Signed in His Blood Ray Beeson, 2014 From his travels and observations Ray Beeson has found that very few Christians know how to use this powerful weapon that is available to us Signed in Blood will change that by taking readers through the nature of a covenant the need for heart change the reason we take Communion and much more A Freedom Bought with Blood Jennifer C. James, 2012-09-01 In the first comprehensive study of African American war literature Jennifer James analyzes fiction poetry autobiography and histories about the major wars waged before the desegregation of the U S military in 1948 Examining literature about the Civil War the Spanish American Wars World War I and World War II James introduces a range of rare and understudied texts by writers such as Victor Daly F Grant Gilmore William Gardner Smith and Susie King Taylor She argues that works by these as well as canonical writers such as William Wells Brown Paul Laurence Dunbar and Gwendolyn Brooks mark a distinctive contribution to African American letters In establishing African American war literature as a long standing literary genre in its own right James also considers the ways in which this writing centered as it is on moments of national crisis complicated debates about black identity and African Americans claims to citizenship In a provocative assessment James argues that the very ambivalence over the use of violence as a political instrument defines African American war writing and creates a compelling contradictory body of literature that defies easy summary
