The Deconstructive Turn (Routledge Revivals) Christopher Norris, 2010-01-22 What might be the outcome for philosophy if its texts were subjected to the powerful techniques of rhetorical close reading developed by current deconstructionist literary critics When first published in 1983 Christopher Norris book was the first to explore such questions in the context of modern analytic and linguistic philosophy opening up a new and challenging dimension of inter disciplinary study and creating a fresh and productive dialogue between philosophy and literary theory

The Deconstructive Turn Christopher Norris, 1984 What might be the outcome for philosophy if its texts were subjected to the powerful techniques of rhetorical close reading developed by current deconstructionist literary critics This book is the first to explore such questions in the context of modern analytic and linguistic philosophy In doing so it opens up a new and challenging dimension of inter disciplinary study

The Deconstructive Turn (Routledge Revivals) Christopher Norris, 2010 Annotation What might be the outcome for philosophy if its texts were subjected to the powerful techniques of rhetorical close reading developed by current deconstructionist literary critics When first published in 1983 Christopher Norris book was the first to explore such questions in the context of modern analytic and linguistic philosophy opening up a new and challenging dimension of inter disciplinary study and creating a fresh and productive dialogue between philosophy and literary theory

Derrida on Being as Presence David A. White, 2017-04-24 Jacques Derrida s extensive early writings devoted considerable attention to being as presence the reality underlying the history of metaphysics In Derrida on Being as Presence Questions and Quests David A White develops the intricate conceptual structure of this notion by close exegetical readings drawn from these writings White discusses cardinal concepts in Derrida s revamping of theoretical considerations pertaining to language signification context negation iterability as these considerations depend on the structure of being as presence and also as they ground deconstructive reading White s appraisal raises questions invoking a range of problems He deploys these questions in conjunction with thematically related quests that arise given Derrida s conviction that the history of metaphysics as variations on being as presence has concealed and skewed vital elements of reality White inflects this critical apparatus concerning being as presence with texts drawn from that history e g by Plato Aristotle Bacon Hume Kant Whitehead The essay concludes with a speculative ensemble of provisional categories or zones of specificity Implementing these categories will ground the possibility that philosophy in general and metaphysics in particular can be pursued in ways which acknowledge the relevance of Derrida s thought when integrated with the philosophical enterprise as traditionally understood

John Fowles's Fiction and the Poetics of Postmodernism Mahmoud Salami, 1992 Salami presents for instance a critique of the self conscious narrative of the diary form in The Collector the intertextual relations of the multiplicity of voices the problems of subjectivity the reader s position the politics of seduction ideology and history in The Magus and The French Lieutenant s Woman The book also analyzes the ways in which Fowles uses and abuses the short story genre in which enigmas remain enigmatic and the author disappears to leave the characters free to construct their own texts Salami centers for example on A Maggot which embodies the postmodernist technique of dialogical narrative the problem of narrativization of history and the explicitly political critique of both past and present in terms of social and religious dissent These political questions are also echoed in Fowles's nonfictional book The Aristos in which he strongly rejects the totalization of narratives and the materialization of society The Ironist and the Romantic Áine

Mahon,2014-05-22 At the time of his death in 2007 Richard Rorty was widely acclaimed as one of the world's most influential contemporary thinkers Stanley Cavell who has been a leading intellectual figure from the 1960s to the present has been just as philosophically influential as Rorty though perhaps not as politically divisive Both philosophers have developed from analytic to post-analytical thought both move between philosophy literature and cultural politics and both re-establish American philosophical traditions in a new and nuanced key The Ironist and the Romantic Reading Richard Rorty and Stanley Cavell finds the sound of Rorty's cheerful pragmatism strikingly at odds with the anxious romanticism of Cavell Beginning from this tonal discord and moving through comprehensive comparative analysis on the topics of scepticism American philosophy literature writing style and politics this book presents the work of its central figures in a novel and mutually illuminating perspective in Mahon's unique and original comparative reading will be of interest not only to those working on Rorty and Cavell but to anyone concerned with the current state of American philosophy Schiller to Derrida Juliet Sychrava,1989-06-30 This is a historical critique of literary theory from the eighteenth to the twentieth centuries

Rethinking Global Political Economy Kurt Burch,Robert A. Denemark,Kenneth P. Thomas,Mary Ann Tétreault,2004-02-24 This new volume presents innovative approaches to the fundamental issues of the global political economy in particular post Cold War development analyses of capital and negative aspects of globalization Kierkegaard Bibliography Peter

Šajda,Jon Bartley Stewart,2016 (Dis)continuities: Essays on Paul de Man ,2025-01-20 Language, Truth, and Literature Richard Gaskin,2013-04-18 Richard Gaskin offers an original defence of literary humanism according to which works of imaginative literature have an objective meaning which is fixed at the time of production and not subject to individual readers responses He shows that the appreciation of literature is a cognitive activity fully on a par with scientific investigation

The Metaphoric Process Gemma Corradi Fiumara,2005-08-16 Metaphor is much more than just a linguistic phenomena argues Gemma Corradi Fiumara it is in fact the key process by which we construct and develop our ability to understand the world and the people we share it with Rationality as understood by philosophers has led to a disembodied view of ourselves in which interaction between life and language has been downplayed By looking at the metaphoric process in an interpersonal rather than a formal way its importance in allowing us access to new worlds of experience is revealed The metaphoric potential in us all exposes us to the world and initiates our involvement in it The Poverty of Structuralism Leonard Jackson,2014-09-11 The Poverty of Structuralism is the first in a sequence of volumes which examine in turn the basic ideas of Saussure Marx and Freud and analyse the way in which they have been developed and applied to art culture and modern textual theory The text offers a critical introduction to the structuralist foundations of modern literary theory It gives an account of the way such foundations have been developed twisted and distorted to become part of the language that contemporary literary and cultural theoreticians use It also addresses some of the fundamental issues about language and society that are presupposed by the often difficult language of modern literary and cultural theory

The Cambridge History of Literary Criticism: Volume 8, From Formalism to Poststructuralism George Alexander Kennedy, Raman Selden, 1989 Volume 8 of The Cambridge History of Literary Criticism deals with the most influential and hotly debated areas of literary theory those developing in Europe but having their main impact in the Anglo American world of academic literary studies whose course they have fundamentally redirected The structuralism poststructuralism Russian formalism semiotics narratology hermeneutics phenomenology reception theory and speech act theory associated with European writers including Barthes Todorov Derrida and Iser are here described in the context of their original development but with an eye also to their eventual influence and the volume includes a reflective chapter by Richard Rorty on deconstruction Incorporating full bibliographies this volume engages systematically with the history of the twentieth century's most profound and extensive set of cross cultural intellectual movements

A Theory of Textuality Jorge J. E. Gracia, 1995-07-01 This is the first comprehensive and systematic theory of textuality that takes into account the relevant views of both analytic and Continental thinkers and also of major historical figures The author shows that most of the confusion surrounding textuality is the result of three factors a too narrow understanding of the category a lack of a proper distinction among logical epistemological and metaphysical issues and a lack of proper grounding of epistemological and metaphysical questions on logic analyses The author begins with a logical analysis of the notion of text resulting in a definition that serves as the basis for the distinctions he subsequently draws between texts on the one hand and language artifacts and art objects on the other and for the classification of texts according to their modality and function The second part of the book uses the conclusions of the first part to solve the various epistemological issues which have been raised about texts by philosophers of language semioticians hermeneuticists literary critics semanticists aestheticians and historiographers

Redrawing the Lines Reed Way Dasenbrock, 1989 Redrawing the Lines was first published in 1989 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions Since 1970 literary theory has experienced a period of rich interaction with both Anglo American analytic and Continental philosophy particularly deconstruction Yet these two philosophical schools have regarded each other with hostility if at all as in the 1977 exchange between John Searle and Jacques Derrida over the work of J L Austin Since then the two philosophical traditions have begun to interact as each has influenced literary theory and some suggest that they are not diametrically opposed Redrawing the Lines the first book to focus on that interaction brings together ten essays by key figures who have worked to connect literary theory and philosophy and to reassess the relationship between analytic and Continental philosophy The editor's introduction establishes the debate's historical context and his annotated bibliography directs the interested reader to virtually everything written on this issue The contributors Reed Way Dasenbrock Henry Staten Michael Fischer Charles Altieri Richard Shusterman Samuel C Wheeler III Jules David Law Steven Winspur Christopher Norris Richard Rorty and Anthony J Cascardi Reed Way Dasenbrock is associate professor of English at New Mexico State University He is the author of The Literary Vorticism of Ezra Pound and Wyndham Lewis Toward the Condition of Painting Derrida Christopher Norris, 1987 Norris demonstrates that Derrida's texts should be understood more as philosophy than as literature He explains the position of Derrida's writing within the Western philosophical tradition and discusses some of the reasons for the massive institutional resistance that has so far prevented philosophers from engaging seriously with Derrida's work Psychoanalysis and the Postmodern Impulse Barnaby B. Barratt, 2015-11-06 According to the author psychoanalytic theory and practice which discloses the interminable falsity of the human subject's belief in the mastery of its own mental life is in part responsible for the coming of the postmodern era In this title originally published in 1993 Barratt examines the role of psychoanalysis in what he sees as the crisis of modernism shows why the modernist position what he calls the modern episteme is failing and proposes that psychoanalysis should redefine itself as a postmodern method In Barratt's innovative account of psychoanalysis which focuses on the significance of the free associative process Freud's discovery of the repressed unconscious leads to a claim that is basic to postmodern ideas that all thinking and speaking the production and reproduction of psychic reality is inherently dynamic polysemous and contradictory He argues that subsequent attempts to normalize and systematize psychoanalysis are reactionary and antipsychoanalytic efforts to salvage the modern episteme that psychoanalysis itself calls into question Interpretation Radical but Not Unruly Joseph Margolis, 2023-09-01 With this challenging work Joseph Margolis continues the project begun in The Flux of History and the Flux of Science California 1993 Tackling one of philosophy's master themes he develops the controversial thesis that the world is a flux Here he applies this doctrine to Western theories of history and the interpretation of cultural phenomena offering the first sustained analysis of the logic methodology and metaphysics of interpretation committed to a thoroughgoing relativism and the historicized structure of cultural phenomena Versed in Anglo American and Continental philosophy Margolis draws on the best views of Western philosophy to investigate a topic regularly ignored in that tradition The result is the surprising synthesis of two historically antipathetic approaches to philosophy With this challenging work Joseph Margolis continues the project begun in The Flux of History and the Flux of Science California 1993 Tackling one of philosophy's master themes he develops the controversial thesis that the world is a flux He William Empson Paul H. Fry, 2002-01-31 First book to look at Empson's intellectual career as a whole Empson's Seven Types of Ambiguity is a seminal text
