exploration pale by comparison These supercavers spent months in multiple camps almost two vertical miles deep and many more miles from their caves exits They had to contend with thousand foot drops deadly flooded tunnels raging whitewater rivers monstrous waterfalls mile long belly crawls and much more Perhaps even worse were the psychological horrors produced by weeks plunged into absolute perpetual darkness beyond all hope of rescue including a particularly insidious derangement called The Rapture Blind Descent is a testament to human survival and endurance and to two extraordinary men whose relentless pursuit of greatness led them to heights of triumph and depths of tragedy neither could have imagined

David Geherin,2014-12-04 Small towns have long been a commonplace setting in cozy mysteries but in recent years writers of realistic crime fiction have discovered fresh possibilities in small town settings There they can take advantage of distinct facets of small town life a sense of community slower pace of life proximity to nature and yet deal with social economic and environmental issues Because crimes in small communities hit closer to home the human element can better be emphasized This book focuses on the work of ten contemporary authors who have placed small towns like Rocksbury Pennsylvania K C Constantine West Table Missouri Daniel Woodrell Niniltna Alaska Dana Stabenow Aurora Minnesota William Kent Krueger Paradise Michigan Steve Hamilton Millersburg Ohio P L Gaus Heartsdale Georgia Karin Slaughter Millers Kill New York Julia Spencer Fleming Durant Wyoming Craig Johnson and a number of national parks Nevada Barr on the map of American crime fiction Original Sin in the Roman Liturgy G. Hysteria, Perversion, and Paranoia in “The Canterbury Tales” Becky Renee McLaughlin,2020-07-20 Beginning with the spectacle of hysteria moving through the perversions of fetishism masochism and sadism and ending with paranoia and psychosis this book explores the ways that conflicts with the Oedipal law erupt on the body and in language in Chaucer s Canterbury Tales for Chaucer s tales are rife with issues of mastery and control that emerge as conflicts not only between authority and experience but also between power and knowledge word and flesh rule books and reason man and woman same and other conflicts that erupt in a macabre sprawl of broken bones dismembered bodies cut throats and decapitations Like the macabre sprawl of conflict in the Canterbury Tales this book brings together a number of conflicting modes of thinking and writing through the surprising and perhaps disconcerting use of shadow chapters that speak to or against the four central chapters creating both dialogue and interruption Myth and Ritual in Women's Detective Fiction

Christine A. Jackson,2015-10-02 The relationship between traditional myths fairytales and current fiction novels featuring women as crime solvers is examined in this critical study Using theories from Joseph Campbell C G Jung and others the author asserts that plots and imagery in these novels conform to quest narratives outlined in classical myths and traditional fairytale Narcissus Medusa Orpheus and Orestes are a few of the figures emerging in today's mystery fiction. Among the mystery authors discussed are Patricia Cornwell, Amanda Cross, Sue Grafton, P. D. James, Sara Paretsky, and Julie Smith. After establishing the anatomy of a mystery, the text discusses many myths, rituals, and rites associated with mysteries, including myths of identity, religion, and rites of initiation.

After carefully weighing the options, Brian decided to continue toward the summit alone. Four hours later, Brian solo summited the highest peak in the world. But the celebration was short-lived. After taking a few pictures, Brian radioed his team to let them know he had summited safely and began his descent. Suddenly, his vision became blurry, his eyes started to burn, and within seconds he was rendered almost completely blind. All alone at 29,035 feet low on oxygen and stricken with snow blindness, Brian was forced to inch his way back down the mountain, relying only on his Navy survival training instincts and faith. In Blind Descent, Brian recounts his extraordinary experience on Mount Everest, demonstrating that no matter how dire our circumstances, there is no challenge too big for God. Runway Visions David Kirk Vaughan, 2024-09-12 From February 1967 to April 1968, David Vaughan flew the Lockheed C-130 Hercules in Southeast Asia. Initially a co-pilot, he moved up to aircraft commander and then instructor pilot as he mastered the challenges of landing on very short, unimproved airstrips in difficult terrain and bad weather. He describes his progression from inexperienced novice to veteran flyer as he learned his trade under combat conditions. Vaughan's airlift missions took him to more than 50 fields in South Vietnam, from the Delta in the south to the DMZ in the north, carrying supplies, mail, food, ammunition, and soldiers alive, wounded, and dead. Among his most harrowing flights were resupply missions into the U.S. Marine base at Khe Sanh during the most intensive days of the 1968 Tet offensive. This expanded and revised edition of his memoir details several additional episodes and features more than twice as many photographs as appeared in the original edition. My Travels by Canoe William V. McNaul, 2005-10-07 The story begins with the author as a child getting an unwitting education in the ways of moving water by playing in the creek that flowed by his boyhood home. The McNaul residence was located between a railroad embankment and a highway, which were confining borders for a kid growing up. Finally, aging and being permitted beyond these barriers led to the discovery of canoeing. The first trials and errors of boating and a slow advance to different types of canoe trips are covered in the text. Then a birthday gift of a Pennsylvania stream map changed the authors canoe plans to give them some direction and a goal to complete all of the canoeable waterways in the state was formed At first the aim to do all of the creeks was not too seriously taken but as the blue lines on the map were filled in this indicated that it could be achieved The pursuit of a lot of little creeks and unrecorded ones finally led to completion of the goal over thirty three years of paddling The struggle to complete the most difficult creek was a high point in the game and a ten yard escape from going over a thirty foot waterfall was an event the author would never forget The adventures of the course taken on tide waters in swamps through industrial zones of hazards encountered wildlife and severe weather conditions are spread throughout the writing Memories of the twenty two canoes and kayaks used and of the large ships that his canoe had been up close to on the Delaware River and Lake Erie are mentioned for the record The voyagers who traveled with the author on unknown creeks and on week long river journeys brought life to the activities of the day Some of the many interesting people met along the highway of water are included in the writings In the end the author reviews some of the good and bad practices of canoe sport with the hopes of improving establishment thinking throughout the canoe kayak fraternity William V McNaull The Essential Mystery Lists Roger M Sobin,2011-09-30 For the first time in one place Roger M Sobin has compiled a list of nominees and award winners of virtually every mystery award ever presented He has also included many of the best of lists by more than fifty of the most important contributors to the genre Mr Sobin spent more than two decades gathering the data and lists in this volume much of that time he used to recheck the accuracy of the material he had collected Several of the best of lists appear here for the first time in book form Several others have been unavailable for a number of years Of special note are Anthony Boucher s Best Picks for the Year Boucher one of the major mystery reviewers of all time reviewed for The San Francisco Chronicle Ellery Queen Mystery Magazine and The New York Times From these resources Mr Sobin created Boucher s Best and Important Lists to Consider lists that provide insight into important writing in the field from 1942 through Boucher s death in 1968 This is a great resource for all mystery readers and collectors Winner of the 2008 Macavity Awards for Best Mystery Nonfiction The Beginning of the East Max Yeh,1992 An earthquake in Mexico City shocks the protagonist of this Scheherazade series of connected tales into mapping the influence of the United States on the rest of the Americas of Europe on the Native American cultures and therefore of Columbus on the Western Hemisphere
