Decolonising The Mind The Politics Of Language In African Literature:

Decolonising the mind Ngugi wa Thiong'o,1992 Decolonising the Mind Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o,1986 Ngugi wrote his first novels and plays in English but was determined even before his detention without trial in 1978 to move to writing in Gikuyu Decolonising the Mind Ngugi Wa Thiong'o,1986 Introduction Towards the universal language of struggle 1 The language of African Literature 2 The language of African theatre 3 The language of African fiction 4 The quest for relevance

Writers in Politics Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o,1997 This book reflects many of the concerns found in Decolonising the Mind and Moving the Centre Ngugi has put together a new collection under an old title rewriting most of the pieces that appeared in the original 1981 edition and adding completely new essays such as Freedom of Expression written for the campaign to try to save Ken Saro Wiwa and other Niger Delta activists and writers from execution in Nigeria Kenya EAEP Decolonising the Mind Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o,1987 The Post-colonial Studies Reader Bill Ashcroft,Gareth Griffiths,Helen Tiffin,2006

Boasting new extracts from major works in the field as well as an impressive list of contributors this second edition of a bestselling Reader is an invaluable introduction to the most seminal texts in post colonial theory and criticism African Literature as Political Philosophy Mary Stella Chika Okolo,2013-07-04 The politics of development in Africa have always been central concerns of the continent s literature Yet ideas about the best way to achieve this development and even what development itself should look like have been hotly contested African Literature as Political Philosophy looks in particular at Achebe s Anthills of the Savannah and Petals of Blood by Ngugi wa Thiong o but situates these within the broader context of developments in African literature over the past half century discussing writers from Ayi Kwei Armah to Wole Soyinka M S C Okolo provides a thorough analysis of the authors differing approaches and how these emerge from the literature She shows the roots of Achebe s reformism and Ngugi s insistence on revolution and how these positions take shape in their work Okolo argues that these authors have been profoundly affected by the political situation of Africa but have also helped to create a new African political philosophy Critical Readings of the Works of Ngugi wa Thiong'o Gambo Sani,2024-04-18 In this collection of scholarly essays on the works of Ngugi wa Thiong o one of the most important postcolonial writers alive the contributors adopt a range of reading approaches and analytical models like feminism postcolonialism historicism formalism and psychoanalysis to excavate new meanings and provide fresh insights into Ngugi s artistic oeuvre Through some robust and engaging scholarly discourses the volume animates the politics poetics and artistic vision of Ngugi wa Thiong o as well as his commitment to the enterprise of decolonisation The comprehensiveness of this collection is partly illustrated by the fact that it addresses a range of diverse issues in all of Ngugi s novels most of his plays and some of his scholarly works To this end the volume is a valuable addition to the body of literature on Ngugi s works and an important resource material to students teachers and researchers of African literature Decolonisation in Universities Jonathan Jansen,2019-04-01 In this collection of case studies and stories from the field South African scholars come together to trade stories on how to decolonise the university Shortly after the giant bronze statue of Cecil John Rhodes came down at the University of Cape Town student protestors called for the decolonisation of universities It was a word hardly heard in South Africa s struggle lexicon and many asked What exactly is decolonisation This edited volume brings together the best minds in curriculum theory to address this important question In the process several critical questions are raised Is decolonisation simply a slogan for addressing other pressing concerns on campuses and in society What is the colonial legacy with respect to curriculum and can it be undone How is the project of curriculum decolonisation similar to or different from the quest for postcolonial knowledge indigenous knowledge or a critical theory of knowledge What does decolonisation mean in a digital age where relationships between knowledge and power are shifting The book combines strong conceptual analyses with novel case studies of attempts to do decolonisation in settings as diverse as South Africa Uganda Tanzania and Mauritius Such a comparative perspective enables reasonable judgements to be made about the prospects for institutional take up within the curriculum of century old universities

Decolonising Journalism Education in South Africa Ms Zubeida Jaffer , Prof.

Ylva Rodny-Gumede , Dr Mvuso Ponono , Prof. Colin Chasi , 2021-12-20 With 342 years of colonialism and apartheid in South Africa a book of this calibre is essential to contribute to scholarly debates on the decolonisation of the media After the democratic dispensation in 1994 there was a narrow pursuit of transformation and media freedom while neglecting decolonisation patriarchal tendencies and the plight of black women journalists who are often vilified while discharging their duties It was two decades after democracy that the RhodesMustFall movement which later evolved into FeesMustFall movement reignited debates on decoloniality in the academia Moreover the book is published during the second wave of FeesMustFall student protests and the demand for decolonised free education is inevitable as no permanent solution to student funding crisis was crafted In the same vein the book advocates for decolonised pedagogy in universities including journalism curriculum That ownership of the media is still skewed towards white and with only few black companies gradually joining the industry also brings into doubt media freedom editorial independence ethics and integrity among media practitioners Therefore the decoloniality movement seeks to confront these structural challenges head on via dialogue to ensure the integrity of the journalism profession Decolonising journalism in South Africa is published at a time in which journalism serves a watchdog and a critique of a democratic government and needs to follow a bottom up social justice approach and become a voice to the voiceless Therefore this book seeks to revolutionise the media in a way that even the language of reporting of certain issues needs to be changed to a balanced kind of reporting characterised by principles of no fear or favour

Roads to Decolonisation Amy Duvenage, 2024-04-16 Roads to Decolonisation An Introduction to Thought from the Global South is an accessible new textbook that provides undergraduate students with a vital introduction to theory from the Global South and key issues of social justice arming them with the tools to theorise and explain the social world away from dominant Global North perspectives Arranged in four parts it examines key thinkers activists and theory work from the Global South theoretical concepts and socio historical conditions associated with race and racism gender and sexuality identity and un belonging in a globalised world and decolonisation and education challenges to dominant Euro American perspectives on key social justice issues linking decolonial discourses to contemporary case studies Each chapter offers an overview of key thinkers and activists whose work engages with social justice issues many of whom are under represented or left out of undergraduate humanities and social sciences textbooks in the North This is essential reading for students of the humanities and social sciences worldwide as well as scholars keen to embed Southern thought in their curricula and pedagogical practice Decolonising African Higher Education Christopher B. Knaus,Takako Mino,Johannes Seroto,2022-05-26 Across the African continent college student activists have long fought to decolonise African institutions Reflecting ongoing Western colonisation however Indigenous African languages thought and structures remain excluded from African universities Such universities remain steeped in Eurocentric modes of knowing teaching researching and communicating Students are rarely afforded the opportunity to learn about the wealth of knowledge and sustainable wisdom that was and is generated by their own home communities Such localised Indigenous African perspectives are critical in a world committed to anti Black racism capitalist materialism and global destruction This book thus clarifies decolonial efforts to transform higher education from its anti Black foundation offering hope from universities across the continent Writers are university administrators and faculty who directly challenge contemporary colonial education exploring tangible ways to decolonise structures curricula pedagogy research and community relationships Ultimately this book moves beyond structural transformation to call for a global commitment to develop Indigenous African led systems of higher education that foster multilingual communities local knowledges and localised approaches to global problems In shifting from a Western centric lens to multifaceted African centrism the authors reclaim decoloniality from co optation repositioning African intellectualism at the core of global higher education to sustain an Ubuntu based humanity The Routledge Handbook of English-Medium Instruction in Higher Education Kingsley Bolton,Werner Botha,Benedict Lin,2024-03-21 This Handbook discusses the theoretical and disciplinary background to the study of English medium instruction EMI in higher education worldwide It highlights issues relating to EMI pedagogy varying motivations for EMI education and the delivery of EMI in diverse contexts across the world The spread of English as a teaching medium and the lingua franca of the academic world has been the subject of various debates in recent years on the perceived hegemony of the English language and the domain loss of non English languages in academic communication Encompassing a wide range of contributions to the field of EMI the chapters of this Handbook are arranged in four distinct parts Part I provides an overview of English medium instruction in higher education worldwide Part II focusses on EMI in Europe Part III on EMI in the Middle East North Africa and Sub

Saharan Africa and Part IV on EMI in the Asian region The overall scope and level of expertise of this Handbook provides an unrivalled overview of this field of education It serves as an essential reference for many courses dealing with applied linguistics English language education multilingualism sociolinguistics and related subjects at many levels of education including Master s and PhD level studies This Handbook serves as a valuable edition for university libraries across the world and an essential read for many faculty undergraduate and postgraduate students educators and policymakers Drinking from the Cosmic Gourd B. Nyamnjoh, 2017-03-15 This book questions colonial and apartheid ideologies on being human and being African ideologies that continue to shape how research is conceptualised taught and practiced in universities across Africa Africans immersed in popular traditions of meaning making are denied the right by those who police the borders of knowledge to think and represent their realities in accordance with the civilisations and universes they know best Often the ways of life they cherish are labelled and dismissed too eagerly as traditional knowledge by some of the very African intellectual elite they look to for protection The book makes a case for sidestepped traditions of knowledge It draws attention to Africa's possibilities prospects and emergent capacities for being and becoming in tune with its creativity and imagination It speaks to the nimble footed flexible minded frontier African at the crossroads and junctions of encounters facilitating creative conversations and challenging regressive logics of exclusionary identities The book uses Amos Tutuola's stories to question dualistic assumptions about reality and scholarship and to call for conviviality interconnections and interdependence between competing knowledge traditions in Africa Decolonizing the English Literary Curriculum

Ato Quayson, Ankhi Mukherjee, 2023-11-09 George Floyd's death on May 25th 2020 marked a watershed in reactions to anti Black racism in the United States and elsewhere Intense demonstrations around the world followed Within literary studies the demonstrations accelerated the scrutiny of the literary curriculum the need to diversify the curriculum and the need to incorporate more Black writers Decolonizing the English Literary Curriculum is a major collection that aims to address these issues from a global perspective An international team of leading scholars illustrate the necessity and advantages of reform from specific decolonial perspectives with evidence based arguments from classroom contexts as well as establishing new critical agendas The significance of Decolonizing the English Literary Curriculum lies in the complete overhaul it proposes for the study of English literature It reconnects English studies the humanities and the modern international university to issues of racial and social justice This book is also available as Open Access on Cambridge Core Remapping African Literature Olabode Ibrionke, 2018-02-12 This book is an exploration of the material conditions of the production of African literature Drawing on the archives of Heinemann's African Writers Series it highlights the procedures relationships demands ideologies and counterpressures engendered by the publication of three major authors Chinua Achebe Wole Soyinka and Ngugi wa Thiong'o As a study of the history and techniques of African literary texts this book advances a theory of reciprocity of effects what it terms auto heteronomy to describe the dynamic of formalist activism by which texts anticipate and shape the forces of literary production in advance It serves as a departure from the death of the author thesis by reconsidering the role of the author in African literature and culture industry as well as the influence of African publics on writers aesthetic choices and on the overall processes of production This work is a major contribution to African literary history literary criticism and book history Reader's Guide to Literature in English Mark Hawkins-Dady,2012-12-06 Reader s Guide Literature in English provides expert guidance to and critical analysis of the vast number of books available within the subject of English literature from Anglo Saxon times to the current American British and Commonwealth scene It is designed to help students teachers and librarians choose the most appropriate books for research and study Coloniality of Power in Postcolonial Africa Sabelo J. Ndlovu-Gatsheni,2013 In this book the author examines the current state of postcolonial Africa with a focus on the liberation predicament and the crisis of epistemological cultural economic and political dependence created by colonialism and coloniality The Politics of Heritage in Africa Derek R. Peterson,Kodzo Gavua,Ciraj Rassool,2015-03-02 This book shows African heritage to be a mode of political organisation where heritage work has a uniquely wide currency
