Giorgio Bertellini

Deathultimate Horror:

The Ticklish Subject Slavoj Žižek, 2000 With his characteristic wit Žižek addresses the burning question of how to reformulate a leftist project in an era of global capitalism and liberal democratic multiculturalism Copyright Libri GmbH All rights reserved

The Cinema of Italy Giorgio Bertellini, 2004 Giorgio Bertellini examines the historical and aesthetic connections of some of Italy's most important films with both Italian and Western film culture

Death in Life Robert Jay Lifton, 2012-01-01 In Japan hibakusha means the people affected by the explosion specifically the explosion of the atomic bomb in Hiroshima in 1945 In this classic study winner of the 1969 National Book Award in Science Lifton studies the psychological effects of the bomb on 90 000 survivors He sees this analysis as providing a last chance to understand and be motivated to avoid nuclear war This compassionate treatment is a significant contribution to the atomic age

The Sight of Death T. J. Clark, Timothy J. Clark, 2006-01-01 Why do we keep returning to certain pictures What is it we are looking for How does our understanding of an image change over time This investigates the nature of visual complexity the capacity of certain images to sustain repeated attention and how pictures respond and resist their viewers wishes

Tales for the Dying E. H. Rick Jarow, 2012-02-01 Tales for the Dying explores the centrality of death and dying in the narrative of the Bhagavata Purana India's great text of devotional theism canonized as an integral part of the Vaisnava bhakti tradition The text grapples with death through an imaginative meditation one that works through the presence and power of narrative The story of the Bhagavata Purana is spoken to a king who is about to die and it enables him to come to terms with his own passing The work does not isolate dying as an issue it treats it on many levels This book discusses how images of dying in the Bhagavata Purana relate to issues of language and love in the religious imagination of India Drawing on insights from studies in myth literary semiotics and depth psychology as well as from Indian commentarial and aesthetic traditions the author examines the power of myth and narrative storytelling or hari katha and shows how a detailed awareness of the Puranic imagination may lead to a revisioning of some long held presuppositions around Indian religious attitudes toward dying By casting Vaisnava bhakti traditions and Puranic narrative in a fresh light the mythic imagination of the Puranas takes its place on the stage of contemporary discourse on comparative mythology and literature

The Ticklish Subject Slavoj Žižek, 2009-01-05 Slavoj Žižek the maverick philosopher author of over 30 books acclaimed as the Elvis of cultural theory and today's most controversial public intellectual His work traverses the fields of philosophy psychoanalysis theology history and political theory taking in film popular culture literature and jokes all to provide acute analyses of the complexities of contemporary ideology as well as a serious and sophisticated philosophy His recent films The Pervert's Guide to the Cinema and Žižek reveal a theorist at the peak of his powers and a skilled communicator Now Verso is making his classic titles each of which stand as a core of his ever expanding life's work available as new editions Each is beautifully re-packaged including new introductions from Žižek himself Simply put they are the essential texts for understanding Žižek's thought and thus cornerstones of contemporary philosophy The Ticklish Subject The Absent Centre of Political Ontology A specter is haunting Western thought the specter of the Cartesian subject In this book Slavoj Žižek unearths a subversive core to this elusive specter and finds within it the indispensable philosophical point of reference for any genuinely emancipatory project

Unhomely Wests Stephen Tatum, death and identity robert fulton, 1966 The Little Book of Big Frontiers John E. Worgul, 2012-09-06 Most Christians are unaware that there is such a thing as a biblical cosmology That is we do not have a clear idea of the whole of creation both visible and invisible its parts and realms and how they fit together We live by bits and pieces of conflicting notions supplied by the Bible and the secular world and there is little comprehension of the overall design of reality and the all embracing vision of creation that the Bible provides and the Church has taught for centuries The matter seems too complex for the typical contemporary Christian and so the matter is dropped as irrelevant The consequences are deadly ignorance breeds arrogance indifference and finally spiritual death The Little Book of Big Frontiers intends to make the complex issue of cosmology understandable Vivid and ordinary stories and images are used to illustrate extremely difficult concepts that will open up new frontiers for the reader Readers will come away with a whole new understanding of the cosmos and how it works integrating the interior realities of the soul with the world around them rediscovering realms that were once known to the early Christians but alas are now lost within the secularization of our culture Life, Death, and Consciousness in the Long Nineteenth Century Lucy Cogan, Michelle O'Connell, 2022-11-07

This book explores how the writers poets thinkers historians scientists dilettantes and frauds of the long nineteenth century addressed the limit cases regarding human existence that medicine continuously uncovered as it stretched the boundaries of knowledge These cases cast troubling and distorted shadows on the culture throwing into relief the values vested interests and power relations regarding the construction of embodied life and consciousness that underpinned the understanding of what it was to be alive in the long nineteenth century Ranging over a period from the mid eighteenth century through to the first decade of the twentieth century an era that has been called the Age of Science the essays collected here consider the cultural ripple effects of those previously unimaginable revolutions in science and medicine on humanity's understanding of being

The Legend of Devil's Creek D.C. Alexander, 2012-12-07 Caution Story contains strong profanity and graphic violence When a mutilated corpse is found bound to a tree deep in the forest of remote Aubrey Island Washington residents learn that the murder mirrors in every ritualistic detail a series of revenge killings described in a century old local ghost story More abductions and killings soon follow Justin Riddley recently transferred to the island's small college faces growing evidence that one of his new friends and fellow students may be the murderer John Marshall redemption seeking captain of the local police force leads the frantic murder investigation and struggles to figure out whether the killings are tied to the island's dark and violent past Tormented by tragic wartime memories and more convinced with each day that it is humanity's fate to destroy itself Marshall races against both the murderer and the specter of his own mental breakdown As blood continues to spill Riddley and Marshall wonder whether there may be a dark universal force that drives evil deeds great and small and whether the nature of one's childhood might sometimes in the end be all that separates the saint from the psychopath

Down from the Attic John T. Soister, Henry Nicolella, 2016-06-23 Much has been written and rewritten about classic horror and science fiction films like Nosferatu and Metropolis as well as not so classic pictures like Bride of the Monster and The Hideous Sun Demon. Yet some genre films have fallen through the cracks. The 24 films, some elusive, some easily found on YouTube, examined in this book all suffered critical neglect and were prematurely stacked in the attic. The authors bring them back into the light, beginning with Der Tunnel 1915 about the building of a transatlantic tunnel and ending with The Emperor's Baker, The Baker's Emperor 1951, a bizarre Marxist take on the Golem legend. A variety of thrillers are covered: Fog 1933, Return of the Terror 1934, Forgotten Faces 1928, along with such sci-fi leaps into the future as The Sky Ranger 1921, High Treason 1929, and Just Imagine 1930. Early adaptations include The Man Who Laughs 1921, The Monkey's Paw 1923, Hound of the Baskervilles 1937, and Sweeney Todd 1928. Rare stills and background material are included in a discussion of Hispanic vintage horror. The career of exploitation auteur Bud Pollard, The Horror 1933, is examined.

Frames of Referents Jill Robbins, 1997 This book examines the work of Guillermo Carnero, one of Spain's most important contemporary poets, in the context of the critical theories developed in the West after World War II that inform all of Carnero's writing. Previous critical studies have tried to link Carnero's poetry to that of other novisimo poets within the narrow confines of Spanish poetics and literary history. This study seeks to move beyond the limiting perspective of the Spanish generational paradigm.

More Than A Pretty Face Joel Oesch, 2017-07-18 The online social network phenomenon has forever changed the way we think about ourselves in relation to our neighbors. But do these massively popular networks actually build community? More Than a Pretty Face invites us to consider the present and future challenges of the Digital Age and offers resources from Lutheran theology, notably from Dietrich Bonhoeffer, that call into question many of the assumptions that support a disembodied understanding of community. What remains is a genuine call for a vibrant theology of embodiment. By recognizing the distinctive features of physical communities, Christians can discern which digital social technologies embrace a view of humanity that necessarily includes the body. There is no need for either the polar extremes of neo-Luddism or the uncritical embrace of all things digital. Rather, Christians are called to respond to needs of the community with empathy, intimacy, and physicality.

The Evolutionary Imagination in Late-Victorian Novels John Glendening, 2016-03-16 Dominated by Darwinism and the numerous guises it assumed, evolutionary theory was a source of opportunities and difficulties for late Victorian novelists. Texts produced by Wells, Hardy, Stoker, and Conrad are exemplary in reflecting and participating in these challenges. Not only do they contend with evolutionary complications, John Glendening argues, but the complexities and entanglements of evolutionary theory interacting with multiple cultural influences thoroughly permeate the narrative.

descriptive and thematic fabric of each All the books Glendening examines from The Island of Doctor Moreau and Dracula to Heart of Darkness address the interrelationship between order and chaos revealed and promoted by evolutionary thinking of the period Glendening's particular focus is on how Darwinism informs novels in relation to a late Victorian culture that encouraged authors to stress not objective truths illuminated by Darwinism but rather the contingencies uncertainties and confusions generated by it and other forms of evolutionary theory

Mystic Rhythms, 2000-12 Is healing legitimate and viable in today's plastic consumer oriented psycho sexual world If so why is it not more prevalent This book examines healing and prayer Two concepts of spiritual and mystical thrust that go hand in hand Prayer is connecting to God admitting weakness and helplessness Healing is a taste of the future right now Something wonderful is going to happen Physical spiritual mental and emotional healing

The Cyborg Subject Garfield Benjamin, 2016-06-25 This book outlines a new conception of the cyborg in terms of consciousness as the parallax gap between physical and digital worlds The contemporary subject constructs its own internal reality in the interplay of the Virtual and the Real Reinterpreting the work of Slavoj Žižek and Gilles Deleuze in terms of the psychological and ontological construction of the digital alongside the philosophy of quantum physics this book offers a challenge to materialist perspectives in the fluid cyberspace that is ever permeating our lives The inclusion of the subject in its own epistemological framework establishes a model for an engaged spectatorship of reality Through the analysis of online media digital art avatars computer games and science fiction a new model of cyborg culture reveals the opportunities for critical and creative interventions in the contemporary subjective experience promoting an awareness of the parallax position we all occupy between physical and digital worlds

Liquid Fear Zygmunt Bauman, 2013-05-08 Modernity was supposed to be the period in human history when the fears that pervaded social life in the past could be left behind and human beings could at last take control of their lives and tame the uncontrolled forces of the social and natural worlds And yet at the dawn of the twenty first century we live again in a time of fear Whether it's the fear of natural disasters the fear of environmental catastrophes or the fear of indiscriminate terrorist attacks we live today in a state of constant anxiety about the dangers that could strike unannounced and at any moment Fear is the name we give to our uncertainty in the face of the dangers that characterize our liquid modern age to our ignorance of what the threat is and our incapacity to determine what can and can't be done to counter it This new book by Zygmunt Bauman one of the foremost social thinkers of our time is an inventory of liquid modern fears It is also an attempt to uncover their common sources to analyse the obstacles that pile up on the road to their discovery and to examine the ways of putting them out of action or rendering them harmless Through his brilliant account of the fears and anxieties that weigh on us today Bauman alerts us to the scale of the task which we shall have to confront through most of the current century if we wish our fellow humans to emerge at its end feeling more secure and self confident than we feel at its beginning

The Sin Nature Jimmy Swaggart, 2018 The fall of man resulted in Adam and Eve losing all consciousness of God They woke up to self and found themselves imprisoned by a completely new nature the sin nature which would poison the entire human race for all time From then until now the troubles of the world wars man s inhumanity to man his dependency on cruel vices and the habits of hell are all caused by the sin nature which rules every person Of course the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ broke the hold of this deadly yoke and repositioned the believer in Christ So why do Christians struggle so hard to live for God In this revelatory book Evangelist Jimmy Swaggart explains how the sin nature which remains in Christians can be reactivated and how victory over the world the flesh and the Devil can only be maintained through faith in the Cross of Christ The Division of Consciousness Peter Novak,1997-05-01 Drawing on mythology psychology religion and science as well as past life regression and near death experiences Peter Novak explores the nuances of what really happens to the soul after death Eastern and Western philosophies have disagreed on this point for centuries After ten years of intensive investigation his conclusions are a ground breaking blend of east and west explaining how this division may have arisen and how it is likely to be resolved
