Cemetery of the Living Dead Drac Von Stoller, 2012-01-26 Johnny was Gravendale s grave digger and embalmer who loved his job especially picking a special spot that he thought the deceased would be proud to be buried at Johnny was a little weird because during the embalming process he would sit beside the cold slab the body was lying on and as he was inserting the hose into the deceased body to drain their blood he would read stories to them and talk to them as though they were still alive After all the visiting relatives of the deceased were gone and Johnny locked the cemetery gate he would go inside his trailer that he lived in at the cemetery get his lantern and a book and sit down by a grave of a recent deceased person and read stories to them Johnny thought the dead person could hear what he was saying more clearly by not burying their casket so deep but Johnny was unaware that he was in for a big surprise for not burying the dead at the right depth Johnny took such good care of the dead he would make sure they were dressed properly for their burial and polish the casket Johnny would even pose in pictures with the deceased to put in his photo album Sometimes Johnny would even dig up the bodies and sit them up in their casket and talk to them about the stories he read to them Johnny didn t realize he was playing with fire for disturbing their final resting place
