Deep Blue A Novel Of Racial Conflict:

Deep Blue John Bramhall, 2004-02 Why do partners return to dysfunctional relationships forgiving forgetting and forever repeating the same miserable scenario Without awareness and mastery of entrancing hypnotic forces relationships can be severely damaged or even destroyed The essential premise is that addictive enmeshment is the result of what are experienced as irresistible pulls from hypnotic entrancement Hypnotic entrancement is fantasy fixation of perfect love leading to eventual demise Parallels are drawn to hypnotic phenomena Entrancement involves a coming together or fusion of idealized images superimposed upon physical attributes of the partner Each partner brings to the relationship ideals or images of their perfect mate Partners merge their ideal images of love and beauty with the size shape and contour symmetries of mates The scope of the book is to guide the reader through the turbulence where the hidden self is revealed as an anchor of sensory motifs Sensory motifs are inherent self organizing structures and characteristics that give partners their sense of uniqueness Numerous case examples illustrate a four stage parallel between addictive bonds and hypnosis e g idealization disillusionment obsession and reproachment Reawakening is described as releasing entrancement through the emergence of innate artistic motifs Intelligence Report , 2004 Sidney Poitier Aram Goudsouzian, 2011-01-20 In the first full biography of actor Sidney Poitier Aram Goudsouzian analyzes the life and career of a Hollywood legend from his childhood in the Bahamas to his 2002 Oscar for lifetime achievement Poitier is a gifted actor a great American success story an intriguing personality and a political symbol his life and career illuminate America s racial history In such films as Lilies of the Field In the Heat of the Night and Guess Who s Coming to Dinner Poitier s middle class mannered virtuous screen persona contradicted prevailing film stereotypes of blacks as half wits comic servants or oversexed threats His screen image and public support of nonviolent integration assuaged the fears of a broad political center and by 1968 Poitier was voted America s favorite movie star Through careful readings of every Poitier film Goudsouzian shows that Poitier s characters often made sacrifices for the good of whites and rarely displayed sexuality As the only black leading man during the civil rights era Poitier chose roles and public positions that negotiated the struggle for dignity By 1970 times had changed and Poitier was the target of a backlash from film critics and black radicals as the new heroes of blaxploitation movies reversed the Poitier model In the 1970s Poitier shifted his considerable talents toward directing starring in and producing popular movies that employed many African Americans both on and off screen After a long hiatus he returned to starring roles in the late 1980s More recently the film industry has reappraised his career and Poitier has received numerous honors recognizing his multi faceted work for black equality in Hollywood As this biography affirms Poitier remains one of American popular culture s foremost symbols of the possibilities for and limits of racial equality Racial Conflicts and Afro-Americans Dr. Sheikh Muhammad Amir Ayub Chishti , 2022-10-14 This work is an attempt to objectively examine the impact of racial conflict between the Afro Americans and the white of United States of America with special reference to the work of Richard

Wright James Baldwin and Ralph Ellison Reality's Dark Light Maria K. Bachman, Don Richard Cox, 2003 In the midst of a Victorian culture ingrained with strict social etiquette and societal norms Wilkie Collins composed novels that contained asocial even anarchic impulses A contemporary of Dickens Collins creates a world more Kafkaesque than Dickensian a world populated by doppelgangers secret selves oddballs and grotesques The essays of Reality's Dark Light The Sensational Wilkie Collins purposefully work to expand Collins's legacy beyond The Woman in White and The Moonstone they move well past the simplistic view of Collins's works as sensation novels detective novels or even popular fiction all labels that carry with them pejorative connotations This collection represents the range of Collins's aesthetic project from various critical perspectives New methodological and theoretical approaches are applied both to his most popular and to his lesser known works giving the reader a broader picture of this multifaceted and undervalued writer The Editors Maria K Bachman in an assistant professor of English at Coastal Carolina University Her articles have appeared in Victorian Newsletter Literature and Psychology The Dickensian and Dickens Studies Annual Don Richard Cox is a professor of English and associate dean at the University of Tennessee His books include Sexuality and Victorian Literature Tennessee Arthur Conan Doyle and Charles Dickens's The Mystery of Edwin Drood An Annotated Bibliography He is the coeditor with Maria Bachman of an edition of Wilkie Collins's final novel Blind Love

Narrative Conventions and Race in the Novels of Toni Morrison Jennifer Lee Jordan Heinert, 2012-11-12 This study analyzes the relationship between race and genre in four of Toni Morrison's novels The Bluest Eye Tar Baby Jazz and Beloved Heinert argues how Morrison's novels revise conventional generic forms such as bildungsroman folktales slave narratives and the formal realism of the novel itself This study goes beyond formalist analyses to show how these revisions expose the relationship between race conventional generic forms and the dominant culture Morrison's revisions critique the conventional roles of African Americans as subjects of and in the genre of the novel and rewrite roles which instead privilege their subjectivity This study provides readers with new ways of understanding Morrison's novels Whereas critics often fault Morrison for breaking with traditional forms and resisting resolution in her novels this analysis shows how Morrison's revisions shift the narrative truth of the novel from its representation in conventional forms to its interpretation by the readers who are responsible for constructing their own resolution or version of narrative truth These revisions expose how the dominant culture has privileged specific forms of narration in turn these forms privilege the values of the dominant culture Morrison's novels attempt to undermine this privilege and rewrite the canon of American literature

Blue Joe Domanick, 2016-08-23 American policing is in crisis Here award winning investigative journalist Joe Domanick reveals the troubled history of American policing over the past quarter century He begins in the early 1990s with the beating of Rodney King and the L A riots when the Los Angeles Police Department was caught between a corrupt and racist past and the demands of a rapidly changing urban population Across the country American cities faced similar challenges to law and order In New York William J Bratton was spearheading the reorganization of the New York City Transit Police and later the

35 000 strong New York Police Department His efforts resulted in a dramatic decrease in crime yet introduced highly controversial policing strategies In 2002 when Bratton was named the LAPD s new chief he implemented the lessons learned in New York to change a department that previously had been impervious to reform Blue ends in 2015 with the LAPD on its unfinished road to reform as events in Los Angeles New York Baltimore and Ferguson Missouri raise alarms about the very strategies Bratton pioneered and about aggressive racial profiling and the militarization of police departments throughout the United States Domanick tells his story through the lives of the people who lived it Along with Bratton he introduces William Parker the legendary LAPD police chief Tom Bradley the first black mayor of Los Angeles and Charlie Beck the hard nosed ex gang cop who replaced Bratton as LAPD chief The result is both intimate and expansive a gripping narrative that asks big questions about what constitutes good and bad policing and how best to prevent crime control police abuse and ease tensions between the police and the powerless Blue is not only a page turning read but an essential addition to our scholarship Adapted from book jacket

The New Zealand Wars and the Victorian Interpretation of Racial Conflict James Belich, 2013-10-01 The New Zealand Wars is a powerful revisionist history Revealing the enormous tactical and military skill of Maori and the inability of the Victorian interpretation of racial conflict to acknowledge those qualities this account of the New Zealand Wars changed how the country s history was understood Belich undertakes a complete reinterpretation of the crucial episode in New Zealand history and the result is a very different picture from the one previously given in historical works Maori in this new view won the Northern War and stalemated the British in the Taranaki War of 1860 61 only to be defeated by 18 000 British troops in the Waikato War of 1863 64 The secret of effective Maori resistance was an innovative military system the modern pa a trench and bunker fortification of a sophistication not achieved in Europe until 1915 According to the author The degree of Maori success in all four major wars is still underestimated even to the point where in the case of one war the wrong side is said to have won Here Belich sets out to show how historical distortions have arisen over time and revises our understanding of New Zealand history by using fresh evidence and a systematic re analysis of old evidence

Travelling Across Cultures Spanish Association for American Studies. Congreso, 2000 Selves in Dialogue Begoña Simal, 2011 Selves in Dialogue A Transethnic Approach to American Life Writing constitutes an explicit answer to the urgent call for a comparative study of American autobiography This collection of essays ostensibly intends to cut across cultural racial and or ethnic boundaries introducing the concept of transethnicity and arguing for its increasing validity in the ever changing field of American Studies Accordingly the comparative analysis in Selves in Dialogue is implemented not by juxtaposing essays that pay separate but equal attention to specific monoethnic or monocultural traditions as has been the usual strategy in book length publications of this sort but by critically engaging with two or more different traditions in every single essay Mixing rather than segregating The transethnic approach proposed in this collection does not imply erasing the very difference and diversity that makes American autobiographies all the more thrilling to read and study Group specific research of an intra ethnic nature should and will continue to thrive And yet the field of American Studies is now ready to indulge more freely and more knowledgeably in transethnic explorations of life writing in an attempt to delineate both the divergences and the similarities between the different autobiographies written in the US Because of its unusual perspective Selves in Dialogue can be of interest not only for specialists in life writing but also for those working in the larger fields of American Literature Ethnic Studies or American Studies Affectivity and Race Assoc Prof Rikke Andreassen, Dr Kathrine Vitus, 2015-10-28 This book presents new empirical studies of social difference in the Nordic welfare states in order to advance novel theoretical perspectives on the everyday practices and macro politics of race and gender in multi ethnic societies With attention to the specific political and cultural landscapes of the Nordic countries Affectivity and Race draws on a variety of sources including television programmes news media fictional literature interviews ethnographic observations teaching curricula and policy documents to explore the ways in which ideas about affectivity and emotion afford new insights into the experience of racial difference and the unfolding of political discourses on race in various social spheres Blue Book of the Inauguration of the Commonwealth of the Philippines Philippines (Commonwealth) Inauguration committee, 1935 Playing in the White Stephanie Li, 2015 The postwar period witnessed an outpouring of white life novels that is texts by African American writers focused almost exclusively on white characters Almost every major mid twentieth century black writer including Zora Neale Hurston Richard Wright Ann Petry and James Baldwin published one of these anomalous texts Controversial since their publication in the 1940s and 50s these novels have since fallen into obscurity given the challenges they pose to traditional conceptions of the African American literary canon Playing in the White Black Writers White Subjects aims to bring these neglected novels back into conversations about the nature of African American literature and the unique expectations imposed upon black texts In a series of nuanced readings Li demonstrates how postwar black novelists were at the forefront of what is now commonly understood as whiteness studies Novels like Hurston s Seraph on the Suwanee and Wright s Savage Holiday once read as abdications of the political imperative of African American literature are revisited with an awareness of how whiteness signifies in multivalent ways that critique America s abiding racial hierarchies These novels explore how this particular racial construction is freighted with social power and narrative meaning Whiteness repeatedly figures in these texts as a set of expectations that are nearly impossible to fulfill By describing characters who continually fail at whiteness white life novels ask readers to reassess what race means for all Americans Along with its close analysis of key white life novels Playing in the White Black Writers White Subjects also provides important historical context to understand how these texts represented the hopes and anxieties of a newly integrated nation A Question of Genocide Ronald Grigor Suny, Fatma Müge Göçek, Norman M. Naimark, 2011-02-02 One hundred years after the deportations and mass murder of Armenians Greeks Assyrians and other peoples in the final years of the Ottoman Empire the history of the Armenian genocide is a victim of historical distortion state sponsored falsification and deep divisions between Armenians and Turks Working together for the first time Turkish Armenian and other scholars present here a compelling reconstruction of what happened and why This volume gathers the most up to date scholarship on Armenian genocide looking at how the event has been written about in Western and Turkish historiographies what was happening on the eve of the catastrophe portraits of the perpetrators detailed accounts of the massacres how the event has been perceived in both local and international contexts including World War I and reflections on the broader implications of what happened then The result is a comprehensive work that moves beyond nationalist master narratives and offers a more complete understanding of this tragic event Joyce Cary and the Novel of Africa Michael J. C.
