Warne, 2011-11-01 Women played a vital role in the shaping of the West in Canada between the 1880s and 1940s Yet surprisingly little is known about their contributions or the differences sex and gender made to the opportunities and obstacles women encountered Telling Tales contributes to the rewriting of western Canada s past by integrating women into the shifting power matrix of class race and gender that undergirded its colonization and settlement This book cover a range of topics African American settlement on Vancouver Island prairie childbirth narratives and Mennonites as domestic servants are but three examples They focus on women of both minority and dominant cultures and reflect the West s characteristically mixed population Telling Tales challenges founding myths of the region and invites a retelling of the story of western Canadian colonization and settlement Memoir of the Last Illness and Death of the Late William Tharp Buchanan, Esq. of Ilfracombe William Shepherd, 2024-09-24 Reprint of the original first published in 1837 Memoir of the life and death of Miss Rebecca Lomas, who departed this life ... Eugenics Record Office, 1912 Protestant Relics in Early America Jamie L. Brummitt, 2025-02-18 In this book Jamie L Brummitt upends long held assumptions about religion and material culture in the early United States by recovering the forgotten history and presence of Protestant relics This book will be an essential resource for scholars and students of early American history religion politics art and popular culture The Memoir and the Memoirist Thomas Larson, 2007 The memoir is the most popular and expressive literary form of our time Writers embrace the memoir and readers devour it propelling many memoirs by relative unknowns to the top of the best seller list Writing programs challenge authors to disclose themselves in personal narrative Memoir and personal narrative urge writers to face the intimacies of the self and ask what is true In The Memoir and the Memoirist critic and memoirist Thomas Larson explores the craft and purpose of writing this new form Larson guides the reader from the autobiography and the personal essay to the memoir a genre focused on a particularly emotional relationship in the author's past an intimate story concerned more with who is remembering and why than with what is remembered The Memoir and the Memoirist touches on the nuances of memory of finding and telling the truth and of disclosing one's deepest self It explores the craft and purpose of personal narrative by looking in detail at more than a dozen examples by writers such as Mary Karr Frank McCourt Dave Eggers Elizabeth Wurtzel Mark Doty Nuala O Faolain Rick Bragg and Joseph Lelyveld to show what they reveal about themselves Larson also opens up his own writing and that of his students to demonstrate the hidden mechanics of the writing process For both the interested reader of memoir and the writer wrestling with the craft The Memoir and the Memoirist provides guidance and insight into the many facets of this provocative and popular art form The Works of John Donne ... With a Memoir of His Life. By [i.e. Edited By] Henry Alford John Donne, 1839 Life Death Memories Thomas T. Hecht, I had an uneventful childhood My family loved me The author's direct personal voice gives this Holocaust memoir its power Although the writing is direct almost monosyllabic at times the book is not intended for young readers It conveys a brutality that is sudden and close just as it was for the boy when he heard that his beloved older brother and his father had been shot to death and thrown into a common grave This is the story of a young boy who came of age before World War II in a small Polish Jewish Ukrainian town Nearly his entire family met their end by gas or by bullet He survived only by the barest of luck Among the most moving pages in the book are those the author devotes to the Ukrainian and Polish men and women who found the courage in the face of savage anti-Semitism raging about them to come to the aid of the Jewish victims thus risking death both at the hands of their neighbors and the German masters alike The Monthly Magazine, 1801 Faithful unto death: a memoir of W.G. Rhind [by J.B.I.] J. B. I., 1863 Living in Death's Shadow Emily K. Abel, 2017-02-28 Challenging assumptions about caregiving for those dying of chronic illness What is it like to live with and love someone whose death while delayed is nevertheless foretold In Living in Death's Shadow Emily K Abel an expert on the history of death and dying examines memoirs written between 1965 and 2014 by family members of people who died from chronic disease In earlier eras death generally occurred quickly from acute illnesses but as chronic disease became the major cause of mortality many people continued to live with terminal diagnoses for months and even years Illuminating the excruciatingly painful experience of coping with a family member's extended fatal illness Abel analyzes the political, personal, cultural, and medical dimensions of these struggles. The book focuses on three significant developments that transformed the experiences of those dying and their intimates: the passage of Medicare and Medicaid, the growing use of high-tech treatments at the end of life, and the rise of a movement to humanize the care of dying people. It questions the exalted value placed on acceptance of mortality as well as the notion that it is always better to die at home than in an institution. Ultimately, Living in Death's Shadow emphasizes the need to shift attention from the drama of death to the entire course of a serious chronic disease. The chapters follow a common narrative of life-threatening disease, learning the diagnosis, deciding whether to enroll in a clinical trial, acknowledging or struggling against the limits of medicine, receiving care at home and in a hospital or nursing home, and obtaining palliative and hospice care. Living in Death's Shadow is essential reading for everyone seeking to understand what it means to live with someone suffering from a chronic fatal condition, including cancer, AIDS, Alzheimer's, and heart disease.
