BLUE BLOOD E. R. Ramdohr, 2024-12-27 On a large farm located in the Andean foothills in the mid south of Chile Conrado was born and raised as a child and later a young man whose physical and psychological characteristics differ greatly from the rest of his family and the school community He is Germanic in appearance blond blue eyed and very tall unlike the others whose features are those of Chileans and their Mapuche ancestors What in his early years was painful for him due to the bullying he was subjected to at school ends up transforming into an obsession to understand where his Nordic genes come from He discovers in an old trunk which had belonged to his great great grandmother Frederika who had arrived from Europe at the end of the 19th century the first clues about his origin Already fully involved in the knowledge of his family's past he forges a life plan which includes the university study of German and History in order to reach the very source of the strange secret which is revealed through letters and documents from his great grandfather Ladislao Eguiguren Montalva who had been a member of the Chilean elite in those distant times Little by little the hidden facets of the arrival of his great great grandmother to a place so far from her native country are discovered In his exhaustive investigation Conrado even goes so far as to travel to Europe to recognize the place of origin of his German family and chance takes him first to the Mediterranean coast where he meets the youth of the still existing rancid nobility and in the midst of them his Swiss Italian cousin who not only facilitates his family research but also gives him her support against his father the Duke of Starkenbach who flatly refuses to accept the upstart as a member of his ancestral family With her he arrives at the family's ancestral castle in the middle of the Swiss Alps where a past of almost pathological loves and a sordid family drama are revealed in which the young man is involved body and soul To make matters better the two young people end up falling in love and Conrad manages to free Elisabetta from her life full of excesses as part of that European aristocratic youth You'll find here a deeply evocative exploration of the ways in which personal and familial identities are shaped by history culture and memory Through its richly developed characters vivid settings and poignant themes the novel invites readers to reflect on the legacies we inherit and the choices we make in preserving or redefining them Ramdohr's work stands as a testament to the power of storytelling in bridging the past and the present offering a narrative that is as universal in its emotional resonance as it is uniquely grounded in its cultural context

The Essential Mystery Lists Roger M Sobin,2011-09-30 For the first time in one place Roger

M Sobin has compiled a list of nominees and award winners of virtually every mystery award ever presented. He has also included many of the best of lists by more than fifty of the most important contributors to the genre. Mr Sobin spent more than two decades gathering the data and lists in this volume; much of that time he used to recheck the accuracy of the material he had collected. Several of the best of lists appear here for the first time in book form. Several others have been unavailable for a number of years. Of special note are Anthony Boucher's Best Picks for the Year. Boucher, one of the major mystery reviewers of all time, reviewed for The San Francisco Chronicle, Ellery Queen Mystery Magazine, and The New York Times. From these resources, Mr Sobin created Boucher's Best and Important Lists to Consider, lists that provide insight into important writing in the field from 1942 through Boucher's death in 1968. This is a great resource for all mystery readers and collectors. Winner of the 2008 Macavity Awards for Best Mystery Nonfiction. Still On Herring Cove Road Michael Kroft, 2014-11-08. Continuing one week later, Dewey is moving and he couldn't be more excited though he's alone in his enthusiasm. Lisa, his mother, and recently retired Avriel, his next-door neighbor and best buddy, don't share in his excitement regarding the move to a dirty basement-level apartment in a lower-class area where two murders have recently occurred. New Edition, June 2019 Update. This edition includes the toning down of two somewhat shocking chapters, the addition of two small sections deleted before the novel's initial publication, and the use of American English. ABOUT THE SERIES Taking place in Halifax, Nova Scotia, the series follows the sometimes amusing, sometimes heartwarming, sometimes heartbreaking, and sometimes terrifying events that follow an introverted old Jewish man's retirement as he reluctantly befriends a naive and lonely boy, his struggling single mother, and lastly a boy streetwise beyond his years. I don't usually enjoy books in a series, but this was an exception. It was uplifting and interesting with some twists I didn't see coming. It wasn't all sweet and goody-two-shoes either. It had some dark and realistic moments and characters. Very well written.
