The American Humanities Index Stephen H. Goode, 2000 Ono Ono Girl's Hula Carolyn Lei-lanilau, 1997 Seventeen years after she married Judith Strasser escaped her emotionally and physically abusive husband and sought a better way to live In the process Strasser rediscovered what she had suppressed through that long span of time exceptional strength and a passion for writing Black Eye includes excerpts from a journal Strasser kept from 1985 to 1986 the year she made the decision to leave her marriage and present day commentary on the journal passages and her family history Strasser works like a detective investigating her own life drawing clarity and power from journal passages dreams and memories that originally emerged from confusion and despair With language that is both insightful and poetic she reveals the psychological and social circumstances that led a strong woman an intelligent and politically active feminist to become an emotionally dependent abused wife Not coincidentally the same year that Strasser finally found the courage to leave her husband she also reclaimed her creative voice Newly empowered and energized by this enormous life change Strasser began writing again after twenty five silent years dominated by her mother's illness and death her own cancer and her painful fearful marriage Black Eye is one of the fruits of this creative reawakening Strasser's writing is refreshingly honest and instantly engrossing Not shy of wretchedness or beauty Strasser's story is bitterly personal ultimately triumphant and inspiring to all who deal with the adversity that is part of human life International Who's Who in Poetry 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets Precarious Al Riske, 2010-10-15 The stories in Precarious are about doing the right thing and regretting it About making bets and dancing naked They play out in rain soaked Seattle and drought stricken California In the front seat of Mom's Malibu and a vacation cabin on Cape Cod On a tiny island and in a desert filled with light and heat and sand that slips through your fingers like friendships you once had In these fifteen stories you will meet a boy trying to make it through that summer between the end of high school and the beginning of something else A woman attracted to a man with muscles because it makes her feel safe until it doesn't A man who can only imagine what it's like to sleep with many different women but that's OK he has a good imagination In prose that is by turns spare and lyrical the stories of Precarious capture the feeling of late summer A never ending game of Kick the Can All sense of time lost among the stars Federal Register, 2013-06 Final Environmental Impact Statement for the Proposed Timber Sales, Roads, Prescribed Burns and Aspen Treatments Near Willow Mountain United States.
