Decision Research A Field Guide:

Decision Research John S. Carroll, Eric Johnson, 1990-08 The interest in the process of decision making is spreading across the social sciences from politics to sociology This volume provides an introduction to the methods of behavioural decision research It is for readers who wish to critically examine popular and scientific writing to frame real world problems in terms of decision making and to generate and carry out original research directed at either fundamental understanding or applied problems

Decision Research John S. Carroll, Eric Johnson, 1990-08-01 The interest in the process of decision making is spreading across the social sciences from politics to sociology This volume provides an introduction to the methods of behavioural decision research It is for readers who wish to critically examine popular and scientific writing to frame real world problems in terms of decision making and to generate and carry out original research directed at either fundamental understanding or applied problems

Decision Research, 2002 The Adaptive Decision Maker John W. Payne, James R. Bettman, Eric J. Johnson, 1993-05-28 The Adaptive Decision Maker argues that people use a variety of strategies to make judgments and choices The authors introduce a model that shows how decision makers balance effort and accuracy considerations and predicts which strategy a person will use in a given situation A series of experiments testing the model are presented and the authors analyse how the model can lead to improved decisions and opportunities for further research

A Field Guide to Cross-Cultural Research on Childhood Learning Sheina Lew-Levy, Stephen Asatsa, 2025-05-09 This volume addresses the critical gaps in developmental research on childhood learning by advocating for a more inclusive and cross cultural approach Recent studies highlight a concerning over reliance on data from post industrialized western countries raising questions about the broader applicability of findings This book seeks to provide a comprehensive solution bridging the gap between theory and practice It offers a unique guide for researchers by combining interdisciplinary perspectives from anthropology psychology education and beyond With over 60 contributors from 21 countries the book weaves together diverse cultural insights challenging the narrow scope of traditional research Each chapter features multiple perspectives creating a coherent and thoughtful discussion of essential topics such as cultural learning childhood and the historical and social forces shaping development A Field Guide to Cross Cultural Research on Childhood Learning goes beyond theoretical discussions by offering practical advice on fieldwork ethics and engaging policymakers By centering marginalized voices and emphasizing community agency it strives to democratize developmental research The format is innovative merging the breadth of encyclopedic entries with the depth of cohesive chapters Moreover personal reflections and photographs embedded in the book will give readers a window into the experiences of those involved in cross cultural research on children This accessible academically rigorous volume is a must read for scholars seeking to advance inclusive and sustainable research on childhood learning and anybody interested in child development in a worldwide perspective
