French Decadence in a Global Context Julia Hartley,Wanrug Suwanwattana,Jennifer Yee,2022-07-12 Decadence is seldom looked at in the context of colonialism and yet its heyday in the 1880s and 1890s is directly contemporary with the expansion of France s modern colonial empire Ever a slippery signifier Decadence figures alternately as pro colonial anticolonial and apolitical This edited volume gives a sense of the sheer range and diversity of intersections between colonialism and Decadence from anticolonial anarchist writers to colonial discourse from nineteenth century women writers to our contemporary Michel Houellebecq Different chapters explore these intersections in the cultural imagination of dance the novel travel writing historiographical theory and literary networks Decadence is often seen as an essentially metropolitan urban movement but this study identifies key spaces elsewhere from fin de si cle Saigon to India in the heyday of French colonialism from Byzantium to ancient Persia Although the colonies were held up by some as an antidote to the threat of French decline other writings reveal anxiety that the antidote might itself be a form of poison Colonial contact might exacerbate degeneration whether through cultural mixing or through the violence of colonial aggression itself A profound anxiety about French identity and France s so called mission civilisatrice is played out through the imagery the style and the pose of Decadence

The Oxford Handbook of Decadence Jane Desmarais,David Weir,2022 The Oxford Handbook of Decadence provides the most thorough examination of decadence to date by exploring the ramifications of this culture in different times and places from ancient Rome to contemporary America Thirty five wide ranging chapters address decadence not only in literature but also in film fashion architecture and more as well as in such fields as theology science psychoanalysis philosophy and politics

Greek Notions of the Past in the Archaic and Classical Eras John Marincola,2012-07-23 This volume in The Edinburgh Leventis Studies series collects the papers presented at the sixth A G Leventis conference organised under the auspices of the Department of Classics at the University of Edinburgh As with earlier volumes it engages with new research and new approaches to the Greek past and brings the fruits of that research to a wider audience Although Greek historians were fundamental in the enterprise of preserving the memory of great deeds in antiquity they were not alone in their interest in the past The Greeks themselves quite apart from their historians and in a variety of non historiographical media were constantly creating pasts for themselves that answered to the needs political social moral and even religious of their society In this volume eighteen scholars discuss the variety of ways in which the Greeks constructed de constructed engaged with alluded to and relied on their pasts whether it was in the poetry of Homer in the victory odes of Pindar in tragedy and comedy on the Athenian stage in their pictorial art in their political assemblies or in their religious practices What emerges is a comprehensive overview of the importance of and presence of the past at every level of Greek society In the final chapter the three discussants present at the conference Simon Goldhill Christopher Pelling and Suzanne Said survey the contributions to the volume summarise its overall contributions as well as indicate new directions that further scholarship might follow
