Rethinking L1 Education in a Global Era Bill Green, Per-Olof Erixon, 2020-11-24 This book brings together a range of scholars from 10 different countries to address the contemporary state of play in national standard language education in the L1 subjects. It seeks to understand the field from within a comparative historical and transnational frame. Four thematic threads are woven through the volume: educationalisation, globalisation, pluriculturalism and technologization. The chapters range over various aspects of L1 as a school subject, literature, language and literacy, reading and writing, media and digital technology, the dialogue between curriculum inquiry and Didaktik studies, the continuing relevance of Bildung, the significance of history and nation and new challenges of culture and environment in the face of climate change. The book concludes with a reflection on the prospects for L1 education today and tomorrow in a now thoroughly globalised context and accordingly deeply implicated in a necessary new project of nation re-building. Sense of Place, Identity and the

Revisioning of Curriculum Terry Locke, 2023-08-12 This book explores intersections between sense of place, the formation of identity, indigeneity and colonisation, literature and literary study, the arts and a revisioned school curriculum for the Anthropocene. Underpinning the book is a conviction that sense of place is central to the fostering of the change of heart required to secure the survival of human life on earth. It offers a coherent overview of seemingly disparate realities on a geographically and historically sprawling canvas. The book is a work of literary non-fiction drawing on a range of sources: literary works and criticism, theoretical research, empirical studies and artworks. Of its very nature, the book enacts an extensive cultural critique. After establishing a cross-disciplinary foundation for sense of place, the book describes its relationship to identity with reference to such terms as attachment, dispossession, reclamation and representation. It shows how a hopeful narrative for planet stewardship can be developed by the uptake of indigenous and traditional discourses of place. It concludes with the envisioning of a place-conscious curriculum and ways in which an activist agenda might be pursued in the Anthropocene. International Who's Who in Poetry 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Provides up-to-date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets. Kisses in the Netherlands Epeli Hau'ofa, 1995-06-01 In the best Rabelaisian tradition, this brilliant satire weaves a tale of improbabilities around the seat of the last great taboo. Oilei Bomboki wakes one morning with an excruciating pain that sends him anxiously searching for a cure. Unsuccessful treatments at the hands of various healers and doctors culminating in a bizarre operation lead the desperate Oilei to seek the help of Babu Vivekanand, sage, yogi and conman. Through Babu's teachings, Oilei learns to love and respect the source of his own complaint. By turns savage and absurdly comic, this brilliant satire allows Hau'ofa to comment on aspects of life in a small Pacific community perched precariously between traditional and modern ways. Sons for the Return Home Albert
