Blindness And Insight Essays In The Rhetoric Of Contemporary Criticism Second Edition Revised:

Blindness and Insight Paul de Man, 2013-10-28 In Blindness and Insight de Man examines several critics and finds in their writings a gap between their statements about the nature of literature and the results of their practical criticism. Not only are the critics unaware of this gap, says de Man, but their blindness to it often leads to some of their most valuable insights. The central issue of de Man's work is the rhetorical constitution of the text, and this book, with its new introduction by Wlad Godzich and five additional essays by de Man, is meant to challenge readers to a new appreciation of their chosen task as readers of literature. Included in this new edition are the original essays on Binswanger, Poulet, Lukas, Blanchot, the New Critics, and Derrida's Grammatology, as well as five more: The Rhetoric of Temporality, The Dead End of Formalist Criticism, Heidegger's Exegesis of Holderlin, a review of Bloom's Anxiety of Influence, and Literature and Language. Paul de Man

Notebooks de Man Paul de Man, 2016-02-22 This anthology collects texts and papers from the Paul de Man archive, including essays on art, translations, critical fragments, research plans, interviews, and reports on the state of comparative literature. These texts offer a fascinating insight into the work of one of the twentieth century's most important literary theorists. The volume engages with Paul de Man's institutional life, gathering together pedagogical and critical material to investigate his profound influence on the American academy and theory today. It also contains a number of substantial, previously unpublished and untranslated texts by de Man from the span of his writing career. As a new collection of primary sources, this volume further stimulates the growing reappraisal of de Man's work. Blindness and Insight Paul de Man, 1993

Silence in Modern Literature and Philosophy Thomas Gould, 2018-07-12 This book discusses the elusive centrality of silence in modern literature and philosophy, focusing on the writing and theory of Jean-Luc Nancy and Roland Barthes, the prose of Samuel Beckett, and the poetry of Wallace Stevens. It suggests that silence is best understood according to two categories: apophasis and reticence. Apophasis is associated with theology and relates to a silence of ineffability and transcendence; reticence is associated with phenomenology and relates to a silence of listenership and speechlessness. In a series of diverse though interrelated readings, the study examines figures of broken silence and silent voice in the prose of Samuel Beckett, the notion of shared silence in Jean-Luc Nancy and Roland Barthes, and ways in which the poetry of Wallace Stevens mounts lyrical negotiations with forms of unsayability and speechlessness. William Empson Paul H.

Fry, 2002-01-31 First book to look at Empson's intellectual career as a whole. Empson's Seven Types of Ambiguity is a seminal text. Cold Modernism Jessica Burstein, 2012 Explores a significant but overlooked aspect of early twentieth-century modernism: one that focuses on surface appearance rather than interiority or psychological depth. Looks at the writers
