A Blue Monkey for the Tomb, 1994 Poets on Paintings Robert D. Denham, 2010-03-10 Ekphrasis the description of pictorial art in words is the subject of this bibliography More specifically some 2500 poems on paintings are catalogued by type of publication in which they appear and by poet Also included are 2000 entries on the secondary literature of ekphrasis including works on sculpture music photography film and mixed media The rock tombs of Deir el Gebrâwi Norman de Garis Davies, 2016-02-05 A highly illustrated two volume 1902 survey of the most important Old Kingdom necropolis of the Upper Egyptian 12th nome The Pyramid Complex of Senwosret I Dieter Arnold, 1992 As a result of The Metropolitan Museum of Art's renewed excavations in Lisht the Egyptian Department published The Pyramid of Senwosret I by Dieter Arnold in 1988 followed in 1990 by The Control Notes and Team Marks by Felix Arnold The first volume examined the main pyramid and its related mortuary installations while this third volume The Pyramid Complex of Senwosret I by Dieter Arnold discusses the monuments and objects found within the outer enclosure wall of the royal pyramid mainly the nine subsidiary pyramids and other tombs belonging to members of the royal family and their households Although the pyramids and their surrounding installations are much destroyed and the burials pillaged it has been possible to reconstruct to some degree the architecture from these ruins Such a reconstruction is particularly important as no other pyramid enclosures of the Middle Kingdom and very few of the Old Kingdom have ever been so thoroughly excavated and published The results of this enterprise provide an important contribution to our understanding of the structure and development of the royal funerary complexes of the Middle Kingdom As with the other volumes on the Museum's excavations this publication provides complete information and archaeological context for a number of important objects from Lisht that were given to the Museum as a result of the division of finds and are now displayed in the Egyptian Galleries of the Metropolitan Museum Also significant is the discovery of timbers from one or more ancient ships described in the appendix When these vessels were no longer thought to be seaworthy they were disassembled and their timbers embedded in roads used during the construction of the pyramid complex The Palace of Minos Arthur Evans, 2013-08-29 Published 1921 35 this highly illustrated multi volume excavation report documents the discovery of Minoan civilisation on Crete The Rock Tombs of Deir El Gebrâwi: Tomb of Zau and tombs of the northern group ... Antczak, 2022-08-18

Archaeoprimatology intertwines archaeology and primatology to understand the ancient liminal relationships between humans and nonhuman primates. During the last decade, novel studies have boosted this discipline. This edited volume is the first compendium of archaeoprimatological studies ever produced. Written by a culturally diverse group of scholars with multiple theoretical views and methodological perspectives, it includes new zooarchaeological examinations and material culture evaluations as well as innovative uses of oral and written sources. Themes discussed comprise the survey of past primates as pets, symbolic mediators, prey, iconographic references, or living commodities. The book covers different regions of the world from the Americas to Asia, along with studies from Africa and Europe. Temporally, the chapters explore the human-nonhuman primate interface from deep in time to more recent historical times, examining both extinct and extant primate taxa. This anthology of archaeoprimatological studies will be of interest to archaeologists, primatologists, anthropologists, art historians, paleontologists, conservationists, zoologists, historical ecologists, philologists, and ethnobiologists. Pinarello, Justin Yoo, Jason Lundock, Carl Walsh, 2015-04-17. Presents the latest research in Egyptology on the theme of Ancient Egypt in a Global World. This selection of 23 papers from the 15th annual Current Research in Egyptology symposium addresses the interregional and interdisciplinary theme of Ancient Egypt in a Global World. This theme works on a number of levels, highlighting the current global nature of Egyptological research and it places ancient Egypt in the wider ancient world. The first section presents the results of recent excavations, including in the western Valley of the Kings and analysis of the structures, construction techniques, food production and consumption remains at Tell Timai, Thmuis in the Delta. Part II focuses on the cross-cultural theme with papers including discussions on the presence in India of terracotta figurines from Roman Egypt, the ancient Egyptian influence of Aegean lion-headed divinities, Libyan influence in New Kingdom and Third Intermediate Period Egyptian administration, and the identification of ancient Egyptian finds from the British countryside reported to the Portable Antiquities Scheme. The third part of the book includes current research undertaken across the world of Egyptology, including analysis of late Roman crocodile mummies, though non-invasive radiographic imaging techniques and the study of infant jar burials in ancient Egypt and Sudan to identify differences in regional socio-economic contexts and the interaction between people and local resources. The editors of this volume are all PhD candidates at University College and King's College London. Etruscan Civilization Sybille Haynes, 2000. This comprehensive survey of Etruscan civilization from its origin in the Villanovan Iron Age in the ninth century B.C. to its absorption by Rome in the first century B.C. combines well-known aspects of the Etruscan world with new discoveries and fresh insights into the role of women in Etruscan society. In addition, the Etruscans are contrasted to the Greeks whom they often emulated and to the Romans who at once admired and disdained them. The result is a compelling and complete picture.

of a people and a culture This in depth examination of Etruria examines how differing access to mineral wealth trade routes and agricultural land led to distinct regional variations Heavily illustrated with ancient Etruscan art and cultural objects the text is organized both chronologically and thematically interweaving archaeological evidence analysis of social structure descriptions of trade and burial customs and an examination of pottery and works of art A Companion to the Etruscans Sinclair Bell,Alexandra A. Carpino,2016-02-23 This new collection presents a rich selection of innovative scholarship on the Etruscans a vibrant independent people whose distinct civilization flourished in central Italy for most of the first millennium BCE and whose artistic social and cultural traditions helped shape the ancient Mediterranean European and Classical worlds Includes contributions from an international cast of both established and emerging scholars Offers fresh perspectives on Etruscan art and culture including analysis of the most up to date research and archaeological discoveries Reassesses and evaluates traditional topics like architecture wall painting ceramics and sculpture as well as new ones such as textile archaeology while also addressing themes that have yet to be thoroughly investigated in the scholarship such as the obesus etruscus the function and use of jewelry at different life stages Greek and Roman topoi about the Etruscans the Etruscans reception of ponderation and more Counters the claim that the Etruscans were culturally inferior to the Greeks and Romans by emphasizing fields where the Etruscans were either technological or artistic pioneers and by reframing similarities in style and iconography as examples of Etruscan agency and reception rather than as a deficit of local creativity
