Consultant & Independent Contractor Agreements Stephen Fishman, 2020-09-16 Get your contract in writing. With the rise of the gig economy, independent contractor arrangements are more common than ever. Whether you're an independent contractor or a business hiring one to work for you, a written agreement will help to protect your rights, define expectations, and prove that there's no employer-employee relationship. Here you'll find specific agreements for many types of independent contractors and freelancers including salespeople, accountants, software consultants, and construction contractors. You'll learn how to draft a binding agreement, define a project's scope, preserve confidentiality, distinguish between employees and independent contractors, protect your intellectual property, amend your agreement, and satisfy IRS requirements. Each chapter has two agreements: one geared towards the independent contractor and one geared towards the business hiring an independent contractor. The 10th edition, completely updated to provide the latest rules and regulations, includes a useful chapter on agreements for gig workers. With downloadable forms, download all the forms you need to draw up a solid contract. Details inside.
