Consumption Manifesto Günce Demir, Consumption Manifesto offers a deep dive into the sociological layers of small town dynamics in Turkey specifically examining the Manisa gentry's use of living room furniture as a tool for social distinction. Written by Dr Güneş Demir and adapted from her PhD thesis, the book investigates how furniture preferences, consumption patterns, and intergenerational shifts in taste reflect the gentry's evolving status within a complex social hierarchy. Blending the theories of Marx, Weber, and Bourdieu, the study unveils how the Manisa gentry employs material culture to assert their identity, differentiate themselves from others, and adapt to societal transformations over time. By focusing on the living room, a symbolic space of representation, the author sheds light on how personal choices resonate with broader societal structures, shaping and reflecting the ever-changing notions of class status and tradition. For readers interested in sociology, cultural studies, or the nuanced interplay between consumption and identity, Consumption Manifesto provides a groundbreaking perspective on the intricate relationship between material goods and social stratification in small-town Turkey.
