Blind Alley Youth In A Crisis Of Capital:

Blind Alley Mike Cole, Bob Skelton, 1980      Youth, Training and the Training State Michael Neary, 2016-07-27 This work uncovers the real history of modern youth providing an explanation of its predicament that goes beyond the mainstream accounts as perpetrated by the sociology of youth Tracing the development of training of young workers from 1814 the book reveals for the first time the creation by post war legislation of the modern category of youth The book concludes that with the prevailing conditions of employment there is no longer any future for youth as youth The recent history of youth is an attempt to recompose a sustainable existence for itself and society      Contagion Capitalism Sean Creaven, 2023-12-15 Contagion Capitalism situates the COVID 19 pandemic within the systems of global political economy and their attendant cultural modes and theorizes that these systems act as facilitators and drivers of global pandemic risk Contagion Capitalism therefore critiques the institutionalized corporate capitalist control of the economy the state and science and the grave consequences this has on global public health policy the ecological crisis of sustainability and zoonotic pandemic events such as COVID 19 In doing so this book addresses the failings of what may be termed as state science or establishment science in managing the pandemic as personified especially by those elements of the scientific elite placed in the service of the neoliberal state This book also explores the limitations of corporate pharmacological technoscience in safeguarding public health arguing that Big Pharma offers only partial remedies for problems of human illness and well being poses its own dangers to public health and obfuscates the social bases of public ill health and of pandemic risk Contagion Capitalism further argues that COVID 19 will not be the last or even the most dangerous such epidemiological event This is because the social production and global dissemination of zoonotic diseases is integral to contemporary capitalism by virtue of its instrumental mode of science its central dynamic of production for the sake of accumulation and the consumer mode this sustains as its own condition of existence These are the drivers of what may be termed as zoonotic accelerationism Contagion Capitalism will appeal to scholars in the humanities and social sciences with interests in neoliberal ideology and global political economy and their impact upon social political and cultural life      Bowles And Gintis Revisited Mike Cole, 2012-11-12 First Published in 1988 We live in reactionary times at the time of writing the hard right is established in the UK and America At the same time Britain has given birth to a number of progressive forces the left wing borough councils the anti nuclear movement including its impact at Greenham Common an established women s movement the miners strike the uprisings in the inner cities and the anti racist struggle while in America we have seen the advance of the Rainbow coalition and other progressive movements Whatever the way forward for the left there is a fundamental need for a re evaluation of basic Marxist scholarship but in the light of the significance of these historical and current realities This book aims to play some small part in that process The central focus is of course education but the issues raised range far wider      CCCS Selected Working Papers Ann Gray, Jan Campbell, Mark Erickson, Stuart Hanson, Helen Wood, 2007-11-07 This collection of classic essays focuses on the theoretical frameworks that informed the work of the Centre for Contemporary Cultural Studies at the University of Birmingham the methodologies and working practices that the Centre developed for conducting academic research and examples of the studies carried out under the auspices of the Centre This volume is split into seven thematic sections that are introduced by key academics working in the field of cultural studies and includes a preface by eminent scholar Stuart Hall The thematic sections are Literature and Society Popular Culture and Youth Subculture Media Women s Studies and Feminism Race History Education and Work     Marxism Against Postmodernism in Educational Theory Dave Hill,2002-01-01 Written by renowned British and American educational theorists Marxism Against Postmodernism in Educational Theory a substantially revised edition of the original 1999 work examines the infusion of postmodernism and theories of postmodernity into educational theory policy and research     Marxism and Educational Theory Mike Cole,2007-10-18 Mike Cole considers the origins and developments within the evolution of Marxist theory and postmodern theory He analyses how Marxism and postmodernism are articulated within the sociology of education since its inception up to the present     The Dominance of Management Dr Leonard Holmes,2012-11-28 This book offers a controversial reanalysis of the rise and dominance of managerialist approaches to development Linking two British inner city community development projects with projects in the developing world it shows how managed development runs counter to participatory values and aspirations of communities receiving development aid This in effect mutes the voices of these communities In conclusion Holmes draws implications for the emerging community development agenda in urban development throughout the world     The Politics Of Multiracial Education Madan Sarup,2013-01-11 In this book Madan Sarup describes recent developments in multi racial education and makes a sustained critique of approaches based on the assumptions of psychology equality of opportunity and cultural pluralism     Critical Reflections on the Language of Neoliberalism in Education Spyros Themelis,2020-12-29 Recognizing the dominance of neoliberal forces in education this volume offers a range of critical essays which analyze the language used to underpin these dynamics Combining essays from over 20 internationally renowned contributors this text offers a critical examination of key terms which have become increasingly central to educational discourse Each essay considers the etymological foundation of each term the context in which they have evolved and likewise their changed meaning In doing so these essays illustrate the transformative potential of language to express or challenge political social and economic ideologies The text s musings on the language of education and its implications for the current and future role of education in society make clear its relevance to today s cultural and political landscape This exploratory monograph will be of interest to doctoral students researchers and scholars with an interest in the philosophy of education educational policy and politics as well as the sociology of education and the impacts of neoliberalism     The Palgrave International Handbook of Marxism and Education Richard Hall,Inny Accioly,Krystian Szadkowski,2023-11-07 The Palgrave International Handbook of Marxism and Education is an international and interdisciplinary volume which provides a thorough and precise engagement with emergent developments in Marxist theory in both the global South and North Drawing on the work of authoritative scholars and practitioners the handbook explicitly shows how these developments enable a rich historical and material understanding of the full range of education sectors and contexts The handbook proceeds in a spirit of openness and dialogue within and between various conceptions and traditions of Marxism and brings those conceptions into dialogue with their critics and other anti capitalist traditions As such it contributes to the development of Marxist analyses that push beyond established limits by engaging with fresh perspectives and views that disrupt established perspectives

Blood Read Joan Gordon, Veronica Hollinger, 1997-10 Scholars and writers from the United States Canada England and Japan examine how today's vampire has evolved from that of the last century consider the vampire as a metaphor for consumption within the context of social concerns and discuss the vampire figure in terms of contemporary literary theory

Restructuring the Labour Market D. Ashton, M. Maguire, M. Spilsbury, 2016-07-27 This book represents an advance in our knowledge of the labour market For the first time it combines the analysis of both quantitative and qualitative data to produce an explanation of the main changes which have transformed the labour market during the recession For the first time it demonstrates the segmented character of the youth labour market and the significance of the local labour markets The result is a substantial contribution to labour market segmentation theory and to the analysis of social policy in this field

Democracy in One School? Tuula Gordon, 1986

Anarchy , The State, Young People and Youth Training Phil Mizen, 1995 As the youth training movement has sought increasingly to process and control their aspirations for meaningful work and training they have consistently resisted these measures The result has been that rather than creating a new generation embracing the spirit of unfettered capitalism internalizing and rehearsing its imperatives and values and celebrating its institutional forms youth training has given rise to contradictions that have led to new forms of resistance and denial

Marxism Against Postmodernism in Educational Theory Mike Cole, Dave Hill, Peter McLaren, 2002-12-11 Postmodernism has become the orthodoxy in educational theory It heralds the end of grand theories like Marxism and liberalism scorning any notion of a united feminist challenge to patriarchy of united anti racist struggle and of united working class movements against capitalist exploitation and oppression For postmodernists the world is fragmented history is ended and all struggles are local and particularistic Written by internationally renowned British and American educational theorists Marxism Against Postmodernism in Educational Theory a substantially revised edition of the original 1999 work Postmodernism in Educational Theory critically examines the infusion of postmodernism and theories of postmodernity into educational theory policy and research The writers argue that postmodernism provides neither a viable educational politics nor the foundation for effective radical educational practice and offer an alternative politics of human resistance which puts the challenge to capitalism firmly on the agenda of educational theory politics and practice

The Experience of Unemployment A. Waton, S. Allen, K. Purcell, S. Wood, 1986-11-03

Increasingly high unemployment has brought with it a multitude of consequences affecting those without jobs and beyond them their families friends and communities This book reports findings from original research It explores often in the words of the unemployed and others involved what life without a job is like It challenges many widely held beliefs about the unemployed that they are workshy price themselves out of jobs or earn money illegally on the side and explores where such misconceptions come from It reveals the inherent contradictions involved in trying to search for work whilst coping with the experience of unemployment

Training Without Jobs Dan Finn, 1987 For more than a century the state has prohibited children from obtaining full time employment and it has assumed increasing control over the conditions awaiting school leavers in the labour market This book traces these developments from the introduction of compulsory schooling to the creating of the two year Youth Training Scheme It draws on a wealth of empirical studies of young people at school and at work both to illustrate how raising the school leaving age to 16 failed to deliver what it promised and to reveal how the Conservative government elected in 1979 redefined the relationship between education training and work Through a detailed critique of the development and politics of the Manpower Services Commission the book shows how the power of the state has been used to manage and contain the political crisis of mass unemployment It also reveals however that young people are unlikely to accept meekly the new social and economic status that the government has created for them Many have little confidence in the cynical offers of Training Without Jobs

Multicultural Education Sohan Modgil, 1986
