partners are able to meet their collaborative goals Additionally the text provides information that will help nurse educators to perpetuate a successful educational program even after they depart or funding ends Case studies from many different perspectives demonstrate positive change effected by nurses working across international boundaries and within their own countries The text builds on the Conceptual Framework for Partnership and Sustainability in Global Health Nursing developed by Leffers and Mitchell 2010 Additionally the book reflects the focus on global health competence for nurses in the future IOM 2011 as well as that of the American Academy s of Nursing s recently established committee on Global Health Key Features Provides expert essential guidance for nurses who work internationally to build successful partnerships for sustainable programs Recommends global solutions to the challenges facing international nursing collaboration Includes detailed case studies of successful collaboration Based on the Conceptual Framework for Partnership and Sustainability in Global Health Nursing Chapters end with reflective questions challenging the reader to apply lessons learned

Bhutan: Conservation and Environmental Protection in the Himalayas Ugyen Tshewang,Michael Charles Tobias,Jane Gray Morrison,2021-01-15 Located in the heart of the Eastern Himalayas Bhutan practices the philosophy of Gross National Happiness GNH that embraces environmental conservation as one of the main building blocks for its sustainable development goals Bhutan's conservation strategies and success are largely driven by the strong political will and visionary leadership of His Majesty the King of Bhutan The nation's Buddhist perspectives regarding a deep and abiding respect for nature and the strategic enforcement of a wide ranging stringent set of internal regulations and controls have helped ensure ecological gold standards in Bhutan Moreover the country is an active member of the international conservation community by fulfilling its implementation of various Multilateral Environment Agreements While it emerged into the 21st century as one of the 36 global terrestrial hotspots in biological diversity conservation ranks Bhutan's sheer commitment with more than 51% of its territory being managed under the explicit status of a protected area network and more than 70% of the land under forest cover represents Bhutan's exemplary dedication to protect the planet despite its smallness in size and economy and the biological fragility exemplified by its hotspot situation In the face of imminent severe threats of global warming Bhutan nonetheless exemplifies the truth that a small country with a big conservation commitment can make an enormous contribution to the global community At the regional level Bhutan is intent upon protecting the Water Towers of Asia that glacial expanse of the Himalayas which is a critical resource bulwark for about one fifth of the global population downstream in South Asia Such protections invariably help mitigate climate change by acting as a nation wide carbon sink through its carbon neutral policies In short Bhutan has long represented one of the world's foremost national guardians of biodiversity conservation ecological good governance and societal sustainability at a period when the world has entered the Anthropocene an epoch of mass extinctions We envision this publication to be ecologically and ethically provocative and revealing for the concerned scientific communities and governments Through an extensive review of the scientific and anthropological literature as well as the research team's own data the Author's have set forth timely recommendations for conservation policies strategies and actions This book provides technical and deeply considered assessments of the state of Bhutan's environment its multiple human induced stressors and pressures as well as extremely sound practical techniques that would address conservation strategies in the Himalayas and by implication worldwide
