Decentralization Of Education Demand Side Financing:

Decentralization of Education Harry Anthony Patrinos, David Lakshmanan Ariasingam, 1997-01-01 Central governments supply side expansions of schooling have not equally benefited all members of society especially girls indigenous peoples tribal groups disadvantaged minorities and the poor Public spending on education is often inefficient higher education is subsidized at primary education's expense and costs are becoming insupportable To tackle such issues some governments are exploring demand side financing whereby public funds are given directly to individuals or institutions on the basis of expressed demand Use of decentralized demand side financing mechanisms like vouchers and stipends is common in member countries of the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development After defining several mechanisms this booklet provides some country examples aiming to increase school enrollment stipends in Bangladesh community financing in Chad targeted bursaries in China and Mexico voucher schemes in Colombia assistance to private schools serving poor children in the Dominican Republic and Pakistan student loans in Jamaica and community grants in Pakistan Program success depends on beneficiaries involvement and support parents active participation private sector schools involvement partnerships with commercial enterprises flexibility capacity building cultural relevance equity principles and transparent fund transfer formulas Contains 47 references MLH Education Strategy in the Developing World Christopher S. Collins, Alexander W. Wiseman, 2012-03-06 Following the development of a Concept Note for the World Bank Education Strategy 2020 the World Bank engaged in a series of activities to garner feedback about the strategy In early 2011 a revised strategy was published Learning for All Investing in People's Knowledge and Skills to Promote Development This title deals with this topic World Bank Financing of Education Phillip W. Jones, 2007-02-12 Based on detailed analysis of thousands of confidential World Bank documents this book demonstrates that the World Bank lies at the centre of the major changes in global education of our time It outlines the evolution of World Bank lending policies in education and assesses the policy impact of the Bank's educational projects looking at how it has shaped the economic and social policies of many governments including policies that affect education been an influential proponent of the rapid expansion of formal education systems around the world financing much of that expansion been instrumental in forging those policies that see education as a precursor to modernisation served as a major purveyor of Western ideas about how education and the economy are or should be related Following on from the success of the first edition this revised edition covers topical issues of globalisation and looks into the political debate concerning aid to developing countries It will be of enormous value to those studying or working in educational policy in developing countries international organisations and financial institutions and aid agencies School Decentralization in the Context of Globalizing Governance Holger Daun, 2006-11-23 Since the beginning of the 1980s decentralization has become a globalized policy and catchword in education a large number of countries around the world have formulated such a policy and many have also implemented it The policies and the changes at the national level have been researched but what has taken place and is taking place at the grassroots level has not received attention until recently This book presents grassroots cases from different countries against the background of the overall changes in governance philosophy and applications It uses case studies from countries in Africa Asia Europe and Latin America and describes what is occurring at this level The book gives an account of different types of decentralization and their impact The first two chapters describe principally structural and organizational educational changes in the broader context of globalized models and the pressure to create a competitive education system and changing governance Decentralization is one of the strategic aspects of this new mode of governance International Handbook on the Economics of Education Geraint Johnes,Jill Johnes,2007-01-01 is a voluminous and timely collection of 18 essays that addresses a number of core issues on the economics of education An exhaustive survey of the literature on the role of universities as multi product firms at various levels and disciplines identifies the nature of the economies of scope and scale This enriches the volume further Economic Analysis Policy the endeavour of bringing together very knowledgeable contributors including some of the leading contributors to the literature in the UK and beyond to write a handbook on the economics of education is highly appreciated The Handbook contains 18 substantive chapters encapsulated by a brief introduction and an extensive and a very useful index the Handbook should be praised as a useful overview of the field of economics of education as it stands today Ludger W mann Economic Issues This major Handbook comprehensively surveys the rapidly growing field of the economics of education It is unique in that it comprises original contributions on an exceptional range of topics from a review of human capital signalling and screening models to consideration of issues such as educational externalities and economic growth funding models determinants of educational success the educational production function educational standards and efficiency measurement Labour market issues such as the market for teachers and the transition of students from school to work are also explored The International Handbook on the Economics of Education will be warmly welcomed by academic economists educational researchers and practitioners in educational management as well as policymakers Comprising specially commissioned articles the Handbook will become indispensable reference for this ever topical field of study Decentralization and Development Partnership Fumihiko Saito,2012-12-06 Decentralization an essential pillar of institutional reform is of critical importance in developing countries particularly in regard to democratization effective development and good governance Uganda since 1986 and the start of decentralization measures under Yoweri Museveni and the National Resistance Movement has represented one of the most serious commitments in Sub Saharan Africa With the benefit of extensive fieldwork Fumihiko Saito demonstrates how conflict resolution information dissemination and encouragement of the many and varied stakeholders to form partnerships are critical to successfully bringing services closer to the people Decentralization and Development Partnerships Lessons from Uganda goes beyond theory to compare academic assumptions to the reality of decentralization implementation in modern

Uganda Although the process is by no means free of difficulties Saito concludes that a win win outcome is a real possibility

Decentralisation, School-Based Management, and Quality Joseph Zajda, David T. Gamage, 2009-08-21 This book which is the eighth volume in the 12 volume book series Globalisation Comparative Education and Policy Research presents scholarly research on major discourses in decentralisation school based management SBM and quality in education globally This book which focuses on decentralisation and SBM as a governance strategy in education presents theoretical aspects of the phenomenon of decentralisation privatisation and contextualises them within the education research literature It provides an easily accessible practical yet scholarly source of information concerning the dynamics of decentralisation and SBM that normally take place when reforms are instituted to decentralize authority and power Above all the authors offering the latest findings regarding major discourses in decentralisation SBM and quality in educational systems in the global culture emphasise aspects of that dynamic interactive process see also Geo JaJa 2006a Gamage and Sooksomchitra 2006 Zajda 2009 This dynamic interaction in the process that is implicit in the title of the book is reified by calls for restructuring of schools following the idea that schools are not promoting human rights social cohesion and sustainable development The chapters as a source book of ideas for researchers practitioners and policy makers in decentralisation and SBM in education contribute to the educational literature while enhancing the understanding of the larger dynamics involved in educational reform It offers a timely overview of current issues affecting decentralisation in education in the global culture Managing Fiscal

Decentralization Ehtisham Ahmad, Vito Tanzi, 2002-07-18 The growth of interest in fiscal decentralization has meant that there has been something of a rush to enshrine this in policy The World Bank has reported that about seventy countries see this as a major part of their development strategy This book critically examines the case for decentralization This collection of contributions comes from a w Are Financial Sector Weaknesses Undermining the East Asian Miracle? Claessens, Thomas C. Glaessner, 1997 IFC Technical Paper No 3 Inflation plagues many of the developing countries in which the International Finance Corporation IFC operates To date however little is known about the impact of inflation on the financial statements of firms in developing countries The authors of this study have developed a simple algorithm based on the method of inflation accounting used in Brazil and have applied it to the accounts of listed companies in Turkey for the period 1982-90 The paper documents an inflation induced bias in financial statements and introduces a methodology for adjusting corporate financial statements for inflation effects Resources in Education, 1999-04 World Education

Indicators 2002 Financing Education - Investments and Returns OECD, UNESCO Institute for Statistics, 2003-02-05 This volume is the third in a series of publications that seeks to analyse the education indicators developed through the OECD UNESCO World Education Indicators WEI programme The volume examines both the investments and returns to education and human capital The Future of African Cities Catherine Farvacque-Vitkovi?, 1998-01-01 The growth of Africa's cities has outstripped local capacities of management absorption and financing Yet cities do not have to be a drain on the national economy on the contrary they can add new dynamism to the process of economic growth This book addresses two basic questions What have we learned Where are we going It takes stock of two decades of experience in urban development proposes a common sense priority agenda for the urban sector in the region and suggests some operational tools to carry it out Adapt du r sum de l auteur Rethinking World Bank Influence D. Brent Edwards Jr.,2023-04-13 Why is it so hard for international development organizations even ones as well resourced and influential as the World Bank to generate and sustain change in the way things are done in those countries where they work Despite what in many cases is decades of investment and effort why do partner governments continue to engage in those traditional patterns and styles of public service management that international development organizations have sought to supplant with methods that are supposedly more accountable efficient and effective This book provides an answer to these questions However rather than pathologizing partner governments as the source of the problem that is rather than maintaining the distinction between doctor international development organizations and patient partner governments wherein the patient is seen as unwilling to take their medicine enacting good governance practices this book instead reframes the relationship The central argument is first that the programs and projects of international organizations are introduced into and are constrained by multiple layers of ritual governance that is performative acts and cultural logics that intersect with and reinforce the political economic and social structures in and through which they operate As is shown the contextual factors that guide governance practices are largely beyond the reach of the international development organizations the relevant logics have their roots in state ideology but also extend back to the colonial logics that continue to operate at the heart of the state apparatus The second the central argument is that international aid organizations and the governments with which they work are engaged in a ritual aid dance where each actor plays a part but does not and cannot acknowledge the ways that it depends on the other for its own gain This relationship can be considered a dance because each participant responds to and needs the other and because both sides do so in ways that are carefully choreographed with the overall trajectory or contours of the dance being more or less known to the participants These arguments are based on research on the World Bank s efforts over the course of several decades to encourage through its financing projects and technical assistance the implementation of social sector reform in Indonesia related to decentralization community participation and school based management Rural Development Strategies for Poverty Reduction and Environmental Protection in Sub-Saharan Africa Kevin M. Cleaver,1997-01-01 Content Description Includes bibliographical references p Expanding Opportunities and Building Competencies for Young People ,2005-01-01 Annotation The report articulates the key issues facing secondary education and presents a policy framework for decision makers in developing countries to transform their secondary education systems so as to meet the twin challenges of expanding access and improving quality and relevance International Handbook on Globalisation, Education and Policy Research Joseph Zajda,2005-12-05 The aim of this Handbook is to present a global overview of developments in education and policy change during the last decade It has the objective of providing both a strategic education policy statement on recent shifts in education and policy research globally and offers new approaches to further exploration development and improvement of education and policy making The Handbook attempts to address some of the above issues and problems confronting educators and policy makers globally Different articles seek to conceptualize the on going problems of education policy formulation and implementation and provide a useful synthesis of the education policy research conducted in different countries and practical implications The Handbook by focusing on such issues as the OECD 2001 model of the knowledge society and associated strategic challenge and deliverable goals OECD 2001 139 UNESCO driven lifelong learning paradigm and its relevance to education policy makers globally different models of policy planning and equity questions that are raised by centralization decentralization diversity uniformity and curriculum standardization issues the crises of educational quality the debate of standards and excellence and good and effective teaching will contribute to a better and more holistic understanding of the education policy and research nexus offering possible strategies for the effective and pragmatic policy planning and implementation at the local regional and national levels

Education and Reform in China Emily Hannum, Albert Park, 2012-11-12 Transformative market reforms in China since the late 1970s have improved living standards dramatically but have also led to unprecedented economic inequality During this period China's educational system was restructured to support economic development with educational reforms occurring at a startling pace Today the educational system has diversified in structure finance and content it has become more market oriented and it is serving an increasingly diverse student population These changes carry significant consequences for China's social mobility and inequality and future economic prospects In Education and Reform in China leading scholars in the fields of education sociology demography and economics investigate the evolution of educational access and attainment educational quality and the economic consequences of being educated Education and Reform in China shows that economic advancement is increasingly tied to education in China even as educational services are increasingly marketized The volume investigates the varying impact of change for different social ethnic economic and geographic groups Offering interdisciplinary views on the changing role of education in Chinese society and on China's educational achievements and policy challenges this book will be an important resource for those interested in education public policy and development issues in China

Indigenous Peoples, Poverty, and Development Gillette H. Hall, Gillette Hall, Harry Anthony Patrinos, 2012-04-30 This is the first book that documents poverty systematically for the world's indigenous peoples in developing regions in Asia Africa and Latin America The volume compiles results for roughly 85 percent of the world's indigenous peoples It draws on nationally representative data to compare trends in countries poverty rates and other social indicators with those for indigenous sub populations and provides comparable data for a wide range of countries all over the world It estimates global poverty numbers and analyzes other important development indicators such as schooling health and social protection Provocatively the results show a marked difference in results across regions with rapid poverty reduction among indigenous and non indigenous populations in Asia contrasting with relative stagnation and in some cases falling back in Latin America and Africa Two main factors motivate the book First there is a growing concern among poverty analysts worldwide that countries with significant vulnerable populations such as indigenous peoples may not meet the Millennium Development Goals and thus there exists a consequent need for better data tracking conditions among these groups Second there is a growing call by indigenous organizations including the United Nations Permanent Forum on Indigenous Peoples for solid disaggregated data analyzing the size and causes of the development gap

The Private Sector in Development
Michael U. Klein, Bita Hadjimichael, 2003-01-01 The publication explores the role of the private sector in economic development and the challenges involved in the design of public policies which promote an appropriate balance between competition and regulation Chapters discuss the following topics the private sector and poverty reduction the investment climate public intervention to promote supply response private participation and markets for basic services pro poor policy design sustainability and reform aspects

Analyzing the Distributional Impact of Reforms: A practitioner's guide to trade, monetary and exchange rate policy, utility provision, agricultural markets, land policy, and education World Bank, 2005 This publication is a practitioner's guide for analyzing the distributional impact of reforms to trade monetary and exchange rate policy utility provision agricultural markets land policy and education These six areas of policy reform are the ones most likely to have an impact on distribution and poverty Such analysis helps in policy formulation and development and for implementing poverty reduction strategies in developing countries Each chapter in this volume provides an overview and guidance on the specific issues arising in the analysis of the distributional impacts of policy and institutional reforms in selected sectors
