Donnelly, 2013-03 It is a bit confusing and uncomfortable to be born a Roman Catholic Each of us certainly has a body of received dogma and moral teachings but received wisdom is quite another thing Wisdom comes from living Moral demands and dogmatics without reference to the individual mind and considered behavior is at best empty and at worst a kind of cultural fascism Most of us who worship regularly and identify ourselves with a particular religion are not theologians any more than we are constitutional scholars or very complete historians of our own countries At the same time we share a set of problems and goals How do you make practical sense out of faith and useful meaning out of Church teaching We are as much creators of our faith and morality as we are consumers of church dogmas and morals The goal of faith is hope tranquility and meaning To this end stories need be told Shared stories is one definition of family and community The People of God can only be persons of faith who share their stories Coping Catholic is shared stories and meditations on the Creed Commandments and Sacraments of a baptized Roman Catholic It initiates a dialogue within the Christian Community It shares the life experiences of a church going college educated Roman Catholic and reports what he believes It proceeds dogma by dogma in the Creed commandment by commandment sacrament by sacrament and life experience by life experience His story reports the what and explains the why The author s intent in sharing his story is that some readers will find a foothold of hope in the story of how another person who shares much of their experiences and education has learned to cope with the faith and doctrine many of us were born to Reframing Catholic Theological Ethics Joseph A. Selling, 2016 Traditionally Catholic moral theology has been based upon an approach that over emphasized the role of normative ethics and subsequently associated moral responsibility with following or disobeying moral rules Reframing Catholic Theological Ethics offers an alternative ethical method which without destroying any of the valuable insights of normative ethics reorients the discipline to consider human motivation and intention before investigating behavioral options for realizing one's end Evidence from the New Testament warrants the formation of a teleological method for theological ethics which is further elaborated in the approach taken by Thomas Aquinas Unfortunately the insights of the latter were misinterpreted at the time of the counter reformation Joseph A Selling's analysis of moral theological textbooks demonstrates the entrenchment of a normative method aimed at identifying sins in service to the practice of sacramental confession With a firm basis in the teaching of Vatican II the human person integrally and adequately considered provides the fundamental criterion for approaching ethical issues in the contemporary world The perspective then turns to the crucial question of describing the ends or goals of ethical living by providing a fresh approach to the concept of virtue Selling concludes with suggestions about how to combine normative ethics with this alternative method in theological ethics that begins with the actual ethical orientation of the human person toward virtuous living

Keenan, 2010-01-17 This is an historical survey of 20th Century Roman Catholic Theological Ethics also known as moral theology The thesis is that only through historical investigation can we really understand how the most conservative and negative field in Catholic theology at the beginning of the 20th could become by the end of the 20th century the most innovative one The 20th century begins with moral manuals being translated into the vernacular After examining the manuals of Thomas Slater and Henry Davis Keenan then turns to three works and a crowning synthesis of innovation all developed before during and soon after the Second World War The first by Odon Lottin asks whether moral theology is adequately historical Fritz Tillmann asks whether it s adequately biblical and Gerard Gilman whether it s adequately spiritual Bernard Haering integrates these contributions into his Law of Christ Of course people like Gerald Kelly and John Ford in the US are like a few moralists elsewhere classical gate keepers censoring innovation But with Humanae vitae and successive encyclicals bishops and popes reject the direction of moral theologians At the same time moral theologians like Josef Fuchs ask whether the locus of moral truth is in continuous universal teachings of the magisterium or in the moral judgment of the informed conscience In their move toward a deeper appreciation of their field as forming consciences they turn more deeply to local experience where they continue their work of innovation Each continent subsequently gives rise to their own respondents In Europe they speak of autonomy and personalism in Latin America liberation theology in North America Feminism and Black Catholic theology and in Asia and Africa a deep post colonial interculturatism At the end I assert that in its nature theological ethics is historical and innovative seeking moral truth for the conscience by looking to speak crossculturally Called to Live the Gospel Marilyn Kielbasa, 1996 The older teens in your parish want a youth ministry program that exposes them to relevant real world topics in an active engaging way Horizons is an innovative comprehensive approach to religious education Its foundation is teacher led creative learning strategies that give students ample opportunities for discussion reflection and fun Designed for grades 9 12 Horizons utilizes
