Troubetzkoy, 2016-03 Memoirs for the most part are tedious writes start in a Mining Career Prince Adam Razumoff dreary stuff on the whole The author avoids this trap by writing his memoir as a novel tracing his life through stops in London Paris Constantinople Moscow Washington and Montreal As he does he describes his encounters with the famous the important and the influential and with those who hold his heart and his hatred A fast moving compelling story it is more than a record of one man s life it is an authentic history centered around the War of 1812 the unknown war or forgotten war between United States and Canada It pivots around deaths of innocents of loves gone wrong of revenge and ultimately of searches for redemption In his introduction Alexis Troubetzkoy describes the serendipity by which Razumoff s manuscript came into his hands together with a trove of supporting documentation Prince Troubetzkoy is an internationally published author who has written on the mysterious disappearance of Tsar Alexander I a brief history of the Crimean War
